Power Surge Six Marks Of Discipleship For A Changing Church:

Power Surge Michael W. Foss, 2000-07-01 A powerful plan to transform church members into impassioned disciples Drawing on his experience at Prince of Peace Foss makes the case for transforming congregations from a membership model to a discipleship model of church affiliation The book begins with a careful analysis of recent patterns in church membership demographics which argue for this paradigm shift Subsequent chapters detail the unique leadership and organizational needs of a discipleship model explore the building and maintaining of fundamental trust in God and in His people as the cornerstone of the model and provide practical helps for assessing the present and strategies for moving into the future Addressed to rostered and non rostered professional and non professional church leaders interested in transforming their churches into centers for discipleship and mission Power Surge makes the case for a dynamic functional model of church affiliation that moves away from a membership model centered on prerogatives of membership to a discipleship model centered on the notion of Christian vocation calling It proposes a grace centered rather than legalistic model of discipleship and builds a bridge through transferable principles between congregational mission mindedness and the individual Christian s life of faith This book utilizes assessment tools and practical helps so that congregations can make the transition between membership and discipleship paradigms as it draws on the experience of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church as a case study illustrating the principles of a discipleship model of church affiliation

Law & Gospel in Action Mark C Mattes, Mark C. Mattes, John T. Pless, 2019-04-09 Mark Mattes hope is not only to secure believers consciences in Christ but also to reclaim theological and social turf which mainline Protestants have too quickly ceded to various secular agendas The collected essays engage the reality of believers death and resurrection in Christ and how that bears upon the life of faith while also attending to a wide range of relevant theological topics such as scriptural authority apologetics a critique of contemporary mainline Protestant and Evangelical Catholic ethics a critique of Lutheran Reformed ecumenism and the church s mission and outreach The collection concludes with several sermons based on Old Testament lessons seeking to show how the theology embedded in the essays can be used for proclamation

Changing the Conversation Anthony B. Robinson, 2008-08-20 A sequel to his best selling Transforming Congregational Culture 2003 Changing the Conversation offers Anthony Robinson s latest work and thinking on congregational renewal and leadership Robinson here invites church leaders and members into ten crucial conversations that will change their congregation s culture and help them respond with greater vitality effectiveness and faithfulness to our postmodern culture and its challenges

Real Faith for Real Life Michael W. Foss, 2004-07-22 For Christians seeking to apply their faith to everyday life Real Faith for Real Life invites readers to answer the call of discipleship and provides guidance and examples of how to do so successfully Michael Foss author of Power Surge encourages readers to rely on six time tested marks of discipleships that encourage the practice of faith in everyday life Daily prayer Bible reading Weekly worship Christian service Relationships that encourage spiritual growth Giving in the spirit of generosity Using Bible passages and real life stories Foss illustrates how each mark of discipleship enhances and supports the growth of a person's faith journey This book also includes study questions and journaling suggestions for small group discussion and individual reflection The Living Church, 2000 The Emerging Church Revised & Expanded Bruce Sanguin, 2014-09-29 In this newly revised and expanded edition of The Emerging Church Bruce Sanguin continues his exploration of the characteristics of emerging evolutionary driven congregations that provides updated guidelines and advice to those seeking to effect evolutionary change in their own contexts Leading on Purpose Eric Burtness, Lutheran Voices provides quality accessible books by Lutheran authors that inform, teach, inspire and renew Grounded in Lutheran theology and practice the books cover a wide range of subjects and themes of interest to members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and the wider Christian community Exploring the Purpose Driven Church phenomenon Eric Burtness provides pastors and church leaders with a Lutheran view of what it means to lead on purpose and integrates the Purpose Driven philosophy into the context of Lutheran congregational life He tells the stories of numerous Lutheran congregations large and small rural and urban that have used this structure and ministry emphasis for health, growth and revitalization

Keeping Members in the Church Albert W. Dock, 2008-06-25 From his pen the Reverend Dr A W Dock has provided us with a comprehensive study of attrition, assimilation and the retention of new members within the church community While this study was primarily confined to his own congregation he has gathered data from pastors of other denominations and traditions in order to give credibility and expose the limits of his findings This book will be helpful to both pastors and lay persons alike who are faced with the never ending reality of attrition, assimilation and retention of new members Reverend Dr Clayton D Furlow Author A Theology of Preaching In the African America Context Philadelphia PA Reverend Dr Albert W Dock has helped us to put the issues surrounding the retention of members on the front burner of ministry as we seek to slow down the revolving door syndrome This book helps both ministers and church leaders understand how better to move new members into the mainstream of church life from membership to discipleship Reverend Dr J Wendell Mapson Pastor Monumental Baptist Church Philadelphia PA Pastor Dock gives the reader strategies which were arrived at through careful gathering of data and through meticulous evaluation and analysis of that data so that the results presented to us are practical, believable and doable Reverend James T Betts Planter Pastor Saint James Community Baptist Church Philadelphia PA The Reverend Albert Wilson Dock has pastored Philadelphia's Berean Baptist Church since 1984 He has pastored previously in Georgia and South Carolina He earned his undergraduate degree magna cum laude from Geneva College Beaver Falls PA Center for Urban Theological Studies Philadelphia PA his Master of Divinity Degree and Doctor of Ministry Degree were earned at Palmer Theological Seminary Wyncott PA Cultivating a People for God Enoch Kwan, 2019-04-09 This is not just another book It is a long but timeless message better described as a theology of Discipleship I wish God had used someone else who is smarter to write this book and it may have come out sooner It took God 25 years for me to capture the bits and pieces while God taught me in time This book will show you God s heart and get you excited about fulfilling His plan You will find the simple way of integrating spirituality and ministry while pleasing God in all areas of your life and ministry The wide Scripture supported fresh philosophy and framework presented in this book will help you feel God s heartbeat It will elevate your perspective and build a stronger motivation for your church to engage with Christ s Great Commission You will discover the God inspired strategy for discipleship in the Commandments for the Great Commission You will discover how we may effectively cultivate and offer daily to God a People God awaits Your congregation will have time to enjoy life and God while fulling the Great Commission and maturing as Christians in God s inspired ways You will be glad to allow this book to jump to the front of your reading list as it may inject transformational elements to your other reading It is possible that the message presented in this book will spark a new movement for God s people Come join me in fellowship through this book and decide for yourself to see if you can be a part of this new and exciting journey The Hyphenateds Phil Snider,2011-12-12 Though the emergent church was once viewed as a fringe movement with little to offer established congregations it is now seen as one of the central driving forces shaping the future of postmodern Christianity in North America As an increasing number of mainline communities wonder how the emergent church influences their own structures and practices this book brings together the perspectives of several of the most prominent Hyphenated Christians i e those with one foot in the emergent conversation and the other foot in the mainline church Presbymergents Anglimergents Luthermergents Methomergents etc With a passion for both mainline traditions and the emergent conversation Hyphenateds offer a vibrant and contagious vision of the ways in which the church might undergo the transformation necessary to faithfully embody the love of Christ in the midst of an ever changing postmodern world The contributors of this book offer wisdom from a variety of contexts and The Hyphenateds reflects the changing dynamics currently taking place in the emergent conversation A Servant's Manual Michael W. Foss, This short volume is a plea for Christians to rethink their point and purpose in light of larger cultural changes and a crisis in leadership Foss s model of moving from issues into conversation and then into compassion is a blueprint for new leadership Beyond Church Walls Dr. Richard Rouse,2016-05-19 Pastoral care has been traditionally understood as pastoral acts administered to individuals or small groups by an ordained or lay religious practitioner As congregations in the twenty first century begin to reclaim the missional nature of church this view must be broadened to include care and concern for the needs of the larger community A missional perspective of pastoral care embraces the notion that all of Gods peoplenot just trained professionalsare called to partner in the healing and redemption of the world In Beyond Church Walls Rick Rouse sets out to articulate precisely what such an approach to pastoral care looks likeand the substantial impact it can have on congregations and communities A skilled teacher and pastor with deep experience in real communities Rouse leads readers through the changing realities of the twenty first century and to new ways for missional churches to succeed in offering pastoral care for the whole community

Thriving Churches Loraine MacKenzie Shepherd, 2021-01-01 THRIVING CHURCHES tells the story of two United Church ministers who travelled across Canada visiting flourishing United Churches to uncover the reasons for their success Loraine MacKenzie Shepherd minister at Westworth United Church in Winnipeg visited urban churches and Tammy Allan minister at Olds Sundre Pastoral Charge Alberta visited rural churches They found these churches shared a number of features that helped them not only survive but also thrive through challenging times Filled with concrete examples from congregations of all sizes this book will inspire Also included is an eight session study guide on spiritual attributes of thriving churches

The Scattering Dwight Lee DuBois, 2015-11-05 Imagine being able to connect everything you do in life with God's dream of shalom Imagine all God's people seeing their family responsibilities work and community involvement as ministry Imagine congregations that equip and empower people for ministry not just in the church but in all they do Imagine leaders and members finding a renewed sense of joy purpose and vitality as they give themselves away for the sake of the Gospel Dwight DuBois not only imagines these life giving outcomes in fresh and powerful ways he shows readers how to create an environment that equips everyday saints to connect their faith with all of life Based on the real life struggles of pastors and members The Scattering lays bare our preoccupation with the health of the institution and offers powerful new language for the church as being both gathered and scattered This language breaks down unhelpful stereotypes and provides readers with hopeful and rewarding ways to interpret who we are and what we do as the church of Jesus Christ Reviving the Congregation

Michael W. Foss, 2014-09-01 Pastoral leadership has always been challenging but clergy and parish leaders today face unprecedented challenges many of which simply didn't exist a generation ago The questions of ministry and leadership in the church today range broadly across the financial and the managerial the spiritual and the interpersonal In such a time a wise mentor who can articulate a way forward for others is an immeasurable help In Reviving the Congregation Michael W Foss best selling author of Power Surge steps forward as that mentor Bringing decades of experience in congregational life and leadership and a winsome style to the work Foss offers a compelling introduction to the new context in which we lead and the personal and congregational strategies that will offer a way forward Reviving the Congregation is rooted in Foss's own experience but it is open to all through questions for reflection space for notes and journaling and an extended bibliography for further reading

Holy Purpose Carolyn Mowchan, A Lutheran look at God's purposes for our lives

Sailboat Church Joan S. Gray, 2014-03-05 Is your church a rowboat church or a sailboat church Rowboat churches depend largely on human effort When church budgets shrink and membership declines rowboat churches frantically row harder against a current often frustrated and disappointed at their efforts Sailboat churches on the other hand take up the oars hoist sails and rely on the Holy Spirit to guide them Arguing that churches should be sailboats Joan S Gray encourages readers to shift concern from the many daily practical concerns of their local church to fresh ideas that can be found using the guidance of the Holy Spirit The book includes forty days of sailing prayers quotes from Scripture brief reflection questions and an extensive bibliography that is arranged by theme Perfect for groups to read together this book will help leaders reframe their church's mission and practice with the Holy Spirit as their guide

Lessons from Laodicea Ross A. Lockhart, 2016-04-08 I'm rich and I don't need a thing bragged the early Christians in the big city of Laodicea The Apostle John however saw their affluence and arrogance through a theological lens He declared them to be bankrupt lukewarm Christians whom God would gladly gargle and spit out Today the mainline church in the West finds itself in a dominant culture of Laodicean affluence where even faith is a commodity to be consumed While the gospel spreads and thrives in the global South and East the Western mainline church looks longingly back at Christendom and forward in fear As Christians living in a North American culture that highly prizes the unholy Trinity of individualism consumerism and secularism we require a new kind of missional leadership to pray attention to what God is doing in the world around us This book names the challenges and promises inherent in partnering with the Holy Spirit in order to offer missional leadership in a culture of affluence It is about both living in Laodicea and leaving it behind We are no longer in a Babylonian captivity but a Laodicean one This work helps chart a course for Christians who long to let go of country club religion and instead belong to a community that helps equip missionary disciples resistant to the dominant culture and resplendent in the love of our triune God

West Coast Mission Ross A. Lockhart, 2024-10-15 Vancouver British Columbia now reports no religion as its leading religious identity putting it in the vanguard of a trend happening across North America What does this mean for the Christian communities that continue to worship work and witness in this mostly secular city West Coast Mission seeks to uncover where Christianity in Vancouver is headed now that it is a minority belief system in the broader culture Drawing on a five year study of fourteen sites including church plants congregations and para church agencies Ross Lockhart describes how Christians in Vancouver are organizing their communities shaping their beliefs and expressing themselves in mission He finds that rather than simply declining Christianity in the city is adapting in response to immigration decolonization pluralism and social crises Christians are focusing on friendship and social connection in a culture that identifies as spiritual not religious on affordable housing as a missional concern on the communal value of environmental stewardship and on sharing the gospel in light of the destructive legacies of colonialism and residential schools West Coast Mission explores the evolving spectrum of religious identity in Vancouver and the significant cultural shifts taking place in how Christian mission and witness are approached in a secular city

Comfortable Christianity Randall Donahue, 2005 Our churches are to reach out in love to all people with the life saving Gospel of Jesus Christ But we have a competitor to our mission it is the American Dream The American Dream is to attain more and more comfort as we go through life finally attaining the most sought after prize retirement We have fast food restaurants drive through car washes computers and other technological advancements that help us achieve this comfort You will be surprised at how the every day comforts that we take for granted have sprouted and perpetuated this attitude on our churches This pursuit of comfort is driving our churches to make decisions based on attaining their own personal comfort rather than sacrificing that comfort for the sake of the Great Commission Comfortable Christianity exposes this attitude and the different ways that it shows itself in our churches Comfortable Christianity gives careful attention to what needs to be done in order to overcome this attitude and turn our churches into Great Commission centers of the Gospel
