Original Teachings Of Chan Buddhism Selected From The Transmission Of The Lamp:

Original Teachings of Chan Buddhism ,1971      Original Teachings of Ch'an Buddhism Daoyuan (shi.),1969 Translations from Jingde chuan deng lu Bibliography p 313 319      Original Teachings of Ch'an Buddhism Shi Daoyuan, Chung-Yuan Chang, 1969 The origins and nature of Zen Buddhism are revealed in a translation of important Chinese scripts      Chan Buddhism in Ritual Context Bernard Faure, 2005-09-27 The essays in this volume attempt to place the Chan and Zen tradition in their ritual and cultural contexts looking at various aspects heretofore largely and unduly ignored In particular they show the extent to which these traditions despite their claim to uniqueness were indebted to larger trends in East Asian Buddhism such as the cults of icons relics and the monastic robe The book emphasises the importance of ritual for a proper understanding of this allegedly anti ritualistic form of Buddhism In doing so it deconstructs the Chan Zen rhetoric of immediacy and its ideological underpinnings      Records of the Transmission of the Lamp (Jingde Chuandeng Lu) Daoyuan, 2020-03-30 This compilation of Buddhist biographies teaching and transmission stories of Indian and Chinese Chan Japanese Zen masters from antiquity up to about the year 1008 CE is the first mature fruit of an already thousand year long spiritual marriage between two great world cultures with quite different ways of viewing the world The fertilisation of Chinese spirituality by Indian Buddhism fructified the whole of Asian culture The message of this work that Chan practice can enable a free participation in life s open ended play seems as necessary to our own time as it was to the restless times of 11th century Song China This is the fifth volume of a full translation of this work in thirty books Records of the Transmission of the Lamp translated by Randolph S Whitfield Jingde Chuandeng Lu by Daoyuan      Original Teachings of Ch'an Buddhism ,1971      Chan Rhetoric of Uncertainty in the Blue Cliff Record Steven Heine, 2016-04-28 This book provides an in depth textual and literary analysis of the Blue Cliff Record Chinese Biyanlu Japanese Hekiganroku a seminal Chan Zen Buddhist collection of commentaries on one hundred gongan koan cases considered in light of historical cultural and intellectual trends from the Song dynasty 960 1279 Compiled by the disciples of Yuanwu Keqin in 1128 the Blue Cliff Record is considered a classic of East Asian literature for its creative integration of prose and verse as well as hybrid or capping phrase interpretations of perplexing cases The collection employs a variety of rhetorical devices culled from both classic and vernacular literary sources and styles and is particularly notable for its use of indirection allusiveness irony paradox and wordplay all characteristic of the approach of literary or lettered Chan However as instrumental and influential as it is considered to be the Blue Cliff Record has long been shrouded in controversy The collection is probably best known today for having been destroyed in the 1130s at the dawn of the Southern Song dynasty 1127 1279 by Dahui Zonggao Yuanwu s main disciple and harshest critic It was out of circulation for nearly two centuries before being revived and partially reconstructed in the early 1300s In this book Steven Heine examines the diverse ideological connections and disconnections behind subsequent commentaries and translations of the Blue Cliff Record thereby shedding light on the broad range of gongan spirited attitude reflected in the artwork of two prominent Japanese Zen monk painters Hakuin Ekaku 1685-1768 and Sengai Gibon 1750-1837. The free attitude emanating from their paintings is one of the qualities which distinguish Edo period Zen paintings from those of earlier periods. These paintings are part of a Zen ink painting tradition that began following the importation of Zen Buddhism from China at the beginning of the Kamakura period 1185-1333. In this study Aviman elaborates on the nature of this particular artistic expression and identifies its sources focusing on the lives of the monk painters and their artwork. The author applies a multifaceted approach combining a holistic analysis of the paintings i.e. as interrelated combination of text and image with a contextualization of the works within the specific historical art historical cultural social and political environments in which they were created.

Quinn, 2005-01-01 The great noh actor theorist and playwright Zeami Motokiyo ca 1363 1443 is one of the major figures of world drama His critical treatises have attracted international attention ever since their publication in the early 1900s His corpus of work and ideas continues to offer a wealth of insights on issues ranging from the nature of dramatic illusion and audience interest to tactics for composing successful plays to issues of somaticity and bodily training Shelley Fenno Quinn s impressive interpretive examination of Zeami s treatises addresses all of these areas as it outlines the development of the playwright s ideas on how best to cultivate attunement between performer and audience Quinn begins by tracing Zeami s transformation of the largely mimetic stage art of his father s troupe into a theater of poesis in which the playwright and actors aim for performances wherein dance and chant are re keyed to the evocative power of literary memory prosodies and associated auras with the flow of dance and chant led to the creation of a dramatic prototype that engaged and depended on the audience as never before Later chapters examine a performance configuration created by Zeami the nikyoku santai as articulated in his mature theories on the training of the performer Drawing on possible reference points from Buddhist and Daoist thought the author argues that Zeami came to treat the nikyoku santai as a set of guidelines for bracketing the subjectivity of the novice actor thereby allowing the actor to reach a certain skill level or threshold from which his freedom as an artist might begin
