experimental theatre practitioners such as Robert Wilson Tadeusz Kantor Heiner Müller the Wooster Group Needcompany and Societas Raffaello Sanzio Illustrated by a wealth of practical examples and with an introduction by Karen Jones Munby providing useful theoretical and artistic contexts for the book Postdramatic Theatre is an historical survey expertly combined with a unique theoretical approach which guides the reader through this new theatre landscape

Postdramatic Theatre and Form Michael Shane Boyle, Matt Cornish, Brandon Woolf, 2019-03-21 Postdramatic theatre is an essential category of performance that challenges classical elements of drama including the centrality of plot and character Tracking key developments in contemporary European and North American performance this collection redirects ongoing debates about postdramatic theatre turning attention to the overlooked issue on which they hinge form Contributors draw on literary studies film studies and critical theory to reimagine the formal aspects of theatre such as space media and text The volume expands how scholars think of theatrical form insisting that formalist analysis can be useful for studying the ways theatre is produced and consumed and how theatre makers engage with other forms like dance and visual art Chapters focus on a range of interdisciplinary artists including Tadeusz Kantor Ann Liv Young and Ryan Trecartin and Lizzie Fitch as well as theatre's enmeshment within institutional formations like funding agencies festivals real estate and healthcare A timely investigation of the aesthetic structures and material conditions of contemporary performance this collection refines what we mean and what we don't when we speak of postdramatic theatre

Theatre in the Expanded Field Alan Read, 2013-12-05 Theatre in the Expanded Field is a fiercely original bold and daring exploration of the fields of theatre and performance studies and the received narratives and histories that underpin them Rich with interdisciplinary reference international eclectic and broad ranging in its examples it offers readers a compelling and provocative reassessment of the disciplines one that spans pre history to the present day Sixty years ago in 1962 Richard Southern wrote a remarkable book called The Seven Ages of the Theatre It was unusual in its time for taking a trans disciplinary new historical and avowedly internationalist approach to its subject nothing less than a totalizing view of its field Theatre in the Expanded Field does not attempt to mimic Southern's work but rather takes his spirit of adventure and ambition as its frame for the contemporary moment of performance and its diverse pasts Identifying seven ways of exploring the performance field from pre history to postdramatic theatre the book presents studies of both contemporary and historical works not as a chronological succession but in keeping with their coeval qualities as movements or generations of connection and interaction dissensus and interruption It does this with the same purpose as Richard Southern s original work to provide for the planning of responsive performance spaces now Illustrated throughout with line drawings Theatre in the Expanded Field is as richly rewarding as it is ambitious and expansive in it vision London Theatre Record ,1989 Experimental

Music Keith Potter,Kyle Gann,2016-03-23 In recent years the music of minimalist composers such as La Monte Young Terry Riley Steve Reich and Philip Glass has increasingly become the subject of important musicological reflection research and debate Scholars have also been turning their attention to the work of lesser known contemporaries such as Phill Niblock and Eliane Radigue or to second and third generation minimalists such as John Adams Louis Andriessen Michael Nyman and William Duckworth whose range of styles may undermine any sense of shared aesthetic approach but whose output is still to a large extent informed by the innovative work of their minimalist predecessors Attempts have also been made by a number of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo P rt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism s role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject

Beyond Immersive Theatre Adam Alston,2016-05-18 Immersive theatre currently enjoys ubiquity popularity and recognition in theatre journalism and scholarship However the politics of immersive theatre aesthetics still lacks a substantial critique Does immersive theatre model a particular kind of politics or a particular kind of audience What is involved in the production and consumption of immersive theatre aesthetics Is a productive audience always an empowered audience And do the terms of an audience's empowerment stand up to political scrutiny Beyond Immersive Theatre contextualises these questions by tracing the evolution of neoliberal politics and the experience economy over the past four decades Through detailed critical analyses of work by Ray Lee Lundahl Seitl Punchdrunk Shunt Theatre Delicatessen and Half Cut Adam Alston argues that there is a tacit politics to immersive theatre aesthetics a tacit politics that is illuminated by neoliberalism and that is ripe to be challenged by the evolution and diversification of immersive theatre Painful in Daily

Doses Anthony Steel, 2009 In this engaging memoir Anthony Steel tells his story from growing up in a wealthy steel manufacturing family the Steels of Sheffield where music was a fundamental part of daily life to his triumphant staging of Adelaide's 1986 Festival of Arts and his stewardship of other important artistic enterprises in Australia and elsewhere

Acts of Resistance in Late-Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet, 2019-10-29 In Acts of Resistance in Late Modernist Theatre Richard Murphet presents a close analysis of the theatre practice of two ground breaking artists Richard Foreman and Jenny Kemp active over the late twentieth and the early twenty first century In addition he tracks the development of a form of epileptic writing over the course of his own career as writer director Murphet argues that these three auteurs have developed subversive alternatives to the previously dominant forms of dramatic realism in order to re think the relationship between theatre and reality They write and direct their own work and their artistic experimentation is manifest in the tension created between their content and their form Murphet investigates how the works are made rather than focusing upon an interpretation of their meaning Through an examination of these artists we gain a deeper understanding of a late modernist paradigm shift in theatre practice
