Lewis, 2025-10-02 This book seeks to create a new means of interrogating the direction in which contemporary science fiction is progressing In the late 1950s Hugh Everett III suggested that there is no way to say that there are not as many versions of what we experience as reality as there are particles in the universe This movement in contemporary science fiction serves as the foreground for the sense of loss and the need for sacrifice to set things right after generations of technological praxis by the nations and communities that have traditionally driven science fiction the Global North that have damaged communities throughout the Global South Colonialism and the drives for spheres of influence in the Cold War are now being met with the realities of such existential threats as global climate change Narratives about the loss of control over time reality and human consciousness demonstrate the on going ideological crises of faith in institutions like religion capitalism and education It is the grief for lost utopian dreams for the future that drives this interest in Everett's Many Worlds Interpretation of Quantum Mechanics or MWI Better by Far Hazel Hayes, 2024-04-23 One of Zibby Mag's Most Anticipated Books Coming Out in 2024 One of SheNet's Highly Anticipated Books of 2024 A genre bending story about love and loss hope and heartbreak and the healing to be found in life's little limbos those in between spaces where you're no longer who you were and not yet the person you will be About her debut Out of Love Hazel Hayes said The journey from writing horror to writing love stories was a short one There is nothing more horrific than love In her new novel she sets out to prove it This genre defying meta modern novel is unlike anything you have ever read and yet at its core it is a story we all deeply understand A story of love and liminality and the ways in which grief grips us all Prepare to laugh and cry Hazel Hayes will break your heart but then she'll mend it for you Following a breakup Kate and Finn decide to keep sharing their house until the lease runs out in twelve weeks time alternating week by week so that they are occupying the same space but never at the same time Practically the plan makes sense but coming back each Sunday to a home where Finn has been and gone feels far too much like living with a ghost Kate lost her mother at a young age and now this fresh grief dredges unhealed sorrows up to the surface and soon Kate finds herself adrift in her own subconscious trapped in the liminal space between loving someone and letting go Signal:
