Teaching and Learning Chinese in Higher Education Yang Lu, 2017-02-24

Teaching and Learning Chinese in Higher Education deals with the current issues and challenges faced by teachers and learners of Chinese. Written by leading professionals and academics, the book is the first collection of research articles based on data collected in higher education institutions in the UK. The studies focus on concerns related to learners of Chinese as a foreign language (CFL) and aim to establish studies on teaching Chinese as a foreign language (TCFL) as part of the mainstream of applied linguistics. The contributors have applied their theoretical backgrounds in applied linguistics and education to tackle issues such as how to benchmark the Chinese written language with CEFR, how to integrate standardised Chinese proficiency tests with institutional assessments and teaching methodologies. Teaching and Learning Chinese in Higher Education will be invaluable to professionals, academics, and students seeking theoretical frameworks in applied linguistics for TCFL.

Key Issues in Chinese as a Second Language Research Istvan Kecskes, Chaofen Sun, 2017-06-26

Key Issues in Chinese as a Second Language Research presents and discusses research projects that serve as theoretical grounding for improving the teaching and learning of Chinese as a second language (CSL) in order to help researchers and practitioners better understand the acquisition, development, and use of CSL. With the exception of the first chapter, which is state of the art, each chapter makes an attempt to bring together theory and practice by focusing on theory building and theory application in practice. The book is organized around areas where most future research is needed in CSL: phonology, semantics, grammar, and pragmatics. Consisting of contributions from an international group of scholars working on cutting edge research, this is the ideal text for researchers, graduate students, and practitioners in the area of Chinese as a second or foreign language.

Chinese as a Second Language Research from Different Angles, 2024-04-02

A crucial question for Chinese as a Second Language research is how to help elevate Chinese language teaching methodology to the level of other world language methodologies such as English, Spanish, and German. This work goes in two directions. One explores how to apply research results achieved in Chinese linguistics to Chinese language teaching, and the other is engaged in creating a strong applied linguistics research field that supports Chinese language teaching. CASLAR scholars are mainly involved in the latter one. This book is a representative sample of their research endeavors.

Assessing Learners' Competence in L2 Chinese 评估二语学习者能力 Yang Lu, 2022-12-30

Assessing Learners' Competence in L2 Chinese is the first book intended to answer the question on whether existing standardised and classroom based assessments can reflect learners' competence in L2 Chinese. The Chinese language has enjoyed increasing global popularity amongst second foreign language learners and has become one of the major modern languages for school and university curricula. However, to many teachers and researchers, it has been difficult to answer with confidence whether the existing standardised and classroom tests can reflect learners' competence in L2 Chinese. This book defines and redefines the constructs for assessing L2 Chinese competence that have been overlooked or misplaced because of the unique features of the Chinese language The book provides theoretical backgrounds and practical methodologies for assessing competence in L2 Chinese trainees and experienced teachers of Chinese as a second language It will provide invaluable guidelines and ready made workshop materials for postgraduate teacher training programmes Researchers and academics will find innovative frameworks on the subject for further studies and debates International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 New Practical Chinese Reader Jerry Dean Schmidt,2012 Intermediate Reader in Modern Chinese, Vol. III Harriet Mills, Ar Or Orientální ústav (Akademie věd České republiky),1997 Vols 3 include Bulletin of the Czechoslovak Oriental Institut no 1
