LeRon Shults, Andrea Hollingsworth, 2008-08-20 This introductory text by F LeRon Shults and Andrea Hollingsworth outlines the major movements and figures in the historical unfolding of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with special attention on the role of philosophical interpretation and spiritual transformation showing how historical developments have shaped contemporary trends in pneumatology

Catholicism and the Spirit Stephen Ebo Annan, 2018-02-22 The resurgence of Pentecostal charismatic Christianity epitomized in the global South has thrown Catholicism back on itself and has challenged it to reassess its ecclesial self understanding The Catholic Church has been accused of having forgotten the Spirit Despite the progress made by the Catholic Church to redress this so called pneumatological deficit it nonetheless remains the case that Roman Catholicism and charismatic Christianity seems to be mutually exclusive Why and how does the Roman Catholic Church today still lack a fully developed pneumatological charismatic ecclesiology Catholicism and the Spirit sets out to address such questions and argues that the Church must overcome its ultraconservatism and re envision a robust Spirit led ecclesiology to meet the demands of ecclesial renewal Practical Sacramental Theology Bruce T. Morrill, 2021-09-09 What motivates practice of the liturgy and sacramental rites of the church Does the worship of God begin and end within each ritual enactment or does the truth and value of sacramental celebration reside in the broader context of Christian life in church and society For more than two decades prominent Jesuit sacramental liturgical theologian Bruce Morrill has explored the promise and problems inherent in the Second Vatican Council's call to renew liturgy's basic purpose namely the glorification of God and the sanctification of people Morrill's fundamental argument is that this ancient Christian principle is of a piece that divine glory and human holiness are so to speak two sides of a single coin The value of liturgy and sacraments is depleted if not lost unless they function within a holistic practice of faith that seeks the upbuilding of ethical lives personal and social With numerous real life examples plus references to current sociological studies the chapters address both modern challenges to and biblical and traditional resources for the celebration of sacramental rites today Holy Spirit, The Richard Lennan, Nancy Pineda-Madrid, 2017 Reflects on the Holy Spirit in relation to the life of faith the chapters consider how we become aware of the Holy Spirit's presence review how the tradition of faith has interpreted the movement of the Holy Spirit and detail what it means to discern and embrace the gift of the Holy Spirit Stepping Stones To Other Religions: A Christian Theology of Inter-religious Dialogue Dermot A. Lane, Trinitarian Christology Michael LaVelle Cook, 2010 A trinitarian and ecumenical approach to the current emphasis on and renewal of Spirit Christology Divine Worship and Human Healing Bruce T.

Morrill,2013-03-15 Would many believers consider a wake or funeral an act of worship What does it mean to say that in anointing the sick or administering Viaticum to the dying humans are healed Such questions plumb the biblical and traditional depths of the paschal mystery Just as Jesus ministry at the social religious margins revealed the center of his faith in God s reign so also the church s ministry to sickness and death reveals much about the baptismal and Eucharistic worship so central to its entire life In Divine Worship and Human Healing Bruce Morrill turns to the rites serving the sick dying deceased and grieving to show why sacramental liturgy is so fundamental to the life of faith Readers will appreciate both his compelling narratives from actual pastoral experience and his engagement with biblical theological historical and social scientific resources Morrill invites readers to discover how the liturgical ministry of healing discloses God s merciful love amid communities of faith Jesuit Father Bruce Morrill discusses new book on Liturgical Theology from Jesuit Conference USA on Vimeo Theology and Power Stephan Bullivant,Eric Marcelo O.
