Primitive Traits in Religious Revival Frederick Morgan Davenport,1972 Victorian Religious Revivals David Bebbington,2012-05-31 Revivals are outbursts of religious enthusiasm in which there are numerous conversions In this book the phenomenon of revival is set in its broad historical and historiographical context David Bebbington provides detailed case studies of awakenings that took place between 1841 and 1880 in Britain North America and Australia showing that the distinctive features of particular revivals were the result less of national differences than of denominational variations These revivals occurred in many places across the globe but revealed the shared characteristics of evangelical Protestantism Bebbington explores the preconditions of revival giving attention to the cultural setting of each episode as well as the form of piety displayed by the participants No single cause can be assigned to the awakenings but one of the chief factors behind them was occupational structure and striking instances of death were often a precipitant Ideas were far more involved in these events than historians have normally supposed so that the case studies demonstrate some of the main patterns in religious thought at a popular level during the Victorian period Laymen and women played a disproportionate part in their promotion and converts were usually drawn in large numbers from the young There was a trend over time away from traditional spontaneity towards more organised methods sometimes entailing interdenominational co operation The New Black Gods Edward E. Curtis IV,Danielle Brune Sigler,2009-04-23 Taking the influential work of Arthur Huff Fauset as a starting point to break down the false dichotomy that exists between mainstream and marginal a new generation of scholars offers fresh ideas for understanding the religious expressions of African Americans in the United States Fauset s 1944 classic Black Gods of the Metropolis launched original methods and theories for thinking about African American religions as modern cosmopolitan and democratic The essays in this collection show the diversity of African American religion in the wake of the Great Migration and consider the full field of African American religion from Pentecostalism to Black Judaism Black Islam and Father Divine's Peace Mission Movement As a whole they create a dynamic humanistic and thoroughly interdisciplinary understanding of African American religious history and life This book is essential reading for anyone who studies the African American experience The Psychology of the Methodist Revival Sydney George Dimond, 1926

The Restoration of the Gospel Osborne John Peter Widtsoe, 1912 The Burden of Black Religion Curtis J. Evans, 2008-04-10 Religion has always been a focal element in the long and tortured history of American ideas about race In The Burden of Black Religion Curtis Evans traces ideas about African American religion from the antebellum period to the middle of the twentieth century This important work reveals how interpretations of black religion played a crucial role in shaping broader views of African Americans and had real consequences in their lives In the process Evans offers an intellectual and cultural history of race in a crucial period of American history Fundamentals of Social Psychology Emory Stephen Bogardus, 1924 The Psychological Phenomena of Christianity George Barton Cutten, 1909
