Handbook of Long-Term Care Administration and Policy Cynthia Massie Mara,Laura Olson,2008-03-27 Attitudes toward long term care contain a strong residue of negativity in today s society and current problems with the system augment such perceptions Unless dealt with now this will only get worse as the 85 and older crowd is the fastest growing part of the population and the first wave of Baby Boomers is approaching 60 Exploring and delineating Improving the Health and Health Care of Older Americans AHRQ Task Force on Aging,2001 Nursing Homes for Elderly People Helen C. Bartlett,1993 This book increases the understanding of the concept and measurement of quality in private nursing homes for the elderly The consumer s perspective of quality obtained from in depth reviews with residents in selected homes in England forms the focus of the book These results are compared with the views of professional care providers and those responsible for the regulation and inspection of nursing home care Helen Bartlett gained a PhD in social policy from the University of Bath and has held research and teaching positions at universities in both the UK and Australia before taking up her current position in the Department of Health Sciences at the Hong Kong Polytechnic Problems of Nursing Home Bed Availability and Placement United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging. Subcommittee on Health and Long-Term Care,1980 Performance Indicators in Social Care for Older People David Challis,Paul Clarkson,2017-03-02

The growing focus on performance review and monitoring means that awareness and use of performance indicators has increased throughout a number of public services Set within a national context this book reviews the historical development and measurement issues of performance indicators within social care and the public sector for older people It then provides an approach to effective local performance measurement in services for older people and an organizing framework within which organizations can arrange their performance appraisal for older people s services The development of performance review in social care of older people is examined as is the process of developing local performance measures and engaging staff in enquiry and quality management The book also reviews the process of developing performance indicators and their utilization at an agency level Performance Indicators in Social Care for Older People will be of particular interest in the UK for local service providers who are developing approaches for local performance review It will also be of interest internationally especially in countries where services for older people are currently developing in a similar direction The Oldest Old Richard M. Suzman,David P. Willis,Kenneth G. Manton,1995 More than 2 3 million Americans are now age 85 and older and the population total in this age group is steadily expanding This book brings together leading researchers to review current knowledge about the demography health epidemiology and social status of the oldest old From discussions of the impact of Alzheimer s disease to an examination of changing social and medical policies this book provides much needed information about this often neglected but growing group The special problems attendant to information gathering among the oldest old such as interviews and research are also addressed Special intercultural perspectives inform chapters on The Black Oldest Old and Institutional Long term Care from an International Perspective This is essential reading for gerontologists public health professionals epidemiologists and policy makers The book s broad scope enlarges our understanding of the current needs of the oldest old and indicates areas of public concern The Salt of the Earth Martyn Percy,2016-10-06 This is a sparkling collection of essays by one of Britain s best known and acute commentators of the church scene and of contemporary religious life Martyn Percy explores new liberalism the churches and human rights in the European Union football and religion pilgrimage demonology common spirituality religious attitudes to nudity and the relationship between religion and advertising The argument running throughout this book is that despite claims and the appearance of increasing secularity the influence of religious themes and values on our everyday life remains pervasive
