introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature Ming Dong Gu,2018-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature presents a comprehensive overview of Chinese literature from the 1910s to the present day Featuring detailed studies of selected masterpieces it adopts a thematic comparative approach By developing an innovative conceptual framework predicated on a new theory of periodization it thus situates Chinese literature in the context of world literature and the forces of globalization Each section consists of a series of contributions examining the major literary genres including fiction poetry essay drama and film Offering an exciting account of the century long process of literary modernization in China the handbook s themes include Modernization of people and writing Realism romanticism and modernist aesthetics Chinese literature on the stage and screen Patriotism war and revolution Feminism liberalism and socialism Literature of reform reflection and experimentation Literature of Taiwan Hong Kong and new media This handbook provides an integration of biographical narrative with textual analysis maintaining a subtle balance between comprehensive overview and in depth examination As such it is an essential reference guide for all students and scholars of Chinese literature Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin,Jeffrey C. Kinkley,2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China s leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war revolution betrayal and commitment The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry ,2016-09-01 The May Fourth Movement launched an era of turmoil and transformation in China as Western ideas and education encroached on the Confucian traditions at the root of Chinese society The Republican period 1919-49 witnessed an outpouring of poetry in a form and style new to China written in the common people s language baihua plain speech The New Poetry broke with the centuries old tradition of classical poetry and its intricate forms and the rise of China s modern poetry reflects the rise of modern China The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry presents English translations of over 250 poems by fifty poets including a rich selection of poetry by women writers to provide a nuanced picture of the rapid development of vernacular verse in China from its emergence during the May Fourth Movement through the years of the Japanese invasion to the Communist victory in the Civil War in 1949 Michel Hockx introduces the historical and literary contexts of the various schools of vernacular poetry that developed throughout the period the pioneers formalists symbolists peasants and soldiers poets and Shanghai poets of the late 1940s Each selection of verse begins with a biographical sketch of the author s life and literary career including their roles in the Civil War and Japanese occupation Introducing English readers to master poets who are virtually unknown to Western audiences this anthology presents a collection of verse written in an age of struggle that attests to the courage sensitivity and imagination of the Chinese people Selective Guide to Chinese Literature

1900-1949, Volume 3 Poem Haft,2023-07-24 A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature, 1900-1949 Nils Göran

David Malmqvist,European Science Foundation,1988 New Perspectives on Contemporary Chinese Poetry C.

Lupke,2007-12-25 This book brings together fresh research from experts on contemporary Chinese poetry built upon one of the most glorious poetic traditions of any civilization in the world yet historically neglected by scholars in English This comprehensive volume offers readable and provocative treatments of many of the most important Chinese poets of our age

Twentieth-century Chinese Women's Poetry: An Anthology Julia C. Lin,2014-12-18 Chinese women s writing is rich and abundant although not well known in the West Despite the brutal wars and political upheavals that ravaged twentieth century China the ranks of women in the literary world increased dramatically This anthology introduces English language readers to a comprehensive selection of Chinese women poets from both the mainland and Taiwan It spans the early 1920s and the era of Republican China s literary renaissance through the end of the twentieth century The collection includes 245 poems by forty poets in elegant English translations as well as an extensive introduction that surveys the history of contemporary Chinese women s poetry Brief biographical head notes introduce each poet from Bin Xin China s preeminent woman poet in the early Republican period to Rongzi a leading poet of modern Taiwan The selections are startling moving and wide ranging in mood and tone Together they present an enticing palette of delightful elegant playful lyric and tragic poetry The Literature of China in the Twentieth Century Bonnie S. McDougall,Kam Louie,1997 The written culture of 20th century China has only recently begun to receive sustained attention from Western readers and critics This book presents illuminating information on writers audiences and the impact of various literary works on politics and culture and provides a unique window on Chinese society Introduction to the Study of the Chinese Characters Joseph Edkins,1876

A Guide to Chinese Literature Wilt Idema,Lloyd Haft,1997 Selected for Choice s list of Outstanding Academic Books for 1997 A comprehensive overview of China s 3 000 years of literary history from its beginnings to the present day After an introductory section discussing the concept of literature and other features of traditional Chinese society crucial to understanding its writings the second part is broken into five major time periods earliest times to 100 c e 100 1000 1000 1875 1875 1915 and 1915 to the present corresponding to changes in book production The development of the major literary genres is traced in each of these periods The reference section in the cloth edition includes an annotated bibliography of more than 120 pages the paper edition has a shorter bibliography and is intended for classroom use Modern Chinese Literature ,1998 The Columbia Anthology of Modern Chinese Drama Xiaomei Chen,2010-10-29 The first of its kind in English this anthology translates twenty two popular Chinese plays published between 1919 and 2000 accompanied by a critical introduction to the historical cultural and aesthetic evolution of twentieth century Chinese spoken drama. Primarily comprising works from the People's Republic of China though including representative plays from Hong Kong and Taiwan, this collection not only showcases the revolutionary rethinking of Chinese theater and performance that began in the late Qing dynasty. It also highlights the formation of Chinese national and gender identities during a period of tremendous social and political change along with the genesis of contemporary attitudes toward the West. Early twentieth century Chinese drama embodies the uncertainty and anxiety brought on by modernism, socialism, political conflict and war. After 1949, PRC theater painted a complex portrait of the rise of communism in China with the ideals of Chinese socialism juxtaposed against the sacrifices made for a new society. The Cultural Revolution promoted a model theater cultivated from the achievements of earlier leftist spoken drama even though this theater arose from the destruction of old culture. Post Mao drama addresses the socialist legacy and the attempts of a wounded nation to reexamine its cultural roots. Taiwan's spoken drama synthesizes regional and foreign traditions and Hong Kong's spoken drama sparkles as a hybrid of Chinese and Western influences. Immensely valuable for cross disciplinary comparative and performance study, this anthology provides essential perspective on China's theatricality and representation of political life.

Ezra Pound and the Appropriation of Chinese Poetry Ming Xie, 2015-12-22. This book focuses on the relations between the translation and appropriation of classical Chinese poetry by Ezra Pound and some of his contemporaries and the development of Anglo American Imagist poetry and poetics. It is concerned as much with critical aspects of this correlative relationship as with the question of historical influence and ascription. The author places the early work of Ezra Pound in the context of works of Chinese translation by other contemporary poet translators such as Arthur Waley and Amy Lowell and examines the whole notion of an ideogrammic poetry as advocated by Ernest Fenollosa and Ezra Pound against an appropriately reconstructed historical and critical context of poetic theory and practice. Closely linked to this is a discussion of Pound's use of personae and modulation of the elegiac in relation to the immediately preceding context of late Victorian elegiac lyricism and Brownianesque dramatic monologue. Through a series of close readings of translations from the Chinese especially those by Pound, the author shows how the critical problem of what is involved in translating a Chinese poem into a new English poem is closely linked to the particulars of early Modernist literary history. In particular, through tracing the trajectory of a number of central issues and notions such as absolute free floating metaphor, metaphor as epiphanic image and its relation to syntax, metaphor and parallelism, experiments with rhythm and cadence, the book explores some of the reasons for Fenollosa's and Pound's emphasis on the visual image, the notion of phanopoeia and ideogrammic verbal action as the active perceiving of relations and closely examines the genesis and significance of Pound's ideogrammic method as well as the question of cultural misreading and vicarious envisagement and provides a critical overview of Pound's general engagement with translation.

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris

Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation
