Examining Billy Graham's Theology of Evangelism Thomas P. Johnston,2003-03-12 Examining Billy Graham's Theology of Evangelism was written to advance an unbiased understanding of Billy Graham's theology and practice Theological examination of Graham's sermons revealed four distinct eras in his theology and practice The Early Graham pre 1949 The Early Graham 1949 1955 The Middle Graham 1955 1965 The Later Graham 1965 present In each of these eras Graham portrayed a discernible and distinct approach to defining evangelism theological nomenclature and cooperative strategy No literature on Billy Graham discusses in combination this evolution in Graham's theology and practice You are invited to take a fresh look at the teaching and practice of this man who has touched millions of lives through the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ Evangelism and the Openness of God Vaughn W. Baker,2012-12-18 In Evangelism and the Openness of God Vaughn Baker argues that a dynamic concept of God as articulated in open theism better serves the evangelistic mission of the church than does conventional theology Open theism affirms an ontology of love as opposed to power and it focuses on God's kenosis in creation allowing for the authentic freedom of creation influenced by divine persuasion God's genuine temporal relationship with creation one that is open synergist and non coercive provides a new perspective for evangelistic activity In this volume the author has made a valuable contribution to the integration of new developments in theology and evangelism Farmer Cooperatives ,1993 Evangelism for a Changing World Timothy Beougher,Alvin L. Reid,2004-01-15 Since the first century believers have worked diligently to find the most effective means of evangelizing In every age there have been great teachers who have excelled in their abilities to show others how best to communicate the good news of Christ Roy Fish Professor of Evangelism at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary has inspired generations of evangelists who have learned his balanced biblical methodology These essays written in his honor discuss personal evangelism preaching discipleship great spiritual awakenings contemporary spirituality worship mission work and related topics Included are contributions by scholars and preachers such as Jimmy Draper Calvin Miller Robert Coleman and Rick Warren This collection is a must for evangelists students of theology pastors Bible teachers or anyone interested in effective outreach Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1928 A Unity of Purpose Tony Wolfe,W. Madison Grace II,2025-05-27 The nations were calling A theology of cooperation was formalizing Best business practices of the day were refining A denominational conscience was solidifying Baptists acknowledged God's call to a great work that would require a great sacrifice and proposed a new funding model for the new day Over the next one hundred years Southern Baptists would give over 20 billion through their Cooperative Program to fund local national and international missions educate their pastors and church leaders present a unified voice in the public square and more The Cooperative Program became the largest voluntary Great Commission funding mechanism the world has ever known But is the Cooperative Program merely Southern Baptist history Does that heroic spirit of strategic sacrificial cooperation still burn within the Baptist body Will the challenges and opportunities of the coming decades be best met by the same financial program or is something else on the horizon On the centennial anniversary of the Cooperative Program A Unity of Purpose collects the voices of leading Southern Baptists to offer a theological historical and missional celebration of the program s past successes and future opportunities Contributors include Bart Barber Paul Chitwood Melanie Clinton James K Dew Jr Daniel Dickard Jason G Duesing Mike Ebert Leo Endel Kevin Ezell RaShan Frost Taffey Hall Adam Harwood Richard Land Brent Leatherwood Scott McConnell Julie Nall McGowan Pete Ramirez and Chris Schaffer

All Together in One Place Harold D. Hunter,Peter D. Hocken,2019-02-21 The global pentecostal charismatic movement as it launches into the twenty first century outdistances current attempts at classification and clarification Although scholarly theologizing has not been the hallmark of the movement the current surge of pentecostal charismatic scholars confounds the accepted antithesis between expressive narrative and reflective theology Brighton 91 which featured Professor Jurgen Moltmann and the Archbishop of Canterbury was a symposium unprecedented in the range of participating scholars drawn from six continents They gave voice to new insights for handling racism sexism socioeconomic oppression and the environment thus modeling a legitimate postmodern agenda

Cooperative Evangelist Bo Tao,2025-08-31 Cooperative Evangelist uncovers the extraordinary world of a Japanese man who was once described as the Saint Francis or the Gandhi of Japan A renowned religious figure on the world stage Kagawa Toyohiko 1888 1960 received wide acclaim for his work as a street preacher in the slums of Kobe as well as his espousal of nonviolent methods of social reform His reputation as a pacifist figure however rested uneasily with his wartime actions which became increasingly supportive of the Japanese government and its expansionist policies Reluctant to speak up against Japan s increasing aggression in the late 1930s he emerged as a full blown apologist during the Pacific War appearing on several Radio Tokyo broadcasts as a propagandist defending the interests of state Adopting a transnational approach that accounts for the rapid flow of information between Japan and the United States Bo Tao examines the career of Kagawa as it unfolded within the context of the war imperialism and economic depression of the early to mid twentieth century Using official documents and personal correspondence that have received scant attention in previous works Tao reveals for the first time at this level of detail the extent of Kagawa s cooperative relationship with the Japanese government as well as the ways in which his idealized image was carefully constructed by his ardent missionary supporters This book provides a window into the global dimensions of broader cultural shifts during the interwar period such as the rise of Christian internationalism and the Depression era popularity of cooperative economics Offering a holistic and nuanced exploration of the tensions resulting from Kagawa's hybrid identity as a Japanese Christian Cooperative Evangelist adds a new layer to our understanding of religion, empire and politics in the shaping of social and international relations

Pre-Evangelization and Young Adult "Native Nones" Tamra Hull Fromm, 2021-01-19 What motivates American young adult native nones or those who have grown up without a religious background to investigate the Catholic faith? What turns them off? How do we reach them? Tamra Hull Fromm re-examines the role of pre-evangelization in the contemporary context and presents a micro study of twenty-four native nones who chose to investigate the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) in the Archdiocese of Detroit, USA

Written by veteran evangelist Luis Palau and Dr. Timothy L. Robnett, this book will provide those called to serve God in evangelism with a step-by-step handbook for establishing, building and maintaining an effective evangelistic ministry. The Christian Century, 1924 The Letter to the Philippians G. Walter Hansen, 2009-10-05 In this commentary, G. Walter Hansen offers rich exposition of the text of Philippians as well as wisdom and maturity in its application. In so doing, he emphasizes partnership, the social and corporate dimensions of community in the progress of the gospel. After a select bibliography, Hansen's introduction sets forth the historical setting of the church in Philippi, the nature and occasion of the letter, and a preview of two key themes: the gospel of Christ and the community in Christ. The commentary itself discusses Philippians in light of these themes, considering Paul's greetings, reports of gospel ministry, imperatives for citizens worthy of the gospel, recommendations of two Christ-like servants, and disclosures of his personal experience. Hansen's treatment as a whole is distinctive for the way it draws out and highlights the themes of partnership, citizenship and friendship in Paul's Philippian letter. With themes and emotions so varied, the letter to the Philippians needs a commentator with a sure grasp and a warm heart. Hansen writes with admirable clarity and simplicity, even when he is unpacking notoriously complex matters. D. A. Carson from the preface

Roman Catholics: Saved or Lost? Larry E. Miller, 2020-12-20 Why is this book needed now? Until mid-20th century, among evangelicalism, the near-unanimous view was that most Roman Catholics are lost due to their corrupted gospel. In recent decades, increased numbers of big-tent evangelicals have begun to accept Roman Catholics as our brothers and sisters in Christ. Is this a remarkable achievement or tragic compromise? It is my position that it is a tragic compromise; therefore, this book is needed NOW. In Chapters One and Two, a history of evangelicalism is provided, demonstrating the changes that have occurred, as well as a review of the most significant published documents manifesting these changes. These include such documents as Vatican II, Evangelicals and Catholics Together, and other post-1990's publications. Then summarized are the major factors that have contributed to this precipitous change transdenominationalism desire for visible unity supernatural conversionism cultural engagement and decline in doctrinal clarity Chapter Three presents an exegetically based definition of the true gospel as penned by the Apostle Paul In Chapter Four the Roman Catholic official way of salvation is summarized from their own documents and it is DIFFERENT from that penned by Paul Based on decades of ministry as a church planter in the city of New Orleans in Chapters Five through Nine I present from a boots on the ground perspective a practical how to regarding effective evangelization of lost Roman Catholics With a God dependent attitude and the application of this methodology scores even hundreds of dear Roman Catholic people came to understand and respond by faith to the Bible based grace message that saves
