Primeval Revelation In Myths And In Genesis A Dynamic Subject Much Neglected By Theologians:

The Primeval Revelation in Myths and Genesis Anthony Zimmerman,1999-11-23 In this provocative study Zimmerman examines the creation myths of traditional cultures and compares them to Genesis in terms of symbolic content While the Old Testament in general has only vague references to life in heaven the myths discuss the notion of an after life in a more vivid manner Zimmerman makes the novel claim that Genesis and the creation myths of hunter gatherers have a common source in the primeval revelation made by God In this sense Genesis owes much of its content to a revelation that has been kept alive by hunter gatherers Zimmerman also revisits the debate between fundamental creationists and evolutionists contending that the Bible does not teach science but sacred doctrine Elenchus of Biblica ,1999 Subject Guide to Books in
