Heroism and Genius William J Slattery,2017-11-07 Every chancellery in Europe every court in Europe was ruled by these learned trained and accomplished men the priesthood of that great and dominant body President Woodrow Wilson The New Freedom With stubborn facts historians have given their verdict from the cultures of the Jews Greeks Romans Arabs and Germanic peoples the Catholic Church built a new and original civilization embodying within its structures the Christian vision of God and man time and eternity The construction and maintenance of Western civilization amid attrition and cultural earthquakes is a saga spread over sixteen hundred years During this period Catholic priests because they numbered so many men of heroism and genius in their ranks and also due to their leadership positions became the pioneers and irreplaceable builders of Christian culture and sociopolitical order Heroism and Genius presents some of these formidable men fathers of chivalry and free enterprise economics statesmen and defiers of tyrants composers educators and architects of some of the world s loveliest buildings and paradoxically revolutionary defenders of romantic love      Apocalypse & Totalitarianism

John Dik,Oleg Dik,2025-07-14 In this volume the contributions analyze diverse apocalyptic phenomena religious and secular alike The authors use the category of entanglements in order to demonstrate that the terms religious and secular remain ideal type abstractions which dissolve upon a closer empirical look They converge on the assumption that apocalypse as literature genre and lens of interpretation either leads towards emancipation or totalitarian control The role of apocalypse in the advance of modernity is analyzed and how the once religious concept changes through secularization and adaptation by various movements on the political spectrum The main goal is to achieve mutual appreciation by both religious and secular actors alike who seek to enhance the common good Both the church and secular society must humbly recognize that each needs the other The church must recover its apocalyptic roots and the secular society admit its limitations      The will to power Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche,1909      Violent Trauma, Culture, and Power Michelle Walsh,2017-02-16 This book is an interdisciplinary exploration of the intertwining impact of violent trauma culture and power through case studies of two ministries serving in different demographic contexts within the United States Mass shootings continue to rise in the United States including in religious and school contexts and the U S also is ground zero for the now international Black Lives Matter movement The author shows how all forms of violent trauma impact more than individuals devastating communal relationships and practices of religious or spiritual meaning making in the aftermath and assesses how these impacts differ according to lived experiences with culture and power Looking at the two ministries an urban grassroots lay ministry organization that serves surviving family members in the aftermath of homicide and a denominational ministry that served a church in the aftermath of a political and religiously motivated shooting the author develops trauma specific interdisciplinary tools for lived religion studies This book powerfully utilizes an intersectional lens to highlight the inter interconnections to be found for those working in faith communities as well as mental health Walsh provides the reader with an opportunity to explore and develop theoretical and practice perspectives that include race and ethnicity religion and spirituality social class and ability sexual orientation immigration and refugee status and explores the impact that oppression and discrimination have on our communities and society I highly recommend this book for those who are engaged in working to combat domination at the local national and global levels Gary Bailey Simmons College USA A Studied Impression of That Which Is R. Church History Justo L. González,1996 One of the chief difficulties in studying the history of Christianity is the lack of prior exposure to the subject that students often bring with them Struggling to keep up with the large numbers of names dates and places presented to them it is easy for students to lose sight of the big picture the broad sweep of movement and change that instructors most wish to communicate Justo Gonzalez has written this book to help students gain just such a quick and basic grasp of the main periods and issues in the history of Christianity Drawing upon his own extensive experience and that of others he contends that having been introduced to the essentials of church history in a brief and accessible form students are far better able to understand and appreciate what they encounter in more detailed lectures and reading Gonzalez provides a comprehensive opening chapter that summarizes major issues and concerns of each of the principal eras of church history Subsequent chapters focus on the ancient church the Christian empire the Middle Ages the Reformation the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries and the twentieth century and the end of modernity

Erasing Historical Invisibility Hector G. Balcazar,2025-08-05 Hector G Balcazar s first book No Wonder The Art of Creating a New World started a new dialogue for building a more hopeful future in which humanity cares for one another s wellbeing using the Community Health Worker model In that first book which took the form of a memoir the author uses his work in public health to present his vision to build communities utilizing a bridge of human connection Utilizing a storytelling approach Erasing Historical Invisibility Creating a Compassionate World further elevates the concept of humanity caring for one another and building a more hopeful future With themes such as erasing historical invisibility and creating a compassionate world the author examines the story of our past and presents a positive framework for the future With Erasing Historical Invisibility the author takes a historical perspective as to why humanity has not yet advanced to increase the human spirit He suggests humanity has utilized an old recipe which distracts the collective maturity from evolving The reader is invited to learn about the old recipe the role of human invisibility and what new recipes are needed In Erasing Historical Invisibility the author describes humanity as a conqueror species and how humanity evolved to create human invisibility Using the Roman Empire Mexico and the United States as examples the author presents the need for dismantling the old recipe Showcasing themes such as re examining our human collective experience moving towards regional and community life and the concept of antidotes to build new model frameworks for creating a collective maturity and a safe world

Give God The Praise Darrell Anthony Boone, 2011-07-28 Chapter Seven New and Improved God saw all that he had made and it was very good and there was evening and there was morning the sixth day By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing so on the seventh day he rested from all his work and God blessed the seventh day and made it holy because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done Genesis 2 1 3 Though you cannot know the totality of it there are several conclusions you can draw from Scripture that give clues to understanding the Will of God o God s Will is irrefutable o God s Will is good o God s Will is acceptable o God s Will is perfect o God s Will is already done in order to gain insight into this you must follow the instructions of Jesus and look beyond the appearances to what is real Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind Then you will be able to test and approve what God s will is his good pleasing and perfect will Romans 12 2 To begin to discover what God s will for you is let us go all the way back to the beginning in Genesis the first chapter you find God busy preparing a place for you On the First Day God created heaven and the first day s work is the calling of light or wisdom into expression Light represents intelligence and darkness represents undeveloped capacity Symbolically these are day and night Charles Fillmore Mysteries of Genesis P 14 On the Second Day God created the firmament the expanse of sky to separate the waters above aspiration from the waters below desire and God said Let there be an expanse firmament between the waters to separate water from water So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it and it was so God called the expanse sky and there was evening and there was morning the second day Genesis 1 6 8 The second step in creation is the development of faith or the firmament the waters represent the un established elements of the mind unexpressed possibilities in mind There must be a firm starting point or foundation established This foundation or firmament is faith moving upon the unformed capacities of Spirit consciousness the divine Logos God as creative power gives forth the edict Let there be a firmament the first step or day in creation involves light or understanding and the second step faith in the knowing quality of mind Mysteries of Genesis P 16 17 On the Third Day God divided the waters below into dry land and seas the mineral kingdom as a provision for the growth of the vegetable kingdom and the land produced vegetation in bountiful supply all with the means of reproducing and continuing the creation process and God said Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place and let dry ground appear and it was so God called the dry ground land and the gathered waters he called seas and God saw that it was good Then God said Let the land produce vegetation seed bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it according to their various kinds and it was so the land produced vegetation plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds and God saw that it was good and there was evening and there was morning the third day Genesis 1 9 13 The third step in creation is the beginning of the formative activity of the mind called imagination This gathers the waters together unto one place so that the dry land appears Then the imagination begins a great multiplication of forms and shapes in the mind Mysteries of Genesis P 18 On the Fourth Day God created the sun the greater light the moon the lesser light and the stars Thus was provided a source of Light and energy All of this in preparation for what is to come next and God said Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth and it was so God made two great lights the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night He also made the stars God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth to govern the day and the night and to separate light from darkness and God saw that it was good and there was evening and there was morning the fourth day Genesis 1 14 19 The fourth step in creation is the development of the two great lights the will and the understanding or the sun the spiritual I AM and the moon the intellect These are but reflectors of the true light for God had said Let there be light and there was light before the sun and the moon were created the firmament of heaven is the consciousness of Truth that has been formulated and established Mysteries of Genesis P 19 On the Fifth Day the animal kingdom emerges as God calls forth the creatures of the sea and sky to feed upon the provisions of the sea and land They too are blessed with all that is necessary to perpetuate creation as God commands them to be fruitful and multiply and God said Let the water teem with living creatures and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living and moving thing with which the water teems according to their kinds and every winged bird according to its kind and God saw that it was good God blessed them and said Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas and let the birds increase on the earth and there was evening and there was morning the fifth day Genesis 1 20 23 The fifth step in creation is the bringing forth of sensation and discrimination the creatures are thoughts the birds in the open firmament of heaven are ideas approaching spiritual understanding Water represents the unformed substance of life always present as a fecundating element in which ideas living creatures increase and multiply just as the earth produces a crop when sown with seed the birds represent the liberated thoughts or ideas of mind heavens Mysteries of Genesis P 22 On the Sixth Day we see calling forth the creatures of the land to further develop the animal kingdom and God said Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds livestock creatures that move along the ground and wild animals each according to its kind and it was so God made the wild animals according to their kinds the livestock according to their kinds and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds and God saw that it was good Genesis 1 24 25 On the sixth day of creation ideas of life are set into activity Cattle represent ideas of strength established in substance Creeping things represent ideas of life that are more subtle in their expression approaching closer to the realm of sense They are the micro organisms the beasts stand for the free energies of life that relate themselves to sensation Divine ideas are always instantly set into activity and it was so Mysteries of Genesis P 24 Having created all of these things as a provision for God s final creati
