Power Knowledge And Antiracism Education A Critical Reader:

Power, Knowledge and Anti-racism Education Agnes Miranda Calliste, George Jerry Sefa Dei, Margarida Aguiar, 2000-01 This book addresses questions of antiracism and its connections with difference in a variety of educational settings and schooling practices by focusing on systems structures relations of domination and the racist classist and sexist constructions of reality that serve as dominant paradigms for viewing and interpreting lives and historical realities Critical Issues in Anti-racist Research Methodologies George Jerry Sefa Dei, Gurpreet Singh Johal, 2005 Anti racism studies have blossomed over the years with scholarship and political work reinforcing each other to cement anti racist change But how do we understand anti racist research How is anti racist research methodology different from other methods of research investigation What are the principles of anti racism research This edited collection attempts to provide some answers by bringing together works that examine the perils and desires of anti racist research with a particular focus on the notion of difference and a serious consideration of the race gender class and sexuality intersections implications of educational research Crash Politics and Antiracism Philip S. S. Howard, George J. Sefa Dei, George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated Educators' Discourses on Student Diversity in Canada Diane Gérin-Lajoie, 2008 This text examines recent changes to the Canadian educational system and their impact on the role of the school most significantly how the school must now function as an agent of inclusion for students who are not part of the mainstream school population Based on the findings of a comprehensive five year national study sponsored by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada Current Trends in the Evolution of School Personnel in Canadian Elementary and Secondary Schools the contributors examine the daily work activities working conditions and the interactions with students in view of recent changes to the educational system and the evolving role of the school Educators Discourses on Student Diversity in Canada Context Policy and Practice challenges the status quo and provides a timely comprehensive and critical overview of education and diversity in Canada Anti-Colonialism and Education , 2006-01-01 There is a rich intellectual history to the development of anti colonial thought and practice In discussing the politics of knowledge production this collection borrows from and builds upon this intellectual tradition to offer understandings of the macro political processes and structures of education delivery e g social organization of knowledge culture pedagogy and resistant politics The contributors raise key issues regarding the contestation of knowledge as well as the role of cultural and social values in understanding the way power shapes everyday relations of politics and subjectivity In reframing anti colonial thought and practice this book reclaims the power of critical oppositional discourse and theory for educational transformation Anti Colonialism and Education The Politics of Resistance includes some the most current theorizing around anti colonial practice written specifically for this collection Each of the essays extends the terrain of the discussion of what constitutes anti colonialism Among the many discursive highlights is the interrogation of the politics of embodied knowing the theoretical distinctions and connections between anti colonial thought and post colonial theory and the identification of the particular lessons of anti colonial theory for critical educational practice Essays explore such key issues as the challenge of articulating anti colonial thought as an epistemology of the colonized anchored in the indigenous sense of collective and common colonial consciousness the conceptualization of power configurations embedded in ideas cultures and histories of marginalized communities the understanding of indigeneity as pedagogical practice and the pursuit of agency resistance and subjective politics through anti colonial learning The Oxford Handbook of Power, Politics, and Social Work Rajendra Baikady, Jaroslaw Przeperski, Sajid S.M., M. Rezaul Islam, 2024 This Handbook examines the impetus for the development growth and relevance of social work as a profession in different political social and cultural contexts Contributions align with overarching contemporary themes such as changing governance structures around the world digitalization and globalization and decolonization The book is also in line with the advancement of global agendas for social work and social development led by the IASSW ICSW IFSW This contemporary text engages comprehensively with diverse political systems across the world and explores the interactions with and implications for social work policy practice and education in these countries and globally The Crisis of Race in Higher Education William F. Tate IV, Nancy Staudt, Ashley Macrander, 2016-12-22 The compendium of writings in this edited volume sheds light on the event Race Ethnicity A Day of Discovery and Dialogue at Washington University in St Louis and the work current students faculty and staff are doing to improve inclusivity on campus and in St Louis Centering African Proverbs, Indigenous Folktales, and Cultural Stories in Curriculum George J. Sefa Dei, Mairi McDermott, 2019-05-24 A vital resource for educators this collection offers reflections on and samples of units and lessons with an anti racism orientation that promote inclusive educational practices for today's increasingly diverse K 12 classrooms Engaging with multicentric cultural knowledges and stories the contributors consisting of classroom teachers community workers and adult educators present units and lesson plans that challenge the Eurocentricity of curriculum design while also having practical applicability within various North American curricular models These curriculum designs make space for students lived experiences inside the classroom and amplify critical social values such as community building social justice equity fairness resistance and collective responsibility thereby addressing the issue of youth disengagement and promoting productive inclusion Rich with sample units and lessons that are grounded in African oral traditions this ground breaking resource features critical guiding questions suggestions for ongoing and culminating classroom activities templates and resources and notes to the teacher

Engaging Equity Leeno Karumanchery, 2005-01-01 Contrary to those mainstream efforts that paint racism and social oppression as remnants of a troubled past today s relations of social power remain intractable as they continue to mediate and discipline the lives of the oppressed Recognizing that racism and other forms of oppression continue to evolve and adapt to our changing times it is crucial that our strategies for resistance are equally dynamic and proactive In this reader Leeno Karumanchery has brought together some of critical theory's most powerful and insurgent voices to explore this vital strand of the anti racist tapestry by asking How do we understand our oppression and how do we frame and manage our resistance in the face of it Engaging Equity is framed as a sociohistoric expose of the Western educational system revealing the banality of oppression in today's schools Developed within a philosophy of hope this book reminds us that real and meaningful change towards social justice can be achieved but only if our politics strategies and resolve are equal to the task

Discourses of Globalisation, Ideology, Education and Policy Reforms Joseph Zajda, Suzanne Majhanovich, 2022-03-28 This book presents a global overview of discourses of globalization current research in education and education policy reforms It first examines globalisation education and policy research and reforms in education including coverage of main trends in education and policy reforms globally as well as specific policy issues such as equity inclusive schooling and quality education for all Next it offers a comparative perspective in evaluating the ambivalent and problematic relationship between globalisation ideology the state and education reforms globally One significant impact of globalization on education policy and reforms is the competitive comparison of education systems These comparisons are usually based on common achievement tests such as TIMSS PIRLS and PISA Major policy reforms are frequently justified with reference to these achievement data The book features coverage of education reforms globally and academic achievement syndrome Not only do the chapters offer a timely analysis of current issues shaping education policy research but the book also contains ideas concerning the future directions that education and policy reforms could take to offer more democratic and equitable education Respective chapters critically assess the dominant discourses and debates on education and policy reforms By doing so it provides a comprehensive view of the diverse and intersecting discourses on globalisation and policy driven reforms in education

Contemporary Inequalities and Social Justice in Canada Janine Brodie, 2018-04-17 Contemporary Inequalities and Social Justice in Canada examines the changing contours of inequality and social justice in contemporary Canada Approaching questions of social justice from the perspectives of race youth precarious workers Indigenous peoples and the LGBTQ community the contributors emphasize different ways of thinking about and addressing contemporary social inequalities and insecurities

Diversity and Triumphs of Navigating the Terrain of Academe Raphael Heaggans, Henry T. Frierson, 2019-05-30 This volume is written as a treatise to dismantle the powers of discriminatory incubuses that have haunted institutions of higher learning one narrative at a time

Engaged Scholarship Lynette Shultz, Tania Kajner, 2013-09-03 This volume brings together diverse theoretical reflections and practices of community engaged scholarship in order to stimulate critical discussion deepen theory and invite critical practice It is an international trend that higher education institutions and agencies are encouraging and promoting community engagement At the same time there is recognition of a lack of consistent definitions and understandings of what it is they are promoting As a counterweight to the dominance of pragmatic and technical discussions in the literature on engaged scholarship the chapters in this book shift the discourse to ask foundational questions that emphasize the political nature of engagement Recognizing that acts of engagement are never neutral the authors in this book explore how engaged scholarship requires decision making that is inherently grounded in values beliefs and interpretations of what is and what ought to be Alongside complex global and local social movements rising to address issues for example climate change or the global financial collapse and the uneven consequences of these globalized problems we see corresponding concerns expressed about the limited participation by excluded silenced and invisibilized people throughout the world How can engaged scholarship be mobilized and who will it serve within such contexts With contributions covering such diverse topics as a non binary approach to engagement citizenship of knowledge university contexts and corporatization stranger pedagogies and anti foundational approaches to service learning contemporary revolutionary movements in the Arab world and transforming higher education through Africanist onto epistemologies this volume is poised to open the door to a deeper understanding of engaged scholarship

Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand

The SAGE Handbook of Social Work Mel Gray, James Midgley, Stephen A Webb, 2012-06-22 This Handbook is the world's first generic major reference work to provide an authoritative guide to the theory method and values of social work in one volume Drawn from an international field of excellence the contributors each offer a critical analysis of their individual area of expertise The result is this invaluable resource collection that not only reflects upon the condition of social work today but also looks to future developments Split into seven parts the Handbook investigates Policy dimensions Practice Perspectives Values and ethics The context of social work Research Future challenges It is essential reading for all students practitioners researchers and academics engaged in social work

Decolonizing Educational Assessment Ardavan Eizadirad, 2019-09-06 This book examines the history of standardized testing in Ontario leading to the current context and its impact on racialized identities particularly on Grade 3 students parents and educators Using a theoretical argument supplemented with statistical trends the author illuminates how EQAO tests are culturally and racially biased and promote a Eurocentric curriculum and way of life privileging white students and those from higher socio economic status This book spurs readers to further question the use of EQAO standardized testing and challenges us to consider alternative models which serve the needs of all students Constructing Inequality in Multilingual Classrooms Luisa Martín Rojo, 2010-07-30 In her groundbreaking and innovative study the author takes us on a fascinating journey through some of Madrid s multilingual and multicultural schools and reveals the role played by linguistic practices in the construction of inequality through such processes as what she calls de capitalization and ethnicization Through a critical sociolinguistic and discourse analysis of the data collected in an ethnographic study the book shows the exclusion caused by monolingualizing tendencies and ideologies of deficit in education and society The book opens a timely discussion of the management of diversity in multilingual and multicultural classrooms both for countries with a long tradition of migration flows and for those where the phenomenon is relatively new as is the case in Spain This study of linguistic practices in the classroom makes clear the need to rethink some key linguistic concepts such as practice competence discourse and language and to integrate different approaches in qualitative research The volume is essential reading for students and researchers working in sociolinguistics education and related areas as well as for all teachers and social workers who deal with the increasing heterogeneity of our late modern societies in their work
