Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Interpreting China's Military Power Ka Po Ng, 2005-08-09 Although inter state tensions have generally been easing after the Cold War military power remains a dominant factor in Asian regional politics As China operating the world s largest army grows stronger there are ongoing debates over the implications for Asia s regional security This book argues that it is imperative to look beyond the empirical observations and conventional materialist reading of Chinese military development to understand its dynamics and directions in doctrinal terms and put it in a readiness context for evaluation Military doctrine has long been under studied and is often treated as a subject separate from force development But as this study contends this factor is necessary for interpreting the making and purposes of China s military power because it forms the intellectual foundation of military structural and hardware development When loaded with political rhetoric it also communicates to us the intended uses of the military power The role of doctrine is reinforced in the context of military readiness which defines what for and how the army is getting ready Force development is evaluated in structural operational and directional terms The importance of this analytical framework based on military doctrine and readiness is demonstrated in a survey of the evolution of Chinese military doctrine and force development As the Chinese People s Liberation Army has continued to adjust its military structure and operation to follow the doctrinal lead its switches between the doctrines of local war and total war have seen corresponding changes to the emphasis between operational and structural readiness The Air Weapon Andrew G.B.

Vallance,2016-07-27 Air power today dominates virtually all military operations yet it remains the least well understood form of armed force Technical and tactical details of aviation forces are widely available but few understand how such forces are best used in prosecuting defence and security policy The Air Weapon seeks to address this deficiency by setting out the doctrines which guide the use of air power at the strategic and operational levels of war It identifies what aviation forces can and cannot be used to achieve It encompasses doctrines for war fighting and also for war prevention And it suggests possible directions for future doctrinal development Following a cohesive top down analytical path the study deals with air power in the only viable way as an integrated entity The Air Weapon is perhaps the only all encompassing high level study of this critically important yet all too little understood form of military power Sub Hunters Anthony Cooper,2021-01-29 Excellent photographs from the Australian War Memorial collection Dramatic air battles over a turbulent sea hundreds of miles from land and without hope of rescue Striking U boat kills as concrete proof of operational successes Beautifully illustrated with many rare and unpublished photographs Of interest to aviation and military historians modellers gamers and flight simulator enthusiasts 1943 was the turning point in the Battle of the Atlantic when forces technologies and tactics turned against Germany s U boats The victory not only secured Britain s trans Atlantic lifeline to the United States but also enabled the vast build up in military forces in Britain necessary to launch D Day in 1944 The Allied battle to defeat the U boat menace was a combined effort by the naval and air forces of several Allied nations and this is the story of one part during the decisive mid war period Nos 10 and 461 Squadrons of the Royal Australian Air Force flew Sunderland flying boats from bases in Wales and Devon as part of RAF Coastal Command these two squadrons flew long range daylight missions over the eastern Atlantic patrolling Britain s southwest approaches They hunted and killed U boats transiting between their mid Atlantic hunting grounds and their bases in Bordeaux and fought furious air battles over the Bay of Biscay against Luftwaffe Ju 88 long range fighters tasked specifically with shooting them down These two Australian squadrons established a combat record Taking the Lead Mark Lax,2020-03-01 As Australia withdrew from Vietnam in 1972 few in the Australian Defence Force none the least those in the Royal Australian Air Force could foresee the immense change that would sweep across the Service New and emerging international relationships changing Australian social attitudes and a growing sense of defence self reliance would all impact how the RAAF contributed to the application of air power in the defence of the nation and in supporting Australia s wider national interests For the first time Taking the Lead brings to the reader a comprehensive and authoritative study of how the RAAF matured over its third quarter century how it met the challenges faced and how it finally came of age able to take the lead when asked By 1996 plans were in place such that the RAAF was well on the way to becoming the world s first fifth generation air force by making a remarkable transition This volume also dispels the myth that the RAAF did little in the latter part of the twentieth century but train In fact the RAAF was at the forefront of operations as wide afield as the Sub Continent the Middle East Africa and South East Asia Then there was aid to the civil community as well as aid to those nations seeking help in wider Asia Pacific region Clever force restructuring for expeditionary operations amid the stress of downsizing by almost a third meant that future operations in the twenty first century were to be a success Taking the Lead is not just about aircraft bases and flying It considers the strategic environment of the era the factors that affected personnel and training how the RAAF s force structure advanced and how the RAAF managed its successes and failures For those seeking to learn more about their air force then this book is essential reading Taking the Lead covers this vital part of the RAAF s unfolding narrative and perfectly illustrates how the RAAF remained true to its motto Per Ardua ad Astra Through Adversity to the Stars

Oboe One, Tarakan, 1945 Peter Stanley,2025-07-02 In 1945 the small island of Tarakan off Borneo s coast became the unlikely stage for one of the Second World War s most gruelling campaigns As part of General Douglas MacArthur s plan to liberate the Netherlands Indies Australian soldiers launched Operation Oboe One a mission to capture Tarakan s airstrip What was meant to last three weeks stretched into two months of bitter jungle warfare claiming 240 Australian lives and 1 500 Japanese defenders The airstrip s strategic goal faltered but the courage and sacrifice of those who fought there remain untold Through vivid narratives and exhaustive research Oboe One brings this obscure battle to life uncovering the grit and camaraderie of the Second Australian Imperial Force These citizen soldiers faced dense jungles hidden mines and relentless enemy fire embodying professionalism and resilience in the war s final days Their experiences reveal not just the hardships of combat but the unique ethos of a generation shaped by a vanished Australia an era of robust unpolished camaraderie and quiet determination This compelling account revisits Tarakan through the eyes of its participants and confronts lingering questions about the campaign s necessity Was it a strategic misstep or a justified sacrifice within the larger Pacific war effort Tarakan challenges readers to remember the forgotten honour the fallen and understand the extraordinary men whose lives were forever marked by this brutal campaign For those seeking to explore the human cost of war Tarakan is an essential tribute to courage leadership and the enduring echoes of an extraordinary Australian legacy

Kokoda Air Strikes Anthony Cooper, 2014-07-01 The author of the bestselling Darwin Spitfires casts a forensic eye over the role that Allied air forces played or failed to play in crucial World War II campaigns in New Guinea This is the story of the early battles of the South West Pacific theatre the Coral Sea Kokoda Milne Bay Guadalcanal presented as a single air campaign that began with the Japanese conquest of Rabaul in January 1942 It is a story of both Australian and American airmen who flew and fought in the face of adversity with incomplete training inadequate aircraft and from poorly set up and exposed airfields And they persisted despite extreme exhaustion sickness poor morale and the near certainty of being murdered by their Japanese captors if they went down in enemy territory
