People's Force Robert Haldane, 2018-02-26 Since its formation in 1853 the story of the Victoria Police has been interwoven with Victorian social and political history Following the amalgamation of seven separate and distinct police agencies in the colony the resultant unified body was the first of its kind in Australia Many events have shaped its development the gold rushes the Clunes riot the Kelly outbreak the maritime strikes the coming of the motor car the police strike both world wars and the Vietnam war protests the gangland wars Black Saturday bushfires and the use of DNA to solve crimes all formed part of this mosaic This revised edition of The People's Force containing a new chapter and new illustrations brings the history up to date to include a decade that has been full of turbulent change The new chapter examines the administrations of Neil Comrie Christine Nixon Simon Overland Ken Lay and Graham Ashton New material deals with Silk and Miller and other police shootings the growth of terrorism gender issues racism and domestic violence Written as awarts and all history of the Victoria Police with the support and encouragement of the then Chief Commissioner S I Mick Miller who wanted a proper objective history of the force not a public relations exercise This third edition is owed largely to Miller's encouragement and his desire to see the history updated

Communism in Australia Beverley Symons, 1994 This bibliography covers the 70 years of existence of the Communist Party in Australia The material listed relates not only to the CPA but to its allied and breakaway movements from 1920 to 1991 Contains over 3400 references and includes a name index Lionel Murphy Jenny Hocking, 2000-08-30 Now available in paperback this new version includes an epilogue by the author Chicago Fundamentalism Craig Freedman, 2008 Cold war ideology infected the development of economics in ways its practitioners were often not fully aware The Chicago counter revolution against the dominant post war triumph of Keynesian analysis had an essential subtext a perceived struggle between freedom and collective slavery ideological objectives subsequently influenced methodological concerns pushing economists to adopt the zero sum tactics of the courtroom rather than the mutually beneficial manners of the senior common room In these ideologically charged times economists stopped reading opposing views carefully seeking instead to dismiss out of hand uncongenial ideas In this collection of previously published and new material Craig Freedman examines the problem of ideology through the reflection cast by the architects of the Chicago counter revolution George Stigler and Milton Friedman The second half of the volume demonstrates the legacy of these ideological fires namely a profession where the methodology of careless reading and zero sum exchanges have persisted and come to dominate BOOK JACKET Australian Television Graeme Turner, 2020-07-28 Media communications and cultural studies form a rapidly growing part of secondary and tertiary education in Australia yet there have been few books dealing specifically with Australian television This is the first wide ranging study of television in Australia and includes a coverage of the cultural and institutional history of Australian television as well as examining a wide range of television programming Prisoner Perfect Match Hey Hey It s Saturday A Country Practice Vietnam and Beyond 2000 are some of the programs described and analysed Issues are raised such as the relationship between children and television the role of the television documentary and the function television serves in constructing communities The contributors to Australian Television Programs Pleasures and Politics include some of the leading researchers in Australian television and cultural studies and their articles employ a wide range of methods from semiotic analyses to cultural histories Despite their dealing with often quite sophisticated problems the chapters are written in an accessible and lively manner This is an important collection which opens out space for more informed and challenging discussions of Australia s television culture its programs its meanings its pleasures and its politics It will be an invaluable text for all tertiary television media studies communications studies Australian studies and cultural studies programs Politics and Society in Southeast Asia Peter A. Poole, 2014-11-18 The Asian financial crisis of 1997 1998 caused severe hardship in Southeast Asia and many countries tightened their regulation of banks and other financial institutions adopted more conservative fiscal policies and made themselves less vulnerable to Western market fluctuations by forming closer trade and investment ties with their neighbors This book analyzes the major political and economic reforms that resulted from the Asian financial crisis looking particularly at how such reforms helped to prepare Asian countries for coping with the 2009 global recession In each of the ten country chapters the historical background social and political system economic development and foreign relations of each country are analyzed and compared with those of neighboring countries The concluding chapter looks ahead at the prospects for Southeast Asia in a more integrated Asian region

Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Southeast Asia and the Rise of China Ian Storey,2013-08-21 Since the early 1990s and the end of the Cold War the implications of China's rising power have come to dominate the security agenda of the Asia Pacific region This book is the first to comprehensively chart the development of Southeast Asia's relations with the People's Republic of China PRC from 1949 to 2010 detailing each of the eleven countries ties to the PRC and showing how strategic concerns associated with China's regional posture have been a significant factor in shaping their foreign and defence policies In addition to assessing bilateral ties the book also examines the institutionalization of relations between the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and China The first part of the book covers the period 1949-2010 it examines Southeast Asian responses to the PRC in the context of the ideological and geopolitical rivalry of the Cold War Southeast Asian countries policies towards the PRC in first decade of the post Cold War era and deepening ties between the ASEAN states and the PRC in the first decade of the twenty first century Part Two analyses the evolving relationships between the countries of mainland Southeast Asia Vietnam Thailand Myanmar Laos and Cambodia and China Part Three reviews ties between the states of maritime Southeast Asia Indonesia Malaysia Singapore the Philippines Brunei and East Timor and the PRC Whilst the primary focus of the book is the security dimension of Southeast Asia China relations it also takes full account of political relations and the burgeoning economic ties between the two sides This book is a timely contribution to the literature on the fast changing geopolitics of the Asia Pacific region
