Power and Politics in Africa: A Boundary

Generator Takuo Iwata, 2025-01-07 Africa's potential and challenges in the 21st century make it a focal point for global attention. The continent's political landscape is now more diverse with a mix of democracy, authoritarianism, peace, and conflict. Understanding the dynamics of African politics is crucial. This comprehensive book delves into African Politics and International Relations, exploring power through the lenses of politics, geography, sociology, and anthropology. It is based on the author's three decades of fieldwork and research across Africa, Asia, and the West. Ideal for academic scholars, students, diplomats, government officials, journalists, and NGO staff seeking to deepen their understanding of African politics and international relations.

Peacebuilding, Power, and Politics in Africa Devon Curtis, Gwinyayi A. Dzinesa, 2012-09-21 Peacebuilding, Power, and Politics in Africa is a critical reflection on peacebuilding efforts in Africa. The authors expose the tensions and contradictions in different clusters of peacebuilding activities, including peace negotiations, statebuilding, security sector governance, and disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration. Essays also address the institutional framework for peacebuilding in Africa and the ideological underpinnings of key institutions, including the African Union, NEPAD, the African Development Bank, the Pan African Ministers Conference for Public and Civil Service, the UN Peacebuilding Commission, the World Bank, and the International Criminal Court. The volume includes on-the-ground case study chapters on Sudan, the Great Lakes Region of Africa, Sierra Leone, and Liberia, the Niger Delta, Southern Africa, and Somalia, analyzing how peacebuilding operates in particular African contexts. The authors adopt a variety of approaches, but they share a conviction that peacebuilding in Africa is not a script authored solely in Western capitals and in the corridors of the United Nations. Rather, the writers in this volume focus on the interaction between local and global ideas and practices in the reconstitution of authority and livelihoods after conflict. The book systematically showcases the tensions that occur within and between the many actors involved in the peacebuilding industry, as well as their intended beneficiaries. It looks at the multiple ways in which peacebuilding ideas and initiatives are reinforced, questioned, reappropriated, and redesigned by different African actors. A joint project between the Centre for Conflict Resolution in Cape Town, South Africa, and the Centre of African Studies at the University of Cambridge.

Military Power and Politics in Black Africa Simon

Baynham, 2021-05-11 First published in 1986, Military Power and Politics in Black Africa explores many themes that concerned military power and politics in sub-Saharan Africa at the time of publication. Adopting a thematic approach, the book considers the nature of both intervention and disengagement and looks at the relationship between civilian and military institutions. The final chapters put forward arguments for the importance of foreign intervention in the politics and civil military relations of African states.

Power, Politics, and the African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 Power, Politics, and the African Condition is the third volume of The Collected Essays of Ali A. Mazrui, which will provide readers with a broad spectrum of Ali A Mazrui's scholarly writings. The third volume is centered on issues of power and politics at the nexus of Africa's domestic affairs and its international concepts about the disequilibrium of power in the international system and the problems that Africa has confronted globally because of it. Mazrui focuses the reader's attention on the impact that the colonial legacy and African tradition had on state formation, leadership, Africa's political economy, violence and conflict resolution while presenting some of his most interesting and even controversial ideas for building Pax Africana. Spanning nearly forty years, Mazrui's essays are classic and contemporary statements on the diagnosis and treatment of what he called The African Condition.

Postcolonial Legality: Law, Power and Politics in Zambia Jeremy Gould, 2023-03-24. This book interrogates the ideology and practices of liberal constitutionalism in the Zambian postcolony. The analysis focuses on the residual political and governmental effects of an imperial form of power embodied in the person of the republican president termed here prerogativism. Through systematic long-term ethnographic engagement with Zambian constitutionalist activists, lawyers, judges and civic leaders, the study examines how prerogativism has shaped the postcolonial political landscape and limited the possibilities of constitutional liberalism. This is revealed in the ways that repeated efforts to reform the constitution have sidelined popular participation and thus failed to address the deep divide between a small elite stratum from which the constitutional activists are drawn and the marginalized masses of the population. Along the way, the study documents the intimate interpenetration of political and legal action and examines how prerogativism delimits the political engagements of elite actors. Special attention is given to the reluctance of legal activists to engage with popular politics and to the conservative ethos that undermines efforts to pursue a jurisprudence of transformational constitutionalism in the findings of the Constitutional Court. The work contributes to the rising interest in applying socio-legal analysis to the statutory domain in postcolonial jurisdictions. It offers a pioneering attempt to deconstruct the amorphous and ambivalent assemblage of ideas and practices related to constitutionalism through detailed ethnographic interrogation. It will appeal to scholars, students and practitioners with an interest in theorizing challenges to political liberalism in postcolonial contexts as well as in rethinking the methodological toolbox of socio-legal analysis.

Power and Politics in Africa, 1992. States and Power in Africa Jeffrey Herbst, 2014-12-21. Theories of international relations assumed to be universally applicable have failed to explain the creation of states in Africa. There, the interaction of power and space is dramatically different from what occurred in Europe. In States and Power in Africa, Jeffrey Herbst places the African state building process in a truly comparative perspective. Herbst's bold contention that the conditions now facing African state builders existed long before European penetration of the continent is sure to provoke controversy for it runs counter to the prevailing assumption that colonialism changed everything. This revised edition includes a new preface in which the author links the enormous changes that have taken place in Africa over the past fifteen years to long-term state consolidation. The final chapter on policy prescriptions has also been revised to reflect the evolution of African and international responses to state failure. Africa

Trappings of Power Z. Allan Ntata, 2012 Why is it that by his death having solved the country's hunger problems and set an example for Africa on how to deal with foreign donors and international aid organisations such as the IMF and the World Bank Mutharika was regarded as a pariah both in Malawi and internationally Mutharika had overseen the expansion of the transport infrastructure presided as Chairman of the African Union and helped Malawi achieve rapid GDP growth How is it that he also left Malawi with serious economic problems particularly relating to nonexistent foreign exchange reserves and the inability of the country to import fuel Why is it that that when he died he had become the most hated man in Malawi at least aside from his staunch party followers This book analyses the presidency of Bingu wa Mutharika from the inside his love hate relationship with foreign donors and international aid agencies and his political successes and failures to show how power and political success in Africa is a trap that ensnares African leaders to easily forget their mission to serve the people The role of patronage and culture and the tendency of advisors in contributing to their leaders feelings of infallibility is also highlighted The book uncovers lessons on the inner dynamics of power and politics in Africa that will be enlightening to all interested in African politics specifically and third world political development in general

Power Politics in Africa Olusola Ogunnubi, Samuel Oyewole, 2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest perpetual distrust and insecurity struggles for power and hegemony in power politics and the spirit of pan African solidarity brotherhood consensus cooperation and integration It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in Africa with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations particularly regarding power politics which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non Western societies
