Power Of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity:

The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen, 1999 Draws on the work of a diverse group of theorists in order to illustrate and construct a new feminist conception of power

The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen, 2025 In this new second edition of The Power of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity Amy Allen diagnoses the inadequacies of previous feminist conceptions of power and draws on the work of a diverse group of theorists of power including Michel Foucault Judith Butler bell hooks and Hannah Arendt in order to construct a new feminist conception of power The conception of power developed in this book enables readers to theorize domination resistance and solidarity and perhaps more importantly to do so in a way that illuminates the interrelatedness of these three modalities of power The new edition of this foundational text includes substantial new material on intersectionality and power transnational feminism and power in relation to homonationalism and neo imperialism and empowerment feminism It addresses important criticisms of Foucault Arendt and Butler that have been raised by Black feminists critical philosophers of race postcolonial theorists and Marxists The Power of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity is an essential text for students engaging with feminist analyses of power feminist theory and feminist political thought

The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen, 2018-03-05 Power is clearly a crucial concept for feminist theory Insofar as feminists are interested in analyzing power it is because they have an interest in understanding critiquing and ultimately challenging the multiple array of unjust power relations affecting women in contemporary Western societies including sexism racism heterosexism and class oppression In The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen diagnoses the inadequacies of previous feminist conceptions of power and draws on the work of a diverse group of theorists of power including Michel Foucault Judith Butler and Hannah Arendt in order to construct a new feminist conception of power The conception of power developed in this book enables readers to theorize domination resistance and solidarity and perhaps more importantly to do so in a way that illuminates the interrelatedness of these three modalities of power

The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger, 2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author's strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines A Critical Theory of Global Justice Malte Frøslee Ibsen, 2022-11-24 The idea of a critical theory is famous across the world yet it is today rarely practised as originally conceived by the Frankfurt School The waning influence of critical theory in the contemporary academy may be due to its lack of engagement with global problems and the postcolonial condition This book offers the first systematic treatment of the idea of a critical theory of world society advancing the conversation between critical theory and postcolonial and ecological thought Malte Fr sleet Ibsen develops a reconstruction of the Frankfurt School tradition as four paradigms of critical theory in original interpretations of the work of Max Horkheimer Theodor W Adorno Jürgen Habermas and Axel Honneth and considers how the global context has featured in their work and what might be salvaged for a critical theory of contemporary world society Along the way Ibsen advances new interpretations of the relationship between critical theory and justice the idea of communicative freedom and three conceptions of power in the Frankfurt School tradition He further offers extended discussions of two emerging paradigms in the work of Amy Allen and Rainer Forst and argues that a critical theory of world society must combine and integrate a Kantian constructivist approach in a critique of global injustice as Forst defends with the reflexive check of a self problematizing critique of its blind spots and taken for granted assumptions regarding the postcolonial condition as defended by Allen Finally Ibsen rethinks the relationship between society and nature in critical theory with far reaching normative and methodological implications

Women's Empowerment and Microcredit Programmes in India Annabel Dulhunty, 2023-08-21 Women s Empowerment and Microcredit Programs in India examines the value of microcredit based self help groups SHGs for women in India and provides an alternative model for women s empowerment programming The microcredit sector continues to boom globally with private investors governments and multilateral financial institutions all investing substantial amounts in self help group programming Nowhere is this more evident than in India where the industry has further been deregulated in recent years Much of the rationale for increased investment in microcredit is based on the idea that it improves women s empowerment But is this true Researchers have fiercely debated the value of microcredit programs for women with some arguing that it is exploitative and others contending that it is empowering This book provides new insights into women s empowerment and microcredit programming elaborating on the themes of power dignity mobility and solidarity It takes a nuanced view of the complexities surrounding self help group programming and women s empowerment and argues that the model of microcredit self help group programming is key to whether it helps or harms women By focusing on the experiences and voices of microcredit self help group members in West Bengal India this book elaborates on the idea of microcredit models existing on a continuum from smart economics to more holistic feminist versions of programming It will be of interest to scholars in development studies anthropology sociology gender studies and public policy and Asian Studies #MeToo TV Ralph Beliveau, Lisa Funnell, 2025-02-28 The MeToo movement has heightened awareness about the prevalence of sexual violence across professional public and private spheres Since the movement began many individuals have bravely stepped forward to share their experiences within media industries that historically protected predators while silencing survivors Television and streaming content also conveys messages about gender sex consent and power that influences public consciousness These portrayals of sexual violence warrant re examination from the perspective of the MeToo movement This essay collection explores sexual violence within television and streaming media building on the previous work Screening MeToo Rape Culture in Hollywood SUNY Press 2022 The current anthology features essays covering a diverse range of genres from documentary and true crime to drama and comedy across various platforms including network television and streaming services The contributing authors analyze representational tropes through an intersectional perspective and examine how trauma memory romance and fantasy intersect the narratives presented Prompting further exploration from readers these perspectives serve as a foundation for discussing rape culture in American television and streaming Love Troubles Federica

Gregoratto,2025-01-21 What does it mean to love Does love complete us giving us purpose and meaning Or does it tie us down and even harm us Is erotic desire complicit in oppression or could it deliver liberation Are our desires extricable from the wrongs of our societies And in today s world is love still worth the trouble This book develops a critical theory of sexual love and friendship offering profound new ways to understand the troublesome nature of eros Federica Gregoratto explores the ambivalence of erotic love which is at once intimately interwoven with heterosexism racism and neoliberal capitalism yet entices us with the tantalizing possibility of transformation Drawing on a rich array of sources from Frankfurt School critical theory to feminist thought and contemporary philosophies of emotions and affects as well as poetry novels films and music she argues that love provides unexpected resources for political agency resistance and emancipation Gregoratto makes a passionate defense of erotic freedom as an adventurous process through which we understand together with others who we are and who we want to become both in our individual existences and in our social lives Wide ranging and daring Love Troubles invites us to reflect on our fraught amorous experiences showing why we should cherish and learn from them

The Cambridge Companion to Foucault Gary Gutting,2005-07-18 For Michel Foucault philosophy was a way of questioning the allegedly necessary truths that underpin the practices and institutions of modern society He carried this out in a series of deeply original and strikingly controversial studies on the origins of modern medical and social scientific disciplines These studies have raised fundamental questions about the nature of human knowledge and its relation to power structures and have become major topics of discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of Foucault s major themes and texts from his early work on madness through his history of sexuality Special attention is also paid to thinkers and movements from Kant through current feminist theory that are particularly important for understanding his work and its impact This revised edition contains five new essays and revisions of many others and the extensive bibliography has been updated Hannah Arendt Amy Allen,2017-05-15 Hannah Arendt was one of the most original and influential social and political theorists of the 20th century This volume brings together the most important English language essays of the past 30 years on Arendt's unique and lasting contributions to social and political philosophy Judith Butler Moya Lloyd, 2013-05-03 With the publication of her highly acclaimed and much cited book Gender Trouble Judith Butler became one of the most influential feminist theorists of her generation Her theory of gender performativity and her writings on corporeality on the injurious capacity of language on the vulnerability of human life to violence and on the impact of mourning on politics have taken together comprised a substantial and highly original body of work that has a wide and truly cross disciplinary appeal In this lively book Moya Lloyd provides both a clear exposition and an original critique of Butler's work She examines Butler's core ideas traces the development of her thought from her first book to her most recent work and assesses Butler's engagements with the philosophies of Hegel Foucault Derrida Irigaray and de Beauvoir as well as addressing the nature and impact of Butler's writing on feminist theory Throughout Lloyd is particularly concerned to examine Butler's political theory including her critical interventions in such contemporary political controversies as those surrounding gay marriage hate speech human rights and September 11 and its aftermath Judith Butler offers an accessible and original contribution to existing debates that will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars alike Foucault/Derrida Fifty Years Later Olivia Custer, Penelope Deutscher, Samir Haddad, 2016-11-08 Early in their careers Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida argued over madness reason and history in an exchange that profoundly influenced continental philosophy and critical theory In this collection Amy Allen Geoffrey Bennington Lynne Huffer Colin Koopman Pierre Macherey Michael Naas and Judith Revel among others trace this exchange in debates over the possibilities of genealogy and deconstruction immanent and transcendent approaches to philosophy and the practical and theoretical role of the archive Genealogy as Critique Colin Koopman, 2013 Shows that philosophical genealogy involves not only the critique of modernity but also its transformation Redefining the Political Alex J. Moffett-Bateau, 2024-09-06 Identifies socio political concepts and frameworks that can be used to recognize and understand the styles of political engagement political rebellion and political identity creation used by poor Black women living in the United States Adorno, Heidegger, and the Politics of Truth Lambert Zuidervart, 2024-02-01 An elusive and complex idea of truth lies at the center of Theodor Adorno's thought Yet he never spells out what it is Through close readings of Negative Dialectics Aesthetic Theory and related course lectures Lambert Zuidervart reconstructs Adorno's conception of truth contrasts it with the conceptions of Martin Heidegger and Michel Foucault and explores its relevance for contemporary philosophy art and politics Adorno regards truth as a dynamic constellation in which various dialectical polarities intersect The most decisive polarity Zuidervart argues occurs between society as it has developed and the historical possibility of a completely transformed world Critically reconstructed Adorno's conception of truth can help inspire hopeful critiques of an allegedly post truth society Gender, Work, and Family in a Chinese Economic Zone Nancy E Riley, 2012-11-06 This book examines the dynamics of power within the families of married women who have migrated from rural areas to China's Dalian

Economic Zone Engaging the question of whether waged work gives women power in their families this ethnographic study finds that women do indeed use their new positions and urban status to negotiate their family status However women use these new resources not necessarily to promote their own individual liberation but rather to strengthen their contribution as wives and especially as mothers Thus this new modernity provides a space for the re inscribing of traditional roles even as it may work to give women new found power within their families How and why this process occurs is related to the dual inequalities these women face as rural migrants and as women

Being Born Alison Stone,2019-09-26 All human beings are born and all human beings die In these two ways we are finite our lives begin and our lives come to an end Historically philosophers have concentrated attention on our mortality and comparatively little has been said about being born and how it shapes our existence Alison Stone sets out to overcome this oversight by providing a systematic philosophical account of how being born shapes our condition as human beings Drawing on both feminist philosophy and existentialist concerns about the structure of meaningful human existence Stone offers an original perspective on human existence She explores how human existence is shaped by the way that we are born Taking natality into account transforms our view of human existence and illuminates how many of its aspects are connected with our birth These aspects include dependency the relationality of the self vulnerability reception and inheritance of culture and history embeddedness in social power situatedness and radical contingency Considering natality also sheds new light on anxiety mortality and the temporality of human life This book therefore bears on death and the meaning of life as well as many debates in feminist and continental philosophy

New Waves In Political Philosophy Boudewijn de Bruin,C. Zurn,2008-12-19 Comprising essays by eleven up and coming scholars from across the globe this collection of essays provides an unparalleled snapshot of new work in political philosophy using such diverse methodologies as critical theory and social choice theory historical analysis and conceptual analysis

Peacebuilding Paradigms Henry F. Carey,2020-12-17 Peacebuilding Paradigms focuses on how seven paradigms from the Comparative Politics International Relations and Policy Analysis subfields Realism Liberalism Constructivism Cosmopolitanism Critical Theories Locality and Policy analyze peacebuilding The contributors explore the arguments of each paradigm and then compare and contrast them This book suggests that a hybrid approach that incorporates useful insights from each of these paradigms best explains how and why peacebuilding projects and policies succeed in some cases fail in others and provide lessons learned Rather than merely using a theoretical approach the authors use case studies to demonstrate why a focus on just one paradigm alone as an explanatory model is insufficient This collection directly at how peacebuilding theory affects peacebuilding policies and provides recommendations for best practices for future peacebuilding missions
