Powys Notes , 1997 I Saw Water Ithell Colquhoun, 2015-01-09 Ithell Colquhoun 1906 1988 is remembered today as a surrealist artist writer and occultist Although her paintings hang in a number of public collections and her gothic novel Goose of Hermogenes 1961 remains in print critical responses to her work have been severely constrained by the limited availability of her art and writings The publication of her second novel I Saw Water presented here for the first time together with a selection of her other writings and images many also previously unpublished marks a significant step in expanding our knowledge of Colquhoun's work Composed almost entirely of material assembled from the author's dreams I Saw Water challenges such fundamental distinctions as those between sleeping and waking the two separated genders and life and death It is set in a convent on the Island of the Dead but its spiritual context derives from sources as varied as Roman Catholicism the teachings of the Theosophical Society Goddess spirituality Druidism the mystical Qabalah and Neoplatonism The editors have provided both an introduction and explanatory notes The introductory essay places the novel in the context of Colquhoun's other works and the cultural and spiritual environment in which she lived The extensive notes will help the reader with any concepts that may be unfamiliar
