Mon Van Genechten (1903-1974) Lorry Swerts, Koen De Ridder, 2002 His first work when he was still in Flanders testify to the sense of humanity compassion and popular wit that is so typical of his artistic tradition He learnt the Chinese painting techniques the hard way and this apprenticeship caused a certain stiffness or conventionality in the works he produced during this period The mission he had to produce religious paintings reinforced this tendency At the same time the discipline of Chinese painting greatly softened and enriched his sense of line and landscape and his drawings were gradually filled with the spirit with the cosmic feature which Chinese painting aims at expressing But the most striking feature of Mon Van Genechten's artistic evolution was his coming back to the popular compassionate vein that characterized his first works without losing what he had learnt during his Chinese apprenticeship BOOK JACKET

The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema Li Yang, 2018-10-31 The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema 1990-2003 examines the development of Chinese art film in the People's Republic of China from 1990 when the first Sixth Generation film Mama was released to 2003 when authorities acknowledged the legitimacy of underground filmmakers Through an exploration of the production and consecration mechanisms of the new art wave and its representative styles this book argues that the art wave of the 1990s fundamentally defined Chinese art cinema In particular this vital art wave was not enabled by democratic liberalism but by the specific industrial development in which the film system transitioned from Socialist propaganda into a commercialized entity Allowing Chinese art film to grow but at the same time denying its legitimacy this paradoxical transition process shaped Chinese art film's institutional and aesthetical alternative positioning which eventually helped consolidate the art wave into art cinema Ultimately this book is a history of the Chinese portion of global art cinema which also reveals the complex Chinese cultural experiences during the Reform Era Colonialism, China and the Chinese Peter Monteath, Matthew Fitzpatrick, 2019-07-23 This book explores the place of China and the Chinese during the age of imperialism Focusing not only on the state but also on the vitality of Chinese culture and the Chinese diaspora it examines the seeming contradictions of a period in which China came under immense pressure from imperial expansion while remaining a major political cultural and demographic force in its own right Where histories of China commonly highlight episodes of conflict and subjugation in China's relations with the West the contributions to this volume explore the complex spaces where empires and their peoples did not merely collide but also became entangled Beyond Boundaries Michelle Ying Ling Huang, 2012-04-25 Beyond Boundaries East and West Cross Cultural Encounters is a collection of essays which span several centuries and disciplines in their exploration of East West cultural exchanges and interactions The chapters are arranged in chronological and thematic order and encompass the cutting edge research of a diverse group of international scholars The subjects range from archaeology art history and photography to conservation sociology and cultural studies with cross disciplinary examples of classical modern and contemporary periods The book seeks to inspire new ideas and stimulate further scholarly debate on the convergence dissimilarities and mutual influences of the visual arts and material culture of Asia the Middle East Europe and the United States The volume will be of interest to scholars and students working in the fields of art and cultural history as well as intercultural studies It will be equally useful to collectors artists and curators of global art and world cultures Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world Bulletin of the Detroit Institute of Arts of the City of Detroit, 1925 Bulletin of the Detroit Institute of Arts of the City of Detroit Detroit Institute of Arts, 1924 Includes annual reports of the Detroit Arts Commission and of the Detroit Museum of Art Founders Society Bulletin of the Detroit Institute of Arts Detroit Institute of Arts, 1928 The Art of Modern China Julia F.
