Masks and Masking Gary Edson, 2015-07-11 For at least 20 000 years masking has been a mark of cultural evolution and an indication of magical religious sophistication in society This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the mask as a powerful cultural phenomenon a means by which human groupings attempted to communicate their dignity and sense of purpose as well as establish a continuum between the natural and supernatural worlds It addresses the distinctive environments within which masks flourished and analyzes the mask as a manifestation of art ethnology and anthropology

The Power of Symbols N. Ross Crumrine, Marjorie M. Halpin, 1983 This collection of papers presented at the 42nd International Congress of Americanists considers the interplay between the mask the maskbearer and the audience The studies concentrate on the idea of masking as a transformational ritual in which the human actor is transformed into a being of another order The authors use examples from various cultures and in their analyses argue for particular sets of relationships as being crucial to the understanding of the mask

The Performance of Self Susan Crane, 2012-10-09 Medieval courtiers defined themselves in ceremonies and rituals Tournaments Maying interludes charivaris and masking invited the English and French nobility to assert their identities in gesture and costume as well as in speech These events presumed that performance makes a self in contrast to the modern belief that identity precedes social performance and indeed that performance falsifies the true inner self Susan Crane resists the longstanding convictions that medieval rituals were trivial affairs and that personal identity remained unarticulated until a later period Focusing on England and France during the Hundred Years War Crane draws on wardrobe accounts manuscript illuminations chronicles archaeological evidence and literature to recover the material as well as the verbal constructions of identity She seeks intersections between theories of practice and performance that explain how appearances and language connect when courtiers dress as wild men to interrupt a wedding feast when knights choose crests and badges to supplement their coats of arms and when Joan of Arc cross dresses for the court of inquisition after her capture

Morrison,2012-02-01 Arguing that Native Americans religious life and history have been misinterpreted author Kenneth M Morrison reconstructs the Eastern Algonkians world views and demonstrates the indigenous modes of rationality that shaped not only their encounter with the French but also their self directed process of religious change In reassessing controversial anthropological historical and ethnohistorical scholarship Morrison develops interpretive strategies that are more responsive to the religious world views of the Eastern Algonkian peoples He concludes that the Eastern Algonkians did not convert to Catholicism but rather applied traditional knowledge and values to achieve a pragmatic and critical sense of Christianity and to preserve and extend kinship solidarity into the future The result was a remarkable intersection of Eastern Algonkian and missionary cosmologies

Waselkov, 2024-04-02 Although scholars have long recognized the mythic status of bears in indigenous North American societies of the past this is the first volume to synthesize the vast amount of archaeological and historical research on the topic Bears charts the special relationship between the American black bear and humans in eastern Native American cultures across thousands of years People of Kituwah John D. Loftin, Benjamin E. Frey, 2024-04-30 According to Cherokee tradition Kituwah is located at the center of the world and is home to the most sacred and oldest of all beloved or mother towns Just by entering Kituwah or indeed any village site Cherokees reexperience the creation of the world when the water beetle first surfaced with a piece of mud that later became the island on which they lived People of Kituwah is a comprehensive account of the spiritual worldview and lifeways of the Eastern Cherokee people from that beginning to today Building on vast primary and secondary materials native and non native John D Loftin and Benjamin E Frey show how Cherokee religious life evolved both before and after the calamitous coming of colonialism This book offers an in depth understanding of Cherokee culture and society Page 4 of cover Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack Santino, 2025-03-14 Why do we celebrate Halloween No one gets the day off and unlike all other major holidays it has no religious or governmental affiliation A survivor of our pre Christian agrarian roots it has become one of the most popular and widely celebrated festivals on the contemporary American calendar Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds However the essays in this volume also suggest that there is something ironic and unsettling about the immense popularity of a holiday whose main images are of death evil and the grotesque Halloween and other Festivals of Death and Life is a unique contribution that questions our concepts of religiosity and spirituality while contributing to our understanding of Halloween as a rich and diverse reflection of our society s past present and future identity Defacement Michael T.
