Power Rights And Poverty Concepts And Connections:

Power, Rights and Poverty Ruth Alsop, 2005-01-01 This publication contains a number of essays and supplementary materials based on a two day working meeting held in Washington D C in March 2004 and organised jointly by the World Bank and the UK Department for International Development to consider the relationships between power rights and poverty reduction issues in theory and practice Issues addressed include competing definitions and concepts of power and rights using experiences drawn from different countries ways of helping development practitioners to apply these concepts to their work a summary of the major theoretical conceptualisations of power and a literature review on power and rights

Rights and Legal Empowerment in Eradicating Poverty Dan Banik, 2008-01-01 How best to improve the position of the world's poorest people remains one of the major issues facing the human species This book investigates the role that legal empowerment and rights including human rights can play in tackling poverty and enabling poor people in developing countries to take action to improve their positions

Beyond Peacebuilding Roberta Holanda Maschietto, 2016-10-12 This book uses the concept of empowerment as a means to understand peacebuilding in Mozambique In order to do this it first traces the different discourses on empowerment and proposes an analytical framework based on multiple levels of analysis and a dialectical view of power Second it examines how the process of state formation and later peacebuilding have shaped the spaces for local empowerment to occur in Mozambique Finally it offers a detailed analysis of a national policy called the District Development Fund the 7 million designed in the context of decentralization and aimed at reducing poverty in this country This case study helps reflecting on the long term and derivative effects of peace both in institutional terms as well as at the level of the everyday The holistic approach to empowerment offered in this book and its application in the case of Mozambique will be of interest to both academics as well as practitioners of peacebuilding and development

Education, Learning and the Transformation of Development Amy Skinner, Matt Baillie Smith, Eleanor Brown, Tobias Troll, 2016-07-15 Whilst education has been widely recognised as a key tool for development this has tended to be limited to the incremental changes that education can bring about within a given development paradigm as opposed to its role in challenging dominant conceptions and practices of development and creating alternatives Through a collection of insightful and provocative chapters this book will examine the role of learning in shaping new discourses and practices of development By drawing on contributions from activists researchers education and development practitioners from around the world this book situates learning within the wider political and cultural economies of development It critically explores if and how learning can shape processes of societal transformation and consequently a new language and practice of development This includes offering critical accounts of popular informal and non formal learning processes as well as the contribution of indigenous knowledges in providing spaces for the co production of knowledge thinking and action on development and in terms of shaping the ways in which citizens engage with and create new understandings of development itself This book makes an important and original contribution by reframing educational practices and processes in relation to broader global struggles for justice voice and development in a rapidly changing development landscape

Contemporary Global Perspectives on Gender Economics Moore, Susanne, 2015-07-24 The rise of women in the workforce has led to many campaigns for wage equality and the impartial treatment of both sexes as they pursue careers previously designated as either a man's or a woman's job The impact of these campaigns has been felt but a sense of gender stereotyping still affects not only the social and cultural well being of the modern organization but the drive for innovation and economic success as well Contemporary Global Perspectives on Gender Economics challenges current economic theory targeting the way gender is often used for economic gain or increased market share Experts realize that company growth can no longer be achieved by taking a conventional approach but few follow through with introducing new frameworks that change the way diversity is treated By acknowledging that issues like childcare and the wage gap are not only a woman's challenge this book speaks to legislators and policymakers economic developers corporate practitioners educational faculties and students of all disciplines who are looking to change the way gender is viewed in the workforce This essential reference source features chapters that combine the concepts of gender theory sociology and economics and cover topics including economic equality gender bias the history of gender economics industrial creativity and the impact of social connectedness on life satisfaction

Measuring and Accounting for Community Capabilities in Kordofan, Sudan Measuring and Accounting for Community Capabilities in Kordofan, Sudan, Neoliberalism, Development, and Aid Volunteering Nichole Georgeou, 2012 This work comes at an important time of global crisis and change where the world is ravaged by natural disasters wars and poverty This has increased the pressure on governments and other organisations such as volunteer sending agencies which provide aid and we have seen an upward trend in the number of people volunteering abroad Within this volatile environment neoliberal ideology on how aid should be provided and implemented has become embedded in how policy is formulated A market driven model of aid provision has become the norm and governments are increasingly focused on international development volunteering as a form of soft diplomacy This is the first qualitative empirical study of international development volunteering The book contributes theoretical knowledge on International Volunteering Sending Agencies IVSAs and examines practitioner experience in development volunteering in the context of emerging policy developments Critical analysis highlights the impact of global and social changes and provides a nuanced understanding of development volunteer motivation and the relationship between volunteers and sending agencies The book also puts forward an agenda and model for volunteer sending that addresses the complexities and diversity of the volunteer experience

Handbook of Institutional Approaches to International Business Geoffrey Wood, Mehmet Demirbag, 2012-01-01 The latest generation of research in comparative institutional analysis of business is impressively captured in this volume readers find depth in theory development breadth in application to practice and policy and insight on the big research issues ahead Both generalist and specialist readers will find much of value here Bruce Evan Kaufman Georgia State University US This inspiring Handbook brings together alternative perspectives from a range of disciplines to shed light on the nature of institutions and their relationship to firm level practices and outcomes across a wide range of national settings Expertly written by leading scholars from a range of different starting points this compendium presents a synthesis of recent work relating to institutionally informed accounts from transitional and emerging markets as well as from mature economies It specifically focuses on the linkage between institutions and what goes on inside firms and the relationship between setting strategic choice and systemic outcomes The Handbook is explicitly multi disciplinary encompassing perspectives from a range of the functional areas of management studies It will prove invaluable for postgraduate students and faculty in international business and the wider research community in the areas of international business corporate governance socio economics and comparative HRM

The New Enclosures: Critical Perspectives on Corporate Land Deals Ben White, Saturnino Borrás Jr., Ruth Hall, Ian Scoones, Wendy Welford, 2013-09-13 This collection explores the complex dynamics of corporate land deals from a broad agrarian political economy perspective with a special focus on the implications for property and labour regimes labour processes and structures of accumulation This involves looking at ways in which existing patterns of rural social differentiation in terms of class gender ethnicity and generation are being shaped by changes in land use and property relations as well as by the re organization of production and exchange as rural communities and resources are incorporated into global commodity chains It goes further than the descriptive what and who questions in order to understand the how and why of these patterns It is empirically solid and theoretically sophisticated making it a robust and boundary changing work Contributors come from various scholarly disciplines Covering nearly all regions of the world the collection will be of interest to researchers from various disciplines policymakers and activists This book was originally published as a Special Issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies

Public Health Pranee Liamputtong, 2016-05-05 This book provides students with a comprehensive overview of Australian and international public health issues and contexts It explores recent changes in the local public health field as well as complex global public health issues and engages with the political and cultural impacts these have on public health systems The book aims to deepen students understanding of the determinants of health historical and theoretical perspectives of public health and current health research Through consideration of new perspectives it introduces the latest public health discourses and explores issues of health promotion and health inequalities that inform much of the understanding of public health today Drawing on more than 25 years experience Pranee Liamputtong leads a stellar author team to present this essential resource Each chapter includes learning objectives key words tutorial exercises and further reading as well as illustrative and informative case studies to aid students understanding of key concepts

Global Empowerment of Women Carolyn M. Elliott, 2007-12-12 The empowerment of women is a broadly endorsed strategy for solving a host of difficult problems from child poverty to gender violence to international development The seventeen international scholars in this multi disciplinary volume offer thoughtful critiques of the notion of empowerment based on their studies in twenty countries in all regions of the world The comparative introduction places concepts of empowerment in the context of models of the market and of community showing how contradictions in these models as they are enacted on the ground provide both spaces and constraints for women The chapters consider opportunities for women in the context of globalization resurgent nationalism and politicized religion cultures of masculinity and the HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa They show how initiatives at national or global levels are transformed by local cultures and power structures and demonstrate the fruitfulness of tensions between universal values of human rights and contextualized understandings This landmark multi disciplinary collection of original studies by distinguished international feminist scholars will be an essential addition to the fields of Political Science Women s Studies Economics Sociology International Development and Environmental Studies

Handbook on Participatory Action Research and Community Development Stoecker , Randy,Falcón, Adrienne,2022-04-08 This Handbook is a critical resource for carefully considering the possibilities and challenges of strategically integrating participatory action research PAR and community development CD Utilizing practical examples from diverse contexts across five continents it looks at how communities are empowering themselves and bringing about systemic change

Communicative Sustainability Thomas Bearth,Rose Marie Beck,Reinald Döbel,2014 The failure to understand communicative practices and preferences of local communities is a frequent reason why development fails to produce expected results Drawing on field research from settings in Indonesia Uganda Namibia and Ivory Coast this book addresses local viewpoints and gender concepts the procedures of deliberation negotiation and appropriation and the clashes of underlying language ideologies and language based social and conceptual projections It is argued that communicative factors are not reducible to economic ones but need independent attention in development planning and are ultimately decisive for outcomes The book also includes a CD with video sampling Series Swiss Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 4

Democracy in the Woods Prakash Kashwan,2017 Democracy in the Woods examines the trajectories of forest and land rights in India Tanzania and Mexico to explain how societies negotiate the tensions between environmental protection and social justice It shows that the social consequences of environmental protection depend almost entirely on political intermediation of competing claims to environmental resources

The Search for Empowerment Anthony Bebbington,2006 Exploration of the nature of bureaucracy and bureaucratic change Comprehensive examination of debates about social capital within the World Bank Contributors include both long time Bank insiders as well as external analysts and observers of the Bank s development policies The contributors to this collection examine the vast bureaucracy of the World Bank and explore the possibilities of internally generated change The book focuses on the debates within the Bank about the efficacy of social capital concepts for the encouragement of more participatory and empowering forms of development These debates reach to the heart of the bank and its mission Indeed the debate over social capital is less an argument about definitions and more a struggle between competing paradigms of development The Search for Empowerment is simultaneously a fascinating account of the concept of social capital a powerful ethnography of a huge development organization and a profoundly insightful exploration into the nature of bureaucracy and organizational change Other contributors Julie Van Domelen Michael Edwards Jonathan Fox John Gershman Jeffrey Hammer David Lewis Deepa Narayan Martien Van Nieuwkoop Lant Pritchett M Shameen Siddiqi and Jorge Uquillas

The Social and Political Potential of Cash Transfers Maxine Molyneux, 2018-10-11 Cash Transfers for all their notable successes have been criticised for their limited ability to move poor households to provide sustainable routes out of poverty This book draws on original qualitative research by leading scholars and development policy experts from a range of disciplines to examine whether cash transfers can have transformative spillover effects on individuals households and communities Case studies from Africa the Middle East and Latin America show that while there are limits to the sustainability of the transformations brought about by Cash Transfers they can bring about changes affecting the social and political integration of very poor households With chapters on Psycho Social Wellbeing Social Accountability and Social Capital this comprehensive volume casts new light on the ongoing debates over the significance of the Cash Transfer revolution This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Development Studies
