For Us, What Music? Jerry Harp, 2010-12-28

When Donald Justice wrote in On a Picture by Burchfield that art keeps long hours he might have been describing his own life. Although he early on struggled to find a balance between his life and art, the latter became a way of experiencing his life more deeply. He found meaning in human experience by applying traditional religious language to his artistic vocation. Central to his work was the translation of the language of devotion to a learned American vernacular. Art not only provided him with a wealth of intrinsically worthwhile experiences but also granted rich and nuanced ways of experiencing understanding and being in the world. For Donald Justice, recipient of some of poetry's highest laurels including the Pulitzer Prize, the Bollingen Prize, and the Lannan Literary Award for Poetry, art was a way of life. Because Jerry Harp was Justice's student, his personal knowledge of his subject combined with his deep understanding of Justice's oeuvre works to remarkable advantage. In For Us, What Music, Harp reads with keen intelligence, placing each poem within the precise historical moment it was written and locating it in the context of the literary tradition within which Justice worked. Throughout the text runs the narrative of Justice's life, tying together the poems and informing Harp's interpretation of them. For Us, What Music grants readers a remarkable understanding of one of America's greatest poets.

The Room and the World Laura McCullough, 2015-01-01

The Room and the World: Essays on the Poet Stephen Dunn is the first book of its kind to explore and unpack the Pulitzer-winning poet's oeuvre. Including twenty-four essays, a foreword by poet and essayist Dave Smith, and an introduction by Laura McCullough, this anthology illuminates Dunn's development as a writer, his thematic obsessions, and his strategies and maneuvers on the page. It also locates him in the pantheon of essential American poets. Philosophical, funny, and founded on the juxtaposition of ideas with masterful tonal layering and texture, Dunn's poems are considered some of the best of his generation. The contributing poets and scholars, including Dunn's contemporaries and former students, highlight Dunn's meditations on freedom and constraint, sexuality and sorrow, sound and sense, and the mystery in the dailiness of living. Fans will find this a crucial text that reveals the complexities of Dunn's poetry and much about the man himself.

Former Poet Laureate Dove has chosen the best poems of the year from a wide range of literary magazines and journals, presenting works by W.S. Merwin, Lucille Clifton, Susan Mitchell, John Ashbery, and others. The poets comment about their work. Lehman writes the Foreword.
