Power Switch Energy Regulatory Governance In The Twenty First Century:

Power Switch G. Bruce Doern, Monica Gattinger, 2003-12-20 In the energy sector of Canadian economic and political life power has a double meaning It is quintessentially about the generation of power and physical energy However it is also about political power the energy of the economy and thus the overall governance of Canada Power Switch offers a critical examination of the changing nature of energy regulatory governance with a particular focus on Canada in the larger contexts of the George W Bush administration s aggressive energy policies and within North American energy markets Focusing on the key institutions and complex regimes of regulation Bruce Doern and Monica Gattinger look at specific regulatory bodies such as the National Energy Board the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board and the Ontario Energy Board They also examine the complex systems of rule making that develop as traditional energy regulation interacts and often collides with environmental and climate change regulation such as the Kyoto Protocol on reducing greenhouse gas emissions Power Switch is one of the first accounts in many years of Canada s overall energy regulatory system

Offshore Petroleum Politics Peter Clancy, 2011-09-01 The extraction of oil and gas from offshore continental shelves represents one of the most dynamic sectors of global petroleum development It is also one of the most complex Atlantic Canada is no exception and the history of Scotian Basin petroleum over the past half century reveals a fascinating series of political challenges accommodations and settlements Peter Clancy's comprehensive analysis of petroleum politics in Nova Scotia demonstrates the complex intergovernmental and intercorporate relationships ecological concerns and Aboriginal interests that have complicated offshore development Among the analytic themes he addresses are institutional adaptation and rigidity basin development as a policy challenge the strong and weak characteristics of the offshore state and the shifting shapes of the offshore polity His incisive analysis of the complex politics at play provides new insights into the unique challenges facing the petroleum industry in Atlantic Canada

Keeping Canada Running G. Bruce Doern, Christopher Stoney, Robert Hilton, 2021-09-29 The federal government's promises to build back better and build back green highlight opportunities to reimagine Canadian infrastructure In this groundbreaking study authors Bruce Doern Christopher Stoney and Robert Hilton provide the first comprehensive overview of Canadian infrastructure policy examining the impact and implications of the COVID 19 pandemic and rapid technological change as Canada looks to recover and rebuild Covering more than fifty years across many sectors the authors identify numerous challenges that have contributed to Canada's growing infrastructure deficit and suboptimal outcomes including political interference in the choice of infrastructure projects challenges for multilevel governance such as distortion of local priorities blurred accountability and unsustainable maintenance costs for municipalities the growing reliance on public private partnerships that limit transparency and public scrutiny and increased corruption associated with infrastructure projects Transforming infrastructure is notoriously difficult yet vital at a time of rapid technological change It is estimated that 75 percent of the infrastructure that will exist in 2050 does not exist today This makes it crucial that Canada invest in future proof infrastructure with the capacity to facilitate economic growth and the expansion of urban centres mitigate and adapt to the impacts of climate change and ensure resilience in response to crises and disasters Keeping Canada Running offers a timely assessment of these issues Canada s COVID 19 response and the potential contribution of the newly launched Canadian Infrastructure Bank

Canadian Multimodal Transport Policy and Governance G. Bruce Doern, John Coleman, Barry E. Prentice, 2019-05-09 Given its geographical expanse Canada has always faced long term transport policy issues and challenges Canadian Multi Modal Transport Policy and Governance explains how and why Canadian transportation policy and related governance changed from the Pierre Trudeau era through the Chretien Martin Mulroney Harper and Justin Trudeau eras With particular attention paid to the diversity and ongoing evolution of transportation policy since the 1960s the broad distribution of regulatory authority across different levels of government and the politicization of regulatory regimes and investment decisions since the 1970s Doern Coleman and Prentice attempt to answer three critical questions How and to what extent have policy and governance changed over the decades Where has transport policy resided in federal policy agendas And is Canada developing the policies institutions and capacities it needs to have a socio economically viable and technologically advanced transportation system for the medium and long term A sweeping history of transportation policy in Canada that fills a gap in the existing literature Canadian Multi Modal Transport Policy and Governance concludes that transportation has been subordinate to other federal goals and priorities delaying and eroding transport systems into the twenty first century

Foreign Relations in Federal Countries Hans Michelmann, 2009-01-28 Foreign Relations in Federal Countries addresses questions such as What constitutional powers do the federal governments and constituent states have to conduct foreign affairs To what degree are relations between orders of government regularized by formal agreement or informal practice What roles do constituent governments have in negotiation and implementation of international treaties The volume offers a comparative perspective on the conduct of foreign relations in twelve federal countries Argentina Australia Austria Belgium Canada Germany India Malaysia South Africa Spain Switzerland and the United States

Divided Province Greg Albo, Bryan M. Evans, 2019-02-28 No government jurisdiction in Canada has so radically transformed its public policies over the past decades as Ontario and yet the province has also maintained a striking degree of political stability in its party system Since the 1990s neoliberalism has been the point of reference in constructing policy agendas for all of Ontario s political parties It has guided the strategy for governance of the dominant Liberal Party since 2003 even as it divides the province between workers and employers north and south rural and urban and racialized minorities and the majority population With a focus on the governments of Mike Harris Dalton McGuinty and Kathleen Wynne Divided Province brings together leading researchers to dissect the province's public policies since the 1990s Presenting original state of the art research the book demonstrates that although the Conservative government of Mike Harris implemented the sharpest and most profound shift towards the establishment of a neoliberal regime in the province the subsequent Liberal governments consolidated that neoliberal turn The essays in this volume explore the consequences of this ideological turn across a spectrum of policies including health education poverty energy employment manufacturing and how it has impacted workers women First Nations and other distinct communities The first book to offer a comprehensive critical account of neoliberalism in Ontario Divided Province overturns conventional readings of the province's politics and suggests that building a more democratic and egalitarian alternative to the current orthodoxy requires nothing less than a radical rupture from existing policies and political alliances Without such a decisive break political space may well open up again for the populist right

A Globally Integrated Climate Policy for Canada Steven Bernstein, Jutta Brunnée, David Duff, Andrew Green, 2008-01-01 A Globally Integrated Climate Policy for Canada builds on the premise that Canada is in need of an approach that effectively integrates domestic priorities and global policy imperatives

Energy... Beyond Oil Fraser Armstrong, Katherine M. Blundell, 2007-11 Both the forthcoming depletion of oil reserves and the urgent need to arrest global warming caused by the combustion of fossil fuels necessitates new thinking from individuals and governments alike This book will consider a global long term matrix of solutions to the energy problem as a necessary condition for a sustainable future existence on this planet

Uneasy Partnership Geoffrey Hale, 2018-01-25 The Canadian government's pursuit of economic growth is central to its economic policy and to the nature of its relationship with the business community. The government depends on business investment for economic growth vital to the prosperity of citizens, the generation of tax revenues and enough public satisfaction to win re-election. Businesses depend on the government for stable sets of rules that are necessary for success. They often look to governments for protection against threats to their well-being and for assistance in competing with other businesses. In this new edition of Uneasy Partnership Geoffrey Hale examines the interdependent relationship between Canadian governments and businesses considering the political role of the government in the economy and what effect this has on the business environment. Hale provides an overview of the historical dimensions of Canada's political economy and relations between government and business giving readers background to consider topics such as corporate power, the implications of Canada's economic structure, regional economic differences and the role of interest groups in political and policy processes among others. In a thoughtful and well-researched style Hale lays out how the partnership between business and government in Canada is an uneasy one and one whose capacity to adapt to ongoing changes is essential in an uncertain world.

How Ottawa Spends, 2007-2008 G. Bruce Doern, 2007-08-01 In the twenty-eighth edition of How Ottawa Spends leading Canadian scholars examine the Harper government agenda in the context of Stéphane Dion's election as Liberal opposition leader and the emergence of climate change as a dominant political and policy issue. This volume focuses on Quebec-Canada relations and federal-provincial fiscal imbalance. Contributors explore several key policy and expenditure issues including Canada-U.S. relations, the Federal Accountability Act, energy policy, health care, child care, crime and punishment, consumer policy and public service labour relations. They also offer a critical analysis of the challenges to overall governance including ministerial responsibility, public-private partnerships and the handling of long-term spending commitments inherited by succeeding governments. Contributors include Timothy Barkiw (Toronto Metropolitan University), Gerard Boychuk (Waterloo), Keith Brownsey (Mount Royal College, Calgary), Peter Graefe (McMaster), Geoffrey Hale (Lethbridge), Carey Hill (Western Ontario), Ruth Hubbard (Ottawa), Derek Ireland (PhD student, Carleton), Rachel Laforest (Queen's), Ian Lee (Carleton), Trevor Lynn (Saskatchewan), Jonathan Malloy (Carleton), Scott Millar (Government of Canada), Gilles Paquet (emeritus, Ottawa), Michael Prince (Victoria), Christopher Stoney (Carleton), Gene Swimmer (Carleton), Katherine Teghtsoonian (Victoria), Andrew Teliszewsky (Ontario Minister of Health Promotion), Lori Turnbull (Dalhousie) and Kernaghan Webb (Toronto Metropolitan University).
