Readings in Powers Within Santosh Krinsky, 2025-07-01 We tend to overlook or underestimate the powers inherent in our human existence the powers of the body the powers of the vital nature the powers of the mind the powers of the psychic being and the power of the spirit Some of these powers are manifest but not fully understood explored or developed Others remain latent within our being Still others we can see active in other forms and beings in Nature From time to time some of these other powers can be activated within the human being as well With an evolution of consciousness we see the successive development and expression of new powers coming to the forefront We can see this as a long process of maturation of the existence we experience on this planet The vital powers change and activate the dense material forms The mental power rearranges life and matter This evolution is not completed and we see signs of the emergence of yet higher more powerful ranges of consciousness as humanity matures and develops The powers that develop are part of a natural progression and can come about quite naturally At the same time the normal slow evolutionary process of Nature can be speeded up by a focused discipline by a dedicated individual Just as we see that skills can be developed and honed in the external life through dedication focus and practice inner development of the inherent powers can be developed through similar application of concentration with an increasing insight as to the right use of those powers In the Taittiriya Upanishad the seeker is asked to practice tapasya the concentration of conscious force as the means toward ultimate realisation of the source nature and meaning of existence In the end it is tapasya that lies behind the expression of all powers in life That tapasya is not an individual force alone but the energy that creates maintains and develops the entire universal creation We frequently limit our powers by the voluntary restriction of our being inherent in our material existence and our involvement with the individual ego personality within which we live and act in this lifetime When we remove these artificial boundaries we find that we are One with the universal Being and that the powers of that Being can manifest anywhere through any individual based on the intention and guidance of the universal sole Existence Sri Aurobindo and the Mother in Powers Within compiled by Dr A S Dalal have taken us on a systematic review of the various parts of our being and the powers that reside there and have helped thereby to open up new possibilities to widen and enliven our existence and prepare us for the next phase of our evolutionary development "Lessons on the Powers Within" Marie Holmes, Lessons on The Powers Within teaches how to face and cope with the piercing impact of those hurtful life experiences appearing to be more powerful and bigger than our capacity to handle Lessons On The Powers Within provide knowledge increased awareness and empowering principles if practiced for one to become more confident and steadfast about embracing their powers within to realizing that Powers Within are greater than the circumstances outside you While there are many spiritual abilities Lessons on The Powers Within provide nine innate Spiritual Abilities of the many These spiritual abilities if harness provides awareness and ability to walk in your purpose with fierce determination Lessons on The Powers Within teach keys and

Rethinking Middle Powers in the Asian Century Tanguy Struye de Swielande,Dorothee Vandamme,David Walton,Thomas Wilkins,2018-09-27 The term middle power is conceptually fragile Some scholars have even argued for abandoning it This book argues that the concept needs to be analysed more profoundly and that new analytical tools need to be developed to better understand the phenomenon The traditional approach based on Western states is insufficient and has become increasingly irrelevant in a transformed global environment Instead of drawing from a single theory of international relations the contributors have chosen to build upon a wide range of theories in a deliberate demonstration of analytic eclecticism A pluralistic approach provides stronger explanations while remaining analytically and intellectually rigorous Many of the theory contributions are reconsidering how the largely Western bases of such theorising need revising in light of the emerging middle powers many of which are in Asia Presenting a strong argument for studying middle powers this book explores both the theory and empirical applications of the concept by rethinking the definition and characteristics of middle powers using a range of case studies It examines changes in the study of middle powers over the last decade proposing to look at the concept of middle powers in a coherent and inclusive manner Finally it aims to further the discussion on the evolution of the international system and provides sound conclusions about the theoretical usefulness and empirical evolution of middle powers today The Strategic Options of Middle Powers in the Asia-Pacific Chien-Wen Kou,Chiung-Chiu

Charles M. Fombad, 2016-03-03 The new series Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law will engage with contemporary issues of constitutionalism in Africa filling a notable gap in African comparative constitutional law Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism is the first in the series examining one of the critical measures introduced by African constitutional designers in their attempts to entrench an ethos of constitutionalism on the continent Taking a critical look at the different ways in which attempts have been made to separate the different branches of government the Handbook examines the impact this is having on transparent and accountable governance Beginning with an overview of constitutionalism in Africa and the different influences on modern African constitutional developments it looks at the relationship between the legislature and the executive as well as the relationship between the judiciary and the political branches Despite differences in approaches between the different constitutional cultures that have influenced developments in Africa there remain common problems One of these problems is the constant friction in the relationship between the three branches and the resurgent threats of authoritarianism which clearly suggest that there remain serious problems in both constitutional design and implementation The book also studies the increasing role being played by independent constitutional institutions and how they complement the checks and balances associated with the traditional three branches of government

Middle Powers in Asia and Europe in the 21st Century Giampiero Giacomello, Bertjan Verbeek, 2020-07-02 This volume presents three claims regarding the role of middle powers in the 21st Century first states aspiring to become or remain middle powers choose from three possible role to be a global middle powers to be a regional pivot or to be a niche leader Second states seeking such roles need different mixes of hard and soft power sources Third more so than great or small powers middle powers walk a thin line between the domestic and systemic pressures they face In this volume these claims are based on comparative case studies of Germany Iran Italy Japan the Netherlands Norway South Korea Sweden and Turkey

Middle Powers in Asia Pacific Multilateralism Sarah Teo, 2022-11-25 Drawing on insights from differentiation theory this book examines the participation of middle powers in multilateralism Taking Australia Indonesia and South Korea as examples the book examines these countries roles in regional organizations and particularly during the creation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and East Asia Summit Through its analysis the book argues that middle powers pursue dilution of major power stratificatory forces as well as functionally differentiated roles for themselves in multilateral diplomacy The book sets out a valuable new framework to explain and understand the behaviour of middle powers in multilateralism

Security Strategies of Middle Powers in the Asia Pacific Ralf Emmers, Sarah Teo, 2018-02-05 Security Strategies of Middle Powers in the Asia Pacific examines what drives the different regional security strategies of four middle powers in the Asia Pacific Australia Indonesia South Korea and Malaysia Drawing on the extant middle power literature the authors argue that the regional security strategies of middle powers could take two forms namely functional or normative A functional strategy means that the middle power targets its resources to address a specific problem that it has a high level of interest in while a normative strategy refers to a focus on promoting general behavioural standards and confidence building at the multilateral level This book argues that whether a middle power ultimately employs a more functional or normative regional security strategy depends on its resource availability and strategic environment      External Powers in Latin

This study is among the first works in English to comprehensively address the Scandinavian First World War experience in the larger international context of the war It surveys the complex relationship between the belligerent great powers and Northern Europe's neutral small states in times of crisis and war The book's overreaching rationale draws upon three underlying conceptual fields neutrality and international law hegemony and great power politics as well as diplomacy and policy making of small states in the international arena From a variety of angles it examines the question of how neutrality was understood and perceived negotiated and dealt with both among the Scandinavian states and the belligerent major powers especially Britain Germany and Russia For a long time the experience of neutral countries during the First World War was seen as marginal and was overshadowed by the experiences of occupation and collaboration brought about by the Second World War In this book Jonas demonstrates how this perception has changed with neutrality becoming an integral part of the multiple narratives of the First World War It is an important contribution to the international history of the First World War cultural historically influenced approaches to diplomatic history and the growing area of neutrality studies

Shifting Power in Asia-Pacific? Enrico Fels,2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing Power Politics in Africa

Olusola Ogunnubi,Samuel Oyewole,2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest perpetual distrust and insecurity struggles for power and hegemony in power politics and the spirit of pan African solidarity brotherhood consensus cooperation and integration It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in

Africa with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations particularly regarding power politics which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non Western societies Global

Environmental Constitutionalism in the Anthropocene Louis J Kotzé, 2016-09-22 There is persuasive evidence suggesting we are on the brink of human induced ecological disaster that could change life on Earth as we know it There is also a general consensus among scientists about the pace and extent of global ecological decay including a realisation that humans are central to causing the global socio ecological crisis This new epoch has been called the Anthropocene Considering the many benefits that constitutional environmental protection holds out in domestic legal orders it is likely that a constitutionalised form of global environmental law and governance would be better able to counter the myriad exigencies of the Anthropocene This book seeks to answer this central question from the perspective of the Anthropocene what is environmental constitutionalism and how could it be extrapolated to formulate a global framework In answering this question this book offers the first systematic conceptual framework for global environmental constitutionalism in the epoch of the Anthropocene
