

The world and man within it, represented by the globe, is the central theme of the book. The author's intention is to present a new view of the world, and to show that the world is not a static entity, but a dynamic one, and that the world is not a collection of isolated facts, but a unified whole.

All over the world, and in every language, the world is being called to attention. The world is not a static entity, but a dynamic one, and that the world is not a collection of isolated facts, but a unified whole.
