Interculturality in Learning Mandarin Chinese in British Universities Tinghe Jin, 2020-11-29. As China and Chinese language learning moves centre stage economically and politically, questions of interculturality assume even greater significance. In this book, interculturality draws attention to the processes involved in people engaging and exchanging with each other across languages, nationalities, and ethnicities. The study, which adopts an ecological perspective, critically examines a range of issues and uses a variety of sources to conduct a multifaceted investigation. Data gathered from interviews with students of Mandarin sit alongside a critical discussion of a wide range of sources. Interculturality in Learning Mandarin Chinese in British Universities will be of interest to students and academics studying and researching Chinese language education and academics working in the fields of language and intercultural communication, intercultural education, and language education in general.

Korean Reader for Chinese Characters Choon-Hak Cho, Yeon-ja Sohn, Heisoon Yang, 2002-08-31. Korean Reader for Chinese Characters will help students of Korean master basic Chinese characters that are frequently encountered in everyday situations. More than five hundred characters are targeted in exercises that aid in the efficient study of the forms, meanings, and sounds of individual characters and their compounds. Although the primary goal of the Reader is recognition of basic Chinese characters, students are encouraged to learn to write them properly by inclusion of a section on stroke order. The Reader is also designed to reinforce skills in reading and writing in Korean while studying Chinese characters. Forty lessons are preceded by an introductory chapter on the principles of Chinese character formation and reading and writing characters and followed by appendices on stroke order English translations of the main reading text of each lesson and an index of characters The lessons are organized into seven parts new characters reading text glossary notes new words in characters more words in characters and exercises After every fifth lesson there is a section reviewing all the characters introduced in the preceding five lessons
