Power Of Planning Spaces Of Control And Transformation:

The Power of Planning ,2001 Cosmopolis II Leonie Sandercock,Peter Lyssiotis,2003-12-01 The 21st century will be the century of multicultural cities of the struggle for equality and diversity and the struggle against fundamentalism Cosmopolis II presents a truly global tour of contemporary cities from Birmingham to Rotterdam Frankfurt to Berlin Sydney to Vancouver and Chicago to East St Louis Passionately written and superbly illustrated with a range of specially commissioned images Cosmopolis II is a visionary book of our urban future Edges of Care Noam Leshem,2025-01-16 A firsthand look at the lives of those who reside in no man s land the violence they endure and their immense resilience No man s land invokes stretches of barren landscape twisted barbed wire desolation and the devastation of war But this is not always the reality According to Noam Leshem in Edges of Care the term also reveals radical abandonment by the state From the Northern Sahara to the Amazon rainforests people around the world find themselves in places that have been stripped of sovereign care Leshem is committed to defining these spaces and providing a more intimate understanding of this urgent political reality Based on nearly a decade of research in some of the world s most challenging conflict zones Edges of Care offers a profound account of abandoned lives and lands and how they endure and sometimes thrive once left to fend for themselves Leshem interrogates no man s land as a site of radical uncaring abandoned by a sovereign power in a relinquishment of responsibility for the space or anyone inside it To understand the ramifications of such uncaring Leshem takes readers through a diverse series of abandoned places including areas in Palestine Syria Colombia Sudan and Cyprus He shows that no man s land is not empty of life but almost always inhabited and in fact often generative of new modes of being Beautifully written and evocative Edges of Care reveals the unexamined complexities and political dynamics hidden within and around places governed by callous indifference Vortex Cities to Sustainable Cities Phil McManus,2005 This book examines how Australian cities are becoming unsustainable and suggests possibilities for future actions that move us towards sustainability Chapters on population and demography air quality water quality water availability transport and biodiversity include many new ideas to make our cities more sustainable Private Communities and Urban Governance Amnon Lehari,2016-07-01 This book offers an interdisciplinary and comparative study of the complex interplay between private versus public forms of organization and governance in urban residential developments Bringing together top experts from numerous disciplines including law economics geography political science sociology and planning this book identifies the current trends in constructing the physical economic and social infrastructure of residential communities across the world It challenges much of the conventional wisdom about the division of labor between market driven private action and public policy in regulating residential developments and the urban space and offers a new research agenda for dealing with the future of cities in the twenty first century It represents a unique ongoing academic dialogue between the members of an exceptional group of scholars underscoring the essentially of an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to the study of private communities and urban governance As such the book will appeal to a broad audience consisting of policy makers practitioners scholars and students across the world especially in developing countries and transitional and emerging economies

Urbanization and Production of Space Chao Ye, Liang Zhuang, 2023-05-18 This book studies China's urbanization with the theory of production of space The authors redefine the production of space and build a new theoretical framework for understanding the evolving relations between urbanization and spatial production Since the reform and opening up especially in the last twenty years the logic of spatial production has dominated China's urbanization The authors choose the most representative cases such as the Yangtze River Delta Urban Agglomeration Jiangsu Province National High tech Industrial Development Zone New Urban District State Level New Area University Town and some villages to conduct a series of empirical studies on production of space at the macro meso and micro scales Through an in depth analysis of the interaction between social spaces and urbanization influenced by power capital and class the book reveals that the essence of China's urbanization is dominated by the logic of spatial production The authors finally propose that an important shift toward humanism should be made in the future development of China's new type urbanization emphasizing more even and adequate development between different regions and between urban and rural areas which also provides new ideas for the theory and practice of urbanization worldwide This book can be read and referenced by researchers in the fields of urban and regional studies geography sociology urban and rural planning management etc It can also be used as a teaching reference book for teachers researchers and students of scientific research institutions in related fields Another Bloody Century Colin S. Gray, 2012-02-23 How the wars of the near future will be fought and who will win them Many nations peoples and special interest groups believe that violence will advance their cause Warfare has changed greatly since the Second World War it continued to change during the late 20th century and this process is still accelerating Political technological social and religious forces are shaping the future of warfare but most western armed forces have yet to evolve significantly from the cold war era when they trained to resist a conventional invasion by the Warsaw Pact America is now the only superpower but its dominance is threatened by internal and external factors The world's most hi tech weaponry seems helpless in the face of determined guerrilla fighters not afraid to die for their beliefs Professor Colin Gray has advised governments on both sides of the Atlantic and in ANOTHER BLOODY CENTURY he reveals what sort of conflicts will affect our world in the years to come

Public Space and the Challenges of Urban Transformation in Europe Ali Madanipour, Sabine Knierbein, Aglaée Degros, 2013-11-20 European cities are changing rapidly in part due to the process of de industrialization European integration and economic globalization Within those cities public spaces are the meeting place of politics and culture social and individual territories instrumental and expressive concerns Public Space and the Challenges of Urban Transformation in Europe investigates how European city authorities understand and deal with their public spaces how this interacts with market forces social norms and cultural expectations whether and how this relates to the needs and experiences of their citizens exploring new strategies and innovative practices for strengthening public spaces and urban culture These questions are explored by looking at 13 case studies from across Europe written by active scholars in the area of public space and organized in three parts strategies plans and policies multiple roles of public space and everyday life in the city This book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in the design and development of public space The European case studies provide interesting examples and comparisons of how cities deal with their public space and issues of space and society

Planning and Citizenship Luigi Mazza, 2015-09-25 Planning is undergoing a period of profound change and risks losing meaning and authority by becoming merely a tool for financial speculation and generating capital Planning and Citizenship seeks to rediscover planning's technical and theoretical roots by reconstructing the memory of planning through the lens of the changing relationship between planning and citizenship Tracing the historical relationship between planning and citizenship through a single thread Luigi Mazza employs three ancient models those of Hippodamus Romulus and Ancient China to understand the foundations of spatial governance and citizenship Paying particular attention to classic case studies of American cities this book moves through the development of central planning theories by key thinkers like Geddes Cerd Howard Abercrombie and Lefebvre Analysing the role of government in promoting social citizenship and symbolic values through planning Mazza takes into account the changing role of government in planning including concepts of neoliberalism and the minimal State Providing critical debate over the current role of spatial governance in planning and citizenship Planning and Citizenship offers a unique historical analysis of a crucial topic in planning
