Infant & Toddler Development Kay M. Albrecht,Linda G. Miller,2001 Comprehensive guide to ages and stages theories and best practices of the early childhood field Making a Place for Pleasure in Early Childhood Education Joseph J. Tobin,2008-10-01 Kindergarten kissing games four year olds playing doctor a teacher holding a crying child on his lap as he comforts her Interactions like these spontaneous and pleasurable are no longer encouraged in American early childhood classrooms and in some cases they are forbidden The quality of the lives of our children and their teachers is thereby diminished contend the contributors to this timely book In response to much publicized incidents of child abuse by caretakers a moral panic has swept over early childhood education In this book experienced teachers of young children and teacher education experts issue a plea for sanity for restoring a sense of balance to preschool nursery school and kindergarten classrooms The contributors to this book explore how caretakers of preschool children and other adults have overreacted to fears about child abuse Drawing on feminist queer and poststructural theories the authors argue for the restoration of pleasure as a goal of early childhood education Lived Spaces of Infant-Toddler Education and Care Linda J. Harrison,Jennifer Sumsion,2014-05-05 This book conceptualizes the lived spaces of infant and toddler early education and care settings by bringing together international authors researching within diverse theoretical frameworks It highlights diverse ways of understanding the experiences of very young children by exposing the ways that the authors are grappling with the unknown. The work explores broadly the construct and meanings of lived spaces as relational spaces, interactional spaces, transitional spaces, curriculum spaces or pedagogical spaces operating within the social, physical and temporal environment of infant/toddler education settings. The book invites interchange between and among diverse theories and approaches and through this build new understanding of infants and toddlers' experiences and interactions in early education and care settings. It also considers the implications of this work for policy and practice in infant and toddler education and care.

The Emotional Development of Young Children Marilou Hyson, 2004. Marilou Hyson provides educators with real life examples and evidence based teaching strategies to advance children's understanding and appropriate expression of their emotions.

Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children Bernard Spodek, Olivia N. Saracho, 2014-01-27. The Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children is the essential reference on research on early childhood education throughout the world. This singular resource provides a comprehensive overview of important contemporary issues as well as the information necessary to make informed judgments about these issues. The field has changed significantly since the publication of the second edition and this third edition of the handbook takes care to address the entirety of vital new developments. A valuable tool for all those who work and study in the field of early child.

We're Not Robots Enid Elliot, 2012-02-01. This fascinating book presents the stories of infant/toddler caregivers and their work to illustrate the complexity of balancing relationships with babies, families, coworkers and self yet remaining emotionally present and mindfully engaged. Enid Elliot explores the inevitable tensions of working within these various relationships and demonstrates how proficient caregivers can develop strategies for achieving this delicate balance. In the process she raises provocative questions about how we care for babies and how to provide education and support for their caregivers.

Education and Social Inequality in the Global Culture Joseph Zajda, Karen Biraimah, William Gaudelli, 2008-03-19. A major aim of Education and Social Inequality in the Global Culture which is the first volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research edited by Joseph Zajda and his team is to present a global overview of the relationship of education, socio-economic status and globalization. By examining some of the major education policy issues particularly in the light of recent shifts in education and policy research the editors aim to provide a comprehensive picture of the intersecting and diverse discourses of globalization, education and policy driven reforms. The spirit of dialogical encounter has very soundly directed editors' efforts in organizing this volume. The editors' task is to deepen and in some cases open widely diverse and significant discourses related to globalization, social stratification and education. The impact of globalization on education policy and reforms is a strategically important issue for us all. More than ever before there is a need to understand and analyze both the intended and the unintended effects of globalization on economic competitiveness, educational systems, the state and relevant policy changes all as they affect individuals' educational bodies.

such as universities policy makers and powerful corporate organizations across the globe The evolving and constantly changing notions of national identity language border politics and citizenship which are relevant to education policy need to be critiqued by appeal to context specific factors such as local regional national areas which sit uncomfortably at times with the international imperatives of globalization Participatory Learning in the Early Years Donna Berthelsen,Jo

Brownlee,Eva Johansson,2009-01-13 The contributors to this volume provide insight into national policies provisions and practices of participatory learning amongst toddlers and advance our understandings of theory and research on toddlers experiences across a number of countries including the UK Australia New Zealand the US Canada Sweden and Norway

Negotiating Adult-Child Relationships in Early Childhood Research Deborah Albon,Rachel Rosen,2013-08-15 Negotiating Adult Child Relationships in Early Childhood Research presents a substantive critique of technicist and neoliberal approaches to ethics through an exploration of the complicated and often messy situations faced in negotiating relationships in research with children Despite growing acknowledgement of their centrality relationships between adult researchers and very young participants have been neglected and under theorised and in response this book offers a comprehensive conceptualisation of adult child research relationships through examination of questions including How do power and inequity impact on adult child research relationships What does it mean for relationships when researchers intervene in the field How do bodies matter in research relationships What does an emphasis on relationships with young children mean for the research process Drawing on data from their own research the authors contend that relationships are part of a wider web of social relations and space time configurations They propose and develop a relational ethics of answerability and social justice inspired by the work of Bakhtin and in addition explore the way material bodies come to matter the ambiguity of consent in educator research and the risks and possibilities of research relationships Chapters include innovative formulations of reciprocity sensing practices and political ethical responsibility This book contributes to current debates about research with young children offering an incisive and thorough exploration of the importance of relationships to the research process Relevant for international audiences this book is essential reading for early childhood students and educators researchers and lecturers with an interest in research with children The Child in the World/The World in the Child M. Bloch,D. Kennedy,T.

Lightfoot,D. Weyenberg,2006-10-16 The contributors look at universalizing discourses concerning young children across the globe which purport to describe everyone in a scientific and neutral way but actually create mechanisms through which children are divided and excluded The contributors to this book employ post structuralist postcolonial and feminist theoretical frameworks Children and Childhoods 2 Peter Whiteman,2013-02-14 Decisions relating to children s lives including formation of policies about children and young people advocating for children s rights educational instruction and parenting all depend on images of children and childhoods Nonetheless prevailing images of childhood are not often subject to critique Images of Childhood offers an examination of public images of childhood in the context of research findings

Authors from a wide range of disciplines including early childhood psychology Group Care for Infants, Toddlers, and Twos Deborah J. Norris, Diane M. Horm, 2019-10-23 This volume extends the knowledge base supporting research informed child care for infants and toddlers while simultaneously highlighting areas of study ripe for future research The authors demonstrate from a systems perspective that the experiences and outcomes of very young children in child care are influenced by characteristics of and interactions between the children adults and settings Varying methodological approaches as well as the utilization of newer data collection instruments inform the field's understanding of current practices and procedures while offering guidance for future programming and policy In turn the chapters highlight a plethora of open questions and a need for a new generation of research to support the field of infant toddler care Future challenges are evident in the recognition of the inadequate nature of our current measures of child outcomes and classroom processes the field's unmet promise to incorporate interdisciplinary perspectives and the need for newer methodological designs that blend the strengths of quantitative and qualitative approaches These issues are important given the growing demand for infant toddler care and the increasing recognition of the unique role of this age period in serving as the foundation for all later development This book was originally published as a special issue of Early Education and Development Handbook of Emotions Lisa Feldman Barrett, Michael Lewis, Jeannette M.
