Slang outlines the context behind the slang used by members of the United States Armed Forces during the Vietnam War. Troops facing and inflicting death display a high degree of linguistic creativity. Vietnam was the last American war fought by an army with conscripts and their involuntary participation in the war added a dimension to the language. War has always been an incubator for slang; it is brutal and brutality demands a vocabulary to describe what we don't encounter in peacetime civilian life. Furthermore, such language serves to create an intense bond between comrades in the armed forces, helping them to support the heavy burdens of war. The troops in Vietnam faced the usual demands of war as well as several that were unique to Vietnam: a murky political basis for the war, widespread corruption in the ruling government, untraditional guerilla warfare, an unpredictable civilian population in Vietnam, and a growing lack of popular support for the war back in the US. For all these reasons, the language of those who fought in Vietnam was a vivid reflection of life in wartime Vietnam. Vietnam War Slang lays out the definitive record of the lexicon of Americans who fought in the Vietnam War. Assuming no prior knowledge, it presents around 2000 headwords, with each entry divided into sections giving parts of speech, definitions, glosses, the countries of origin, dates of earliest known citations, and citations. It will be an essential resource for Vietnam veterans and their families, students, and readers of history and anyone interested in the principles underpinning the development of slang.

On November 13 1969 ten students at Texas State University were suspended for participating in a peaceful protest against the Vietnam War They had kept vigil in front of the Huntington Mustangs bearing signs that read Vietnam Is an Edsel and 44 000 U S Dead For What while an increasingly hostile anti protest crowd chanted Love it or leave it and Let s string em up It was a day after news of the My Lai massacre broke Part of a coordinated nationwide Vietnam Moratorium effort that confounded and infuriated the Nixon White House the San Marcos 10 challenged their suspension taking their case all the way to the United States Supreme Court Author E R Bills offers this fascinating glimpse into the 1960s antiwar movement in Texas the extraordinary measures to quell it and the broader social activism in which it participated SMEs and Economic Integration in Southeast Asia Cassey Lee, Dionisius Ardiyanto Narjoko, Sothea Oum, 2019-04-29 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs account for about 97.99 per cent of total enterprises and 60.80 per cent of total employment in ASEAN countries The participation of SMEs is thus crucial for achieving greater regional economic integration amongst ASEAN countries SMEs are however often constrained by many disadvantages that limit their abilities to become importers and exporters This is well documented in the research literature on trade and firm size This volume contains selected ASEAN country studies on the participation of SMEs in regional economic integration based on primary microdata This is supplemented by empirical studies on the role played by East Asian multinational enterprises in the region The editors and authors of SMEs and Economic Integration in Southeast Asia are to be congratulated for this major contribution to the scholarly and policy literature on a subject of much public discussion but limited analytical research The emphasis on economic integration highlights the importance of these firms in Southeast Asia s growing regional and global engagement The thirteen chapters by leading authors in the field comprise both insightful country analyses and careful examination of the links between SMEs and foreign investment Hal Hill H W Arndt Professor Emeritus of Southeast Asian Economies Australian National University Vietnam Journal #16 Don Lomax, 2015-11-19

Vietnam is currently undergoing a metamorphosis from a relatively closed society with a centrally planned economy to a rapidly urbanising one with a global outlook These changes have been the catalyst for an exciting ferment of activity in popular culture This volume contains contributions from scholars engaged in the most up to date social research in Vietnam as well as some of Vietnam s most popular cultural producers who are forging new ways of imagining the present whilst at the same time engaging actively in reinterpreting the past The diverse ways that Vietnam is culturally and socially negotiating the future are examined as the book addresses issues of indigenisation of cultural influences ambivalence surrounding change and the consistent blurring of boundaries between informal non state cultural activities and formal institutional structures in the evolution of a civil society in Vietnam Beer in East Asia Paul Chambers, Nithi Nuangjamnong, 2023-03-17 Chambers Nuangjamnong and their contributors look at how the development of the beer industry in East Asia presents a unique opportunity for understanding the region's political economy. Asia is both the world's largest beer consuming and beer producing region and the fastest growing beer market. Per capita consumption is lower than Europe but catching up fast. Beer consumption is also widely understood to correlate closely with economic growth and urbanization much more so than other alcoholic beverages like spirits. With ten country case studies from both Northeast and Southeast Asia, the contributors to this volume look at the history of beer production and consumption across East Asia through a lens of historical institutionalism and political economy. In doing so, they not only examine the development of the beer industry in the region but also what it tells us about the countries themselves. They ask questions such as: To what extent have state versus societal actors influenced the path of beer production? How has beer production changed? Was there a critical juncture at which beer production abruptly changed course? A valuable resource for students and scholars of modern East Asian History and particularly those with a focus on colonial history, industrial history, and state-society relations.
