Power Over Power:

Power Over Power David Nyberg, 1981 Theories of Power and Domination Angus Stewart, 2001-03-20 Power and domination are central concepts in social science yet up to now they have been undertheorized This wide ranging book guides students through the complexities and implications of both concepts It provides systematic accounts of current debates about the dynamics and rationale of state power in an era of globalization social citizenship and the significance of social movements The contributions of Parsons Giddens Foucault Mann Arendt Habermas and Castells are clearly set out and critically assessed Power of Position Robert D. Montoya, 2022-05-24 How biodiversity classification with its ranking of species has social and political implications as well as implications for the field of information studies The idea that species live in nature as pure and clear cut named individuals is a fiction as scientists well know According to Robert D Montoya classifications are powerful mechanisms and we must better attend to the machinations of power inherent in them as well as to how the effects of this power proliferate beyond the boundaries of their original intent We must acknowledge the many ways our classifications are implicated in environmental ecological and social justice work and information specialists must play a role in updating our notions of what it means to classify In Power of Position Montoya shows how classifications are systems that relate one entity with other entities requiring those who construct a system to value an entity s relative importance by way of its position within a system of other entities These practices says Montoya are important ways of constituting and exerting power Classification also has very real world consequences An animal classified as protected and endangered for example is protected by law Montoya also discusses the Catalogue of Life a new kind of composite classification that reconciles many local traditional taxonomies forming a unified taxonomic backbone structure for organizing biological data Finally he shows how the theories of information studies are applicable to realms far beyond those of biological classification Middle Powers in Asia Pacific Multilateralism Sarah Teo, 2022-11-25 Drawing on insights from differentiation theory this book examines the participation of middle powers in multilateralism Taking Australia Indonesia and South Korea as examples the book examines these countries roles in regional organizations and particularly during the creation of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and East Asia Summit Through its analysis the book argues that middle powers pursue dilution of major power stratificatory forces as well as functionally differentiated roles for themselves in multilateral diplomacy The book sets out a valuable new framework to explain and understand the behaviour of middle powers in multilateralism Arise Elena Aguilar, 2024-07-17 A hands on guide for transformational coaches working in school environments In Arise The Art of Transformational Coaching renowned author and coach Elena Aguilar delivers a compelling and inspirational message about how to coach in the face of daunting challenges In the book you ll learn how to listen expansively in a coaching conversation how to plan conversations effectively how to coach across lines of racial difference how to coach resistant teachers and more You ll learn how best to impact your clients 3 B s beliefs behaviors and ways of being and explore illuminating case studies that highlight and illustrate the concepts discussed in the book You'll also find A Transformational Coaching Rubric 2.0 providing detailed explanations of all relevant coaching domains and indicators Comprehensive discussions of the reasoning and theory underlying the practical strategies explained within Techniques for developing maintaining and applying emotional intelligence in your work An indispensable how to guide for transformational coaches working in school environments Arise The Art of Transformational Coaching is the hands on and practical roadmap to results that professionals in this area have been waiting for The Art of Communication Hilda K. Weisburg, 2022-10-05 Librarians will learn communication skills that help them develop as leaders build community and advocate for their libraries Librarians understand the importance of making the value of the library known to stakeholders In this informative and conversational book Hilda K Weisburg gradually builds librarians communication skills which are intrinsic to the success of library programs and services Being able to effectively communicate as a sender and receiver of messages is a vital leadership skill and librarians must master all the multi faceted ways people exchange information in order to grow as leaders Throughout the book librarians will learn communication basics and the obstacles that interfere with successful communication The chapters in part one detail the three components of communication part two prepares librarians to cope with difficult communications and part three gives librarians further techniques to ensure their messages are cohesive and strategic as they reach out to stakeholders The book's goal is for librarians to feel confident about using their newly learned communication skills for advocacy As their value to the library community grows they will be able to strategically use the relationships their communications have built to create positive change From Poverty to Power, 2nd Edition Duncan Green, 2012 From Poverty to Power argues that a radical redistribution of power opportunities and assets rather than traditional models of charitable or government aid is required to break the cycle of poverty and inequality The forces driving this transformation are active citizens and effective states Published in association with Oxfam GB

Social Practices as Biological Niche Construction Joseph Rouse, 2023-08-16 A broad synthetic philosophy of nature focused on human sociality In this book Joseph Rouse takes his innovative work to the next level by articulating an integrated philosophy of society as part of nature He shows how and why we ought to unite our biological conception of human beings as animals with our sociocultural and psychological conceptions of human beings as persons and acculturated agents Rouse's philosophy engages with biological understandings of human bodies and their environments as well as the diverse practices and institutions through which people live and engage with one another Familiar conceptual separations of natural social and mental worlds did not arise by happenstance he argues but often for principled reasons that have left those divisions deeply entrenched in contemporary intellectual life Those reasons are eroding in light of new developments across the disciplines but that erosion has not been sufficient to produce more adequately integrated conceptual alternatives until now Social Practices and Biological Niche Construction shows how the characteristic plasticity plurality and critical contestation of human ways of life can best be understood as evolved and evolving relations among human organisms and their distinctive biological environments It also highlights the constitutive interdependence of those ways of life with many other organisms from microbial populations to certain plants and animals and explores the consequences of this in depth noting for instance how the integration of the natural and social also provides new insights on central issues in social theory such as the body language normativity and power

Theorising and Representing Maternal Realities Julie Kelso, Marie

Porter, 2009-05-05 Maternal research is a rapidly expanding multi disciplinary form of scholarship Prior to second wave feminism most motherhood literature was written from a male perspective This literature focused on telling mothers how to practice mothering without acknowledging the expertise of the mothers themselves Research on motherhood as it is experienced in all its facets by mothers has only emerged in recent decades This book is aimed at expanding academic knowledge of motherhood from a feminist perspective looking particularly at how maternal subjectivities can be represented and theorised When mothers themselves academic or not are responsible for theorisation and representation of maternal realities dominant theories and representations of motherhood are radically challenged In Theorising and Representing Maternal Realities the contributors argue that it is no longer acceptable to regard mothers as mere objects of knowledge and research They are primarily the subjects of knowledge and research

Theories of Human Communication Stephen W.

Littlejohn, Karen A. Foss, John G. Oetzel, 2021-05-07 For over forty years Theories of Human Communication has facilitated the understanding of the theories that define the discipline of communication The authors present a comprehensive summary of major communication theories current research extensions and applications in a thoughtfully organized and engaging style Part I of the extensively updated twelfth edition sets the stage for how to think about and study communication The first chapter establishes the foundations of communication theory The next chapter reviews four frameworks for organizing the theories and their contributions to the nature of inquiry Part II covers theories centered around the communicator message medium and communication with the nonhuman Part III addresses theories related to communication contexts relationship group organization health culture and society From the Source contributions from theorists provide insight into the inspirations motivations and goals behind the theories Online instructor s resource materials include sample syllabi key terms exam questions and text graphics The theories include those important for their continuing influence in the field as well as emerging theories that encourage thinking about issues in new ways For a reasonable price readers are able to explore the patterns trends trajectories and intricacies of the landscape of communication theory and will have an invaluable resource for future reference

Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath, 2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can re program our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here Stewart's Purdon's Digest

Pennsylvania,1923 Community Participation and Civic Engagement in the Digital Era Mudit Kumar Singh,2022-09-08 Understanding the challenges in research and practice of participation in the digital era and the important role of local governance in achieving the sustainable development goals Singh explores the complex relationship of community participation social capital and social networks Creating New States Aleksandar Pavkovic,Peter Radan,2016-05-13 Secession is the creation of a new independent state out of an existing state This key volume examines the political social and legal processes of the practice of secession Following an analysis of secessionist movements and their role in attempts at secession eight case studies are explored to illustrate peaceful violent sequential and recursive secessions This is followed by a look at the theoretical approaches and a discussion that focuses on the economic causes Normative theories of secession are discussed as well as the status of secession in legal theory and practice The book systematizes our present knowledge of secessions in an accessible way to readers not familiar with the phenomenon and its consequences It is ideal as a supplementary text to courses on contemporary political and social movements applied ethics and political philosophy international relations and international law state sovereignty and state formation If Classrooms Matter Jeffrey R.
