Nurturing Faith Through the Stages of Life, 1998 This reproducible resource book provides glimpses into what it means to nurture faith through the stages of life

Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis, 2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author's method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized

Face-to-Face with Lois and Eunice Janet Thompson, 2012-01-01 Lois and Eunice followed the numerous Scriptures instructing one generation to pass on their faith to the next generation and young Timothy grew up to be a second generation leader of the early church Often mentoring focuses on reaching out to others but as parents and grandparents the first line of mentoring should be within your own family a concept repeated throughout the Bible The Bible has many devastating examples of parents who were poor role models or didn't rear their children to know God as well good and faithful parents whose children wandered away from God Face to Face with Lois and Eunice focuses on how women today can be grandmothers mothers aunts and mentors whose faith takes root in the next generation
