Encyclopedia of Multicultural Education Bruce Mitchell, Robert E. Salsbury, 1999-05-30 In the study of multicultural education there are key names places concepts and legal actions which provide a foundation for the field This reference includes more than 400 entries from a broad range of topics related to multicultural education which the authors define as education geared toward reducing bias ensuring equity and promoting understanding of the self and others Each item in the encyclopedia has been chosen for its value in illuminating one or more particular concerns in the field Each entry not only helps to identify and place in an historical perspective a concept place person event or legal action but also links that topic to an important aspect of multicultural education While the encyclopedia provides coverage of numerous terms from the social sciences and discusses various court decisions and historical events it also includes entries for notable persons from a wide range of cultural groups These persons exemplify the achievements and diversity of America s many cultures and are often discussed within a multicultural curriculum In addition the volume provides entries for cultural and ethnic groups These entries discuss the educational needs and experiences of the group Thus there are entries for such groups as African Americans Anglo Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Jewish Americans for organizations such as the Anti Defamation League of B nai B rith for several Native American people for persons such as George Washington Carver Geronimo and Jesse Jackson and for numerous terms and concepts such as busing institutional racism gender equity quota systems and reverse discrimination Entries provide bibliographic information and the volume concludes with a selected general bibliography

Sovereignty and Sustainability Siobhan Senier,2020-05 Sovereignty and Sustainability examines how Native American authors in what is now called New England have maintained their own long and complex literary histories often entirely outside of mainstream archives libraries publishing houses and other institutions usually associated with literary canon building Indigenous people in the Northeast began writing in English almost immediately after the arrival of colonial settlers and they have continued to write in almost every form histories newsletters novels poetry and electronic media Over the centuries Native American authors have used literature to assert tribal self determination and protect traditional homelands and territories Drawing on the fields of Native American and Indigenous studies environmental humanities and literary history Siobhan Senier argues that sustainability cannot be thought of apart from Indigenous sovereignty and that tribal sovereignty depends on environmental and cultural sustainability Senier offers the framework of literary stewardship to show how works of Indigenous literature maintain recirculate and adapt tribally specific approaches to community land and relations Individual chapters discuss Wampanoag historiography tribal newsletters and periodicals novelists and poets Joseph Bruchac John Christian Hopkins Cheryl Savageau and Melissa Tantaquidgeon Zobel and tribal literature on the web and in electronic archives Pushing against the idea that Indians have vanished or are irrelevant today Senier demonstrates to the contrary that regional Native literature is flourishing and looks to a dynamic future

Wherry, Juliet B. Schor, Consulting Editor, 2015-09-01 Economics is the nexus and engine that runs society affecting societal well being raising standards of living when economies prosper or lowering citizens through class structures when economies perform poorly Our society only has to witness the booms and busts of the past decade to see how economics profoundly affects the cores of societies around the world From a household budget to international trade economics ranges from the micro to the macro level It relates to a breadth of social science disciplines that help describe the content of the proposed encyclopedia which will explicitly approach economics through varied disciplinary lenses Although there are encyclopedias of covering economics especially classic economic theory and history the SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society emphasizes the contemporary world contemporary issues and society Features 4 volumes with approximately 800 signed articles ranging from 1 000 to 5 000 words each are presented in a choice of print or electronic editions Organized A to Z with a thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter groups related entries Articles conclude with References Future Readings to guide students to the next step on their research journeys Cross references between and among articles combine with a thorough Index and the Reader s Guide to enhance search and browse in the electronic version Pedagogical elements include a Chronology of Economics and Society Resource Guide and Glossary This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social science programs who seek to better understand economics through a contemporary lens      Precarious International Multicultural Education: Hegemony, Dissent and Rising Alternatives Handel Kashope Wright, Michael Singh, Richard Race, 2012-09-22 Multiculturalism and multicultural education are at a paradoxical moment There is work that continues as if the multicultural hegemony was still intact and on the other hand work articulated as if multiculturalism was decidedly passe The essays in this collection will be of considerable interest to academics policy makers and students of both multiculturalism and multicultural education principally because they touch on both perspectives but concentrate for the most part on the thorny problematic of the workings of multicultural education in its present precarious moment Given the renewed urgent attacks in various western countries the cottage industry of death of multiculturalism texts and the rise of the interculturalism transnationalism diaspora alternatives is multiculturalism dying Are the ends of multiculturalism the management or celebration of diversity representation and recognition for all in society creation of just and equitable communities at the global national and local school classroom levels better theorized and realized through the ascendant alternatives Representing the precarious moment in Canada Ireland Australia the United States and the United Kingdom the essays in this collection address these questions and both depict and trouble hegemonic multicultural education and contrast it with its supposed successor regimes

Home and Native Land May Chazan, Lisa Helps, Anna Stanley, Sonali Thakkar, 2011-07 Home and Native Land takes its vastly important topic and places it under a new penetrating light shifting focus from the present grounds of debate onto a more critical terrain The book's articles by some of the foremost critical thinkers and activists on issues of difference diversity and Canadian policy challenge sedimented thinking on the subject of multiculturalism Not merely another book on race relations national identity or the post 9 11 security environment this collection forges new and innovative connections by examining how multiculturalism relates to issues of migration security labour environment nature and land These novel pairings illustrate the continued power limitations and at times destructiveness of multiculturalism both as policy and as discourse Publisher's note      Cultural Globalization and Language Education B. Kumaravadivelu, Anonimo, 2008-01-01 We live in a world that is marked by the twin processes of economic and cultural globalization In this thought provoking book Kumaravadivelu explores the impact of cultural globalization on second and foreign language education
