Mark's Story of Jesus

Dewey Mulholland, 1999-05-26 A missionary scholar who has been studying and teaching the Gospel of Mark for over forty years Dr Mulholland is an insightful expounder of its message guiding us through this account of Jesus the mighty miracle worker who is the Messiah of all nations Informed by the best of academic research Mulholland's lucid and detailed study will prove eye opening as well as soul challenging for its readers Dr Vernon C Grounds Chancellor Denver Seminary During his many years of work as a missionary in Brazil the Rev Dewey Mulholland was enabled to strengthen the church there in a most strategic way In the seminary he helped found in Brasilia the capital he made the inductive study of the Bible in Portuguese central for the training of Christian workers He wanted to teach people how to study the Bible for themselves No boring sermons and Bible lessons from these graduates Studying the Bible the way Mulholland taught them they keep coming up with new exciting insights into the inspired meanings of the Bible Learning to comprehend the biblical text for themselves his students often opened Mulholland's eyes to vital insights into the Marcan meaning This English version of his Marcan commentary makes this accumulation of insights available to us in the Euro American world Seeing the significance that Mark has for people in Latin America helps us to be more enlightened world Christians Dr Daniel P Fuller Senior Professor of Hermeneutics Fuller Theological Seminary The author skillfully combines Mark's emphasis upon Jesus as the Messiah whose Kingdom embraces people of all nations with his portrayal of the Servant who reigns through suffering This message is very relevant to the developing nations where many politicians and clergymen use their positions to dominate I recommend this commentary for it enlarges our understanding of the Messiah and calls upon us to fulfill the task Jesus has delegated to us Edouard Kitoko Nsiku Ph D United Bible Societies Moputo Mozambique Africa Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling creative reflection and dialogue He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative In 2012 Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible In this book you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages testimonials from people using this approach tools to create your own Bible storying narratives and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach The Integrity of Biblical Narrative Mark Ellingsen, 2002-06-06 This is one of those rare books that effectively puts theology into practice Ellingsen provides a remarkably comprehensive survey of recent approaches to biblical narrative and shows that not all approaches are compatible Theological integrity requires that they be used discriminately Then in the greater part of the book he explains the homiletical implications As befits an accomplished theologian who is also a preacher he gives apt advice and excellent examples This is also the best book written on narrative theology and preaching George Lindbeck Yale

University In this excellent book about biblical narrative preaching Mark Ellingsen has brought together the expertise of the systematician who has one foot in academics and the experience of the parish pastor who has the other foot in the pulpit every week As a systematician he criticizes and corrects the contemporary trend toward developing and preaching story sermons offering a theology of realistic narrative sermons in their place He also functions as a homiletician explaining his system of preparing biblical narrative sermons and caps the entire effort with illustrations from his own homiletical endeavors This insightful work should provoke discussion among biblical and systematic theologians and at the same time prove profitable to pastors seeking to preach the gospel story in interesting convincing and theologically valid sermons
