Power Of One Another Developing Christian Relationships:

The Power of One Another Bob Russell, 2003-09 Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton

Allen, Christine Lawton, Cory L. Seibel, 2023-06-13 In a revised and updated edition this comprehensive up to date text offers a framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation. It provides the theoretical foundation of intergenerationality then gives concrete practical guidance on how worship, learning, community and service can all be achieved intergenerationally.

Development Beyond the Secular Catherine Loy, 2017-09-30 The intersection of religion and development has for some decades been considered contentious with scholars of both disciplines inhibited by the constraints of either the religious or the secular paradigm they primarily inhabit. Development Beyond the Secular aims to provide a new resource for those interested in the study of religions and development, primarily postgraduate and academic, and for those development practitioners wishing to contextualize their discipline within a religious frame. Using the work of Christian Aid as its primary lens, this book examines and critiques the theological underpinnings of development work and questions how Christian values are manifest through day to day work in the world of poverty eradication.

The Four Cs for Building Healthy Relationships J. A. McGruder, PhD, 2014-04-02 Every relationship, romantic or platonic, directly needs critical keys for its success. Whether the relationship is between friends, spouses, parents and children, this author has identified four critical elements based upon a Christian perspective needed for a relationship to thrive and positively flourish. All connections and associations must be rooted in strong foundational premises that will serve as building blocks for positive growth. This book will share with you the four Cs for building healthy relationships. As each individual incorporates Christ, communication, commitment and compromise, these tenets properly used can be the catalyst for positive growth in any relationship you may have.

Building a Relationship with God and with Others John Onu Odihi, 2012-07-24 In a world that seems to be turning away from God, author John Onu Odihi writes from his heart about the Christian life and its challenges in the modern era. Even while our culture emphasizes independence and moral relativism, Odihi is unafraid to remind us that our victory can come only through loving and trusting God and living in obedience to him. Building a Relationship with God and with Others helps us do just that with essays on such topics as gratitude, patience and the mystery of God's love. But the essays go beyond the theoretical to the real dynamics in our relationship, not only with God but also with each other. Reflections on how to live out our Christian faith, address forgiveness, encouragement, the value of confession and ways to cope with fear. You'll even find an essay on the difficult challenge of how to lovingly confront someone who is in the wrong. Each section is followed by suggested biblical passages that you can return to again and again for support and reference. Throughout this book is an emphasis on the joy and fulfilment that is ours when we learn to truly love not only our neighbours but our enemies. Jesus' ultimate message as we work to bring his kingdom to this earth. Whether you're a new Christian or have been one for many years, you'll welcome this chance to learn more and to deepen your understanding of what it means to walk with God.

Building Mennonite Belonging Hyung Jin (Pablo) Kim Sun, 2025-02-18 Hyung Jin Kim Sun is a Mennonite He was born in Paraguay and raised by a Korean immigrant family before attending an evangelical seminary in the United States There he joined a Mennonite church though he often returned from gatherings feeling uneasy Most Mennonites he met were white with European heritage and their faith community was often their ethnic community as well As a Korean Paraguayan Kim Sun felt that he would never be Mennonite enough This crisis of religious identity prompted him to work towards an intercultural Mennonite church where all people could experience full belonging Building Mennonite Belonging explores the interplay between ethnicity culture race and faith in Canada and other multicultural societies Using three Mennonite theologies messianic community missional church and shalom church Kim Sun navigates the intersection of identity and belief to broaden the vision of Mennonite peoplehood These theologies show that Mennonites aspire to engage with the world dialogue with those from diverse backgrounds seek peace and strive for reconciliation The materials to build an intercultural church can be found within existing Mennonite teachings and traditions Though centred on Mennonites Kim Sun's insights resonate with any faith community grappling with ethnocultural and racial diversity Envisioning new possibilities for faith communities in the twenty first century Building Mennonite Belonging advocates for a church that reflects and responds to the diverse society it inhabits Kim Sun's work is not only a call to action but a guide to fostering a more inclusive church and society

Building Healthy Relationships Emmanuel Atoe, 2023-02-17 Relationships are what life is made of we form them by what we do how we do it and what we represent When God first made humanity He formed relationships and created a good atmosphere for Adam and Eve to assist one another but unfortunately because of human sin this became difficult Relationships come in many different forms however this book focuses on promoting healthy couple relationships When it comes to relationships everyone has different perceptions and they also react differently when facing challenges Differences in lifestyle and exposure and even Christian homes can create relationship issues Healthy relationships are fostered by properly addressing problems and conflicts in the proper manner God's principle is that people should respond to their differences in a Biblical way and use their disagreements to promote growth and development The primary factor is for the couple to cohabitate in love

A Theology of International Development Thia Cooper, 2020-02-05 Religion and development have been intertwined since development's beginnings yet faith based aid and development agencies consistently fail to consider how their theology and practice intersect This book offers a Christian theology of development with practical solutions to bridge the gap and return to truly faith based policies and practices Development aims to raise the living standard of the world's poor mainly through small scale projects that increase economic growth A theology of liberation provided a critique to development practice but a specific theology of development is still lacking and many faith based aid agencies have failed to adapt their practice In applying theological thinking to development the author argues that aid agencies need to address the entrenchment of unequal power relations and embrace a holistic notion of development defined by the needs of those most marginalized instead of by a focus on economic growth Development organisations need to consider the distinction between charity and justice and to empower people in the Global South paying particular attention to the intersections of race class sexuality religion and the environment Overall this book is a powerful call to upend development practice as it currently exists and to return faith based organizations to following Christian practices It will be an important read for religion and development researchers practitioners and students Building
