Selected Letters of William Makepeace Thackeray Edgar F. Harden, 1996-11-15 These letters have been selected according to their ability to convey the essential biographical developments of a very interesting life and their ability to represent highly characteristic verbal and pictorial expressions of a great man of letters In spite of his struggles Thackeray articulates in his letters an exuberance characteristic of one of the great enjoyers of life Seventy five of his comical illustrations accompany the texts of these letters A William Makepeace Thackeray Chronology E. Harden, 2003-05-01 This is the first authoritative and comprehensive account of the life and career of William Makepeace Thackeray 1811-63 one of the most eminent English novelists Drawing upon Thackeray's extensive correspondence memoirs of him by his contemporaries subsequent biographical studies and bibliographies of his writings the Chronology presents a detailed account of his personal and professional life It includes an invaluable Who's Who section for ready reference Selected Letters Charlotte Brontë, 2010-09-09 Dangerous as lucifer matches That was how Arthur Nicholls Charlotte Brontë's husband for the last nine months of her life described her letters Full of acute observations pithy character sketches and passionate convictions the letters are our most direct source of information about the lives of the Brontës and our closest approach to the author of Jane Eyre In them Charlotte writes of life at Haworth Parsonage her experiences at a Belgian school and her intense feelings for the Belgian schoolteacher M Heger She endures the agony of the death of her siblings and enjoys the success as a writer that brings her into contact with the London literary scene Vivid and intimate her letters give fresh insight into the novels and into the development of her distinct literary style Margaret Smith's fine edition includes invaluable notes on Brontë's correspondents and Janet Gezari contributes a new introduction that relates the letters to both Brontë's life and her creative accomplishment ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Selected Letters Claude Moore Fues, 1914 Selected Letters Stella Stewart Center, 1915 Selected Letters of Charlotte Brontë Margaret Smith, 2007-09-13 These letters give an insight into the life of a writer whose novels continue to be bestsellers They reveal much about Charlotte Brontë's personal life her family relationships and the society in which she lived Many of her early letters are written with vigour vivacity and an engaging aptitude for self mockery In contrast her letters to her master the Belgian schoolteacher Constantin Heger reveal her intense obsessive longing for some response from him Other letters are deeply moving when Charlotte endures the agony of her brother's and sisters untimely deaths We learn also of the progress of her writing including the astonishing success of Jane Eyre and of her contacts with her publishers including the young George Smith and we recognize in her letters the life experiences which are transmuted into the art of her novels

Contemporary society is brilliantly described in her letters from London when she writes of her encounters with famous writers and with critics of her novels We hear too of her visits to art galleries operas and the Great Exhibition of 1851 at the Crystal Palace Dramatic letters written in December 1852 convey the turbulence of feeling in the Haworth curate Arthur Nicholls s proposal of marriage to her and in Mr Bront s violent reaction to it and we subsequently hear of her secret correspondence with her suitor her father s eventual consent and her tragically brief happy marriage cut short by her death in March 1855
