South Asia and the Great Powers Sten Rynning,2017-02-23 Where the implications of war and peace are open to question the possibility of change depends more on politics than economics This book asks whether the region s great powers can overcome opposing interests and commit to political restraint The concept of regional security is based on great power support for regional order However there are many pitfalls to consider notably the politics of contested nationalisms the Asia Pacific rivalry of China and the US and India s inclinations to function or be seen as a benevolent hegemon for the region Yet there are signs of renewed determination to move the region in new directions While China s Silk Road projects are long term regional investments that hinge on regional stability the US is attempting to fashion new partnerships and India strives to reconcile regional differences to promote a peaceful environment This book as it sets out the emerging agendas of the great powers and local powers makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the international relations and diplomatic politics of South Asia

Great Power Politics in Greater Eurasia Rahman Dag,Özgür Tüfekçi,2022-12-27 Great power politics is a practical reality of world politics and it happens on a daily basis regardless of which international system we witness This book seeks to emphasize the ways s these great power politics emerge within greater Eurasia Most researchers consider China becoming powerful enough to counterbalance the US and possible power dynamics among the rising powers such as China India China Russia and China Japan In this sense the book categorizes the battlegrounds in their power politics with three aspects national regional international conflicts institutions alliances and projects

International Relations Theory and South Asia (OIP) E. Sridharan,2014-11-13 Bringing together scholarship from several South Asian countries this volume understands conflict resolution and cooperation building in the region The essays cover three inter related issues security political economy domestic politics and the construction of identities and normative frameworks They employ broader social science theorizing particularly in relation to political economy to go beyond conceptualizations based on international relations theory The volume takes a fresh look at the inter relationships between issues and their analyses and eschews stand alone topics such as Kashmir nuclear policies or regional cooperation Combining theory with fieldwork it provides diverse perspectives and arguments for a more nuanced picture of international relations in South Asia

India's Great Power Politics Jo Inge Bekkevold,S. Kalyanaraman,2020-12-22 This book examines India s foreign and defence policy changes in response to China s growing economic and military power and increased footprint across the Indo Pacific It further explores

India's role in the rivalry between China and the United States The book looks at the strategic importance of the Indian Ocean Region in the Indo Pacific geopolitical landscape and how India is managing China's rise by combining economic cooperation with a wide set of balancing strategies The authors in this book critically analyse the various tools of Indian foreign policy including defence posture security alignments and soft power diplomacy among others and discuss the future trajectory of India's foreign policy and the factors which will determine the balance of power in the region and the potential risks involved The book provides detailed insights into the multifaceted and complex relationship between India and China and will be of great interest to researchers and students of international relations Asian studies political science and economics It will also be useful for policymakers journalists and think tanks interested in the India China relationship

Pathways to Power Arjun Guneratne, Anita M. Weiss, 2013-12-19 Pathways to Power introduces the domestic politics of South Asia in their broadest possible context studying ongoing transformative social processes grounded in cultural forms In doing so it reveals the interplay between politics cultural values human security and historical luck While these are important correlations everywhere nowhere are they more compelling than in South Asia where such dynamic interchanges loom large on a daily basis Identity politics not just of religion but also of caste ethnicity regionalism and social class infuses all aspects of social and political life in the sub continent Recognizing this complex interplay this volume moves beyond conventional views of South Asian politics as it explicitly weaves the connections between history culture and social values into its examination of political life South Asia is one of the world's most important geopolitical areas and home to nearly one and a half billion people Although many of the poorest people in the world live in this region it is home also to a rapidly growing middle class wielding much economic power India Pakistan and Bangladesh together the successor states to the British Indian Empire the Raj form the core of South Asia along with two smaller states on its periphery landlocked Nepal and the island state of Sri Lanka Many factors bring together the disparate countries of the region into important engagements with one another forming an uneasy regional entity Contributions by Arjun Guneratne Christophe Jaffrelot Pratyoush Onta Haroun er Rashid Seira Tamang Shabnum Tejani and Anita M Weiss

Haunted by Chaos Sulmaan Wasif Khan, 2022-07-19 An American Interest Book of the Year Khan has unraveled the mystery of Chinese grand strategy showing why insecurity lies at the root of Chinese power projection Readers will not find a shrewder analysis as to why the Chinese act as they do Robert D Kaplan author of The Revenge of Geography The essential guidebook to the evolution of China's strategy crucial if we are to avoid conflict with this emerging superpower Admiral James Stavridis former Supreme Allied Commander of NATO An outstanding contribution to our understanding of that most urgent of contemporary geopolitical questions what does China want Rana Mitter author of Forgotten Ally Before the Chinese Communist Party came to power China lay broken and fragmented Today it dominates the global stage and yet its leaders have continued to be haunted by the past Analyzing the calculus behind decision making at the highest levels Sulmaan Wasif Khan explores how China's leaders have harnessed diplomatic military and economic power to keep a fragile country safe in a hostile world At once shrewd and dangerous Mao Zedong made China whole and succeeded in keeping it so while the caustic Deng Xiaoping dragged China into the modern world Jiang Zemin and Hu Jintao were cautious custodians of Deng's legacy but Xi Jinping has shown an assertiveness that has raised concern across the globe China's grand strategies while costly have been largely successful But will this time tested approach be enough to tackle the looming threats of the twenty first century

Strategic Regions in 21st Century Power Politics Jakub Landovský, Martin Riegl, Irina Valko, 2014-11-19 Resource wars identity conflicts disinformation geostrategic rivalries global power shifts and an increasing number of non state actors make it difficult to analyse contemporary international relations At the same time contemporary power rivalries are increasingly affected by currency wars economic diplomacy competitive intelligence economic warfare indirect strategies and state capitalism The events in Ukraine in Spring 2014 reconfirm that Thomas Friedman's flattening of the world based on the coincidence of the collapse of the Berlin Wall and the emergence of Netscape and the Web workflow software uploading outsourcing offshoring supply chaining insourcing in forming and steroids like Facebook and Instagram goes hand in hand with the fact that as postulated by Robert Kaplan geography still matters in a global world Globalization exists because of local processes and local processes are ultimately shaped by globalization Geography remains among the primary factors shaping a country's foreign policy This book addresses the most fundamental geopolitical issues observable in a region where the great game of geopolitics is particularly still alive in East and South East Asia The contemporary geopolitical situation in this part of the world is far from stable the width and depth of economic integration in the region resonates with the nature of political relations crises in the global financial system climate change and the regional security architecture inherited from the Cold War era In terms of power relations the particular changes in the region's status quo imply an immediate intensification of the PRC's activities within the framework of political and security dialogue with its direct neighbors ultimately leading to a rivalry between China and the United States The studies presented in this book largely focus on East and South East Asian actors and problems while studies of the situation in other global regions enrich the research by adding a global dimension to the study of regional geopolitical affairs      Managing Great Power Politics Kei Koga, 2022-08-31 This Open Access book explains ASEAN's strategic role in managing great power politics in East Asia. Constructing a theory of institutional strategy, this book argues that the regional security institutions in Southeast Asia (ASEAN and ASEAN-led institutions) have devised their own institutional strategies vis-à-vis the South China Sea and navigated the great power politics since the 1990s. ASEAN proliferated new security institutions in the 1990s and 2000s that assumed a different functionality, a different geopolitical scope, and thus a different institutional strategy. In so doing, ASEAN formed a strategic institutional web that nurtured a quasi-division of labor among the institutions to maintain relative stability in the South China Sea. Unlike the conventional analysis on ASEAN, this study disaggregates ASEAN as a collective regional actor into specific individual institutions: ASEAN Foreign Ministers Meeting, ASEAN Summit, ASEAN-China dialogues, ASEAN Regional Forum, East Asia Summit, and ASEAN Defense Ministers Meeting and ASEAN Defense Ministers Meeting Plus, and explains how each of these institutions has devised and/or shifted its institutional strategy to curb great powers' ambition in dominating the South China Sea while navigating great power competition. The book sheds light on the strategic potential and limitations of ASEAN and ASEAN-led security institutions, offers implications for the future role of ASEAN in the Indo-Pacific region, and provides an alternative understanding of the strategic utilities of regional security institutions.

Gender and the Politics of Disaster Recovery Sajal Roy, 2022-07-22 Drawing a transdisciplinary perspective, this book investigates the ways in which gender intersects with rebuilding and post-disaster recovery processes. It shows how climate-induced disasters, as well as the recent COVID-19 pandemic, have impacted human lives and livelihoods across various global socioeconomic conditions, sociopolitical conditions, and the gendered relationships from the Global South perspective. From the real experiences of the people vulnerable to disasters, this book identifies the strengths and weaknesses of the post-disaster management in different contexts. The varied roles and responsibilities of men and women in different countries are also examined. It is often hard to understand how local and global politics are involved in humanitarian aid. This book also shows how lower-income and underprivileged communities are deprived of their right to access relief and rehabilitation due to political involvement. This text also highlights effective methods of policy implementation for achieving sustainable recovery from these humanitarian crises. It will assist strategy planners and policymakers to focus on gender-based barriers and political hindrances, as well as geological and socioeconomic factors, in planning inclusive post-disaster activities. The book will be of interest to researchers, postgraduate students, and scholars in the fields of Sociology, Social Anthropology, Development Studies, Gender and Cultural Studies, Area Studies, Human Geography, Disaster Management, Forestry, and Environmental Science.

China in India's Neighbourhood Anita Sengupta, Priya Singh, 2024-04-30 This book explores the scope and extent of the growing Chinese influence in India's neighbourhood and its impact on India, as well as on Asian power politics. Through theoretical narratives and detailed case studies, it examines Chinese bilateral relationships in the

Indian neighbourhood and looks at the extent and significance of Chinese influence through the lens of strategic economic and infrastructural arrangements and Chinese interventions in South Southeast and Central Asia The book takes into account regional voices and domestic political compulsions in understanding what they make of the Chinese narrative and examines how and whether the narrative has changed in recent years through the Belt and Road Initiative BRI as an instrument of Chinese public diplomacy The volume also discusses how domestic narratives and compulsions in the Indian neighbourhood remain significant and how these in turn would impact the trajectory of Chinese public diplomacy Intertwined through all these themes is a focus on the extent to which these could become potential flashpoints for India This book will be a useful resource for academics and researchers working on Asian geopolitics and geo economics Chinese foreign policy Chinese politics international relations of Asia Asian dynamics and Asian studies     Decolonising Social Science Research in Southeast Asia Pam Nilan,Yekti Maunati,2025-04-23 This book draws together some of the most innovative studies in contemporary Southeast Asian research by social science scholars in the region Themes include gender popular culture democratic struggle climate change and environment minority representation wealth and marginalisation labour migration and ASEAN the Association of Southeast Asian Nations Readers can glimpse in a single volume the nature and scope of the ground breaking research being conducted across the diverse set of countries in the region The authors have assembled a set of chapters that represent not only new insights but new ways of knowing The aim is to illuminate important steps in the decolonisation of social science research in Southeast Asia This is an essential resource for all social science scholars and students who want to keep up with epistemological innovation across the Southeast Asian region     South Asia and the Great Powers Sten Rynning,2017 Where the implications of war and peace are open to question the possibility of change depends more on politics than economics This book asks whether the region s great powers can overcome opposing interests and commit to political restraint The concept of regional security is based on great power support for regional order However there are many pitfalls to consider notably the politics of contested nationalisms the Asia Pacific rivalry of China and the US and India s inclinations to function or be seen as a benevolent hegemon for the region Yet there are signs of renewed determination to move the region in new directions While China s Silk Road projects are long term regional investments that hinge on regional stability the US is attempting to fashion new partnerships and India strives to reconcile regional differences to promote a peaceful environment This book as it sets out the emerging agendas of the great powers and local powers makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the international relations and diplomatic politics of South Asia Bloomsbury Publishing
