A Powerful Marriage David Albert Farmer, 2002 Many couples marry believing their marriage will be a bed of roses that love for each other is all that counts But we have to remember that roses grow on bushes full of thorns And often when a rose is picked we get pricked And what happens when we are pricked Hurt and pain follows Marriage can be one of roses and violets A well balanced marriage is one that can adjust to the understanding that both exist No one can have everything just like they want it Every married person must do the best they can in making room for flexibility in their marriage The marriage institution was designed of Heaven to be a blessing to man but in general sense it has been abused in such a manner as to make it a dreadful curse Most of men and women have acted in entering the marriage relation as though the only question for them to settle was whether they loved each other But they should realize that a responsibility rests upon them in the marriage relation farther than this God does not promise us ease honor or wealth in His service with God and allow him to guide their individual lives Vanz discusses how rediscovering the Holy Spirit requires prayer and a close look at the information within the scriptures He examines the book of Acts as an example of the power and tools available to serve Gods purposes in the past he believes this knowledge supplies a framework to understand ways the Holy Spirit is working today Sharing both personal and biblical observations Vanz attempts to remove many of the false teachings and realize the accurate message Rediscovering the Holy Spirit communicates that one can grow closer to Jesus and the work of the Holy Spirit through scripture worship ministry evangelism and loving one another Uniqueness of the Concept of Witness in Lukan Writings within the Biblical Canon Ervin Budiselić,2024-04-30 In an age of relativism tolerance and political correctness the church is called to walk in the footsteps of Christ As his witnesses we must reject all forms of coercion and violence while simultaneously refusing to shy away from the authority and conviction that come from carrying his revelation Dr Ervin Budiseli examines the concept of witnessing in the writings of Luke contextualizing it within the larger framework of Scripture s emphasis on revelation and testimony Like Judaism Christianity is a religion of revelation where specific content must be preserved passed on and proclaimed to others Dr Budiseli explores the communal nature of this calling as well as its pneumatological implications within Luke s writings Acknowledging the tendency within the Western church to emphasize moral transformation over physical he reminds readers that Jesus s kingdom ministry was accompanied by deeds as well as words He specifically engages the dangers of normalizing a gospel disconnected from the supernatural or the miraculous as partnership with the Holy Spirit was central to the calling given to the early church This book offers a prophetic message for the church today as it seeks to fulfill its calling to faithfully witness to the revelation of Christ The Advance ,1911
