Strategy for a Living Revolution George Lakey,1973 Powerful Peacemaking George Lakey,1987 The Strategy of Nonviolent Defense Robert J. Burrowes,2015-10-26 Because of the way in which the history of nonviolence has been marginalized relatively few people have a sense of the rich history of nonviolent struggle or realize that it can be systematically planned and applied Nevertheless the historical record illustrates that nonviolent struggle is a powerful form of political action But can it be effective against military aggression The Strategy of Nonviolent Defense answers this question in the affirmative by first defining the notion of social cosmology the four mutually reinforcing features that determine the character of any society It then devotes attention to strategies for dealing with conflict in particular to developing a strategic theory and framework for planning a strategy of nonviolent defense In order to develop this theory Burrowes synthesizes insights drawn from the strategic theory of Carl von Clausewitz the nonviolence of Mahatma Gandhi and recent human needs and conflict theory A Conspiracy to Love River Smith,2013-02 Do you want more love in your life More respect More joy Are you willing to challenge your pessimistic self talk Are you ready for a journey into your heart that will bring you dynamic loving and transformative power From the wisdom of Ben Franklin Alice Walker Don Henley Ludwig Von Wittgenstein Leo Busgaglia and Michael Franti to the hope of bell hooks Riane Eisler Abraham Maslow Ivanyla Vansant Buckminster Fuller and a score of other artists and thinkers River Smith creates a clear path for readers to follow to bring more power more love and more joy into our lives In this revised edition of his inspirational self help book with a social conscience Dr Smith a psychologist and social justice educator opens the way for readers to transform not just ourselves but our families our communities and the world Teaching For Justice Kathleen Maa Weigert,Robin J. Crews,2023-07-03 Tenth in the Service Learning in the Disciplines Series this book shows how both peace studies and service learning have been developing new ideas of how social learning takes place as a community process in conflict situations and what the dynamics of peace building are The process has created a new niche in academia for preparing students to become social change agents The enthusiasm of the contributors in this book gives the reader a new vision of what is possible on college campuses in community based peace and service learning at a time when there is a critical need for peace building skills Choosing Peace Dennis, Marie ,2018 Contributions by leading peacemakers such as Lisa Sowle Cahill Terrence J Rynne John Dear and Ken Utican Rose Marie Berger and Maria J Stephan advance the conversation about the practice of nonviolence in a violent world Jesus and nonviolence traditional Catholic teaching on nonviolence and reflections on the future of Catholic teaching The book concludes with Pope Francis s historic Message for World Peace Day in 2017 Black Baltimore Harold Mcdougall,1993-12-21 Through extensive neighborhood interviews and a compelling assessment of the problems of unraveling communities in urban America Harold McDougall reveals how in sections of Baltimore a New Community is developing Relying more on vernacular culture personal networking and mutual support than on private wealth or public subsidy the communities of black Baltimore provide an example of self help and civic action that could and should be occurring in other inner city areas In this political history of Old West Baltimore McDougall describes how base communities small peer groups that share similar views circumstances and objectives have helped neighborhoods respond to the failure of both government and the market to create conditions for a decent quality of life for all Arguing for the primacy of church leadership within the black community the author describes how these small flexible groups are creating the foundation of what he calls a New Community where community spirited organizers clergy public interest advocates business people and government workers interact and build relationships through which Baltimore s urban agenda is being developed
