change often entailing conflict This is seen in our own times where philosophies and movements of individualism pluralism and globalization intersect and often collide Still even in this fast moving and highly materialist world religion and spirituality remain crucial aspects of human and social living and therefore must be among the many focusses of the modern school Teachers of Religious and Spiritual Education RSE are therefore expected to support students religious and spiritual understanding as well as their overall development How can they best meet this challenge This book is comprised of various interdisciplinary research findings drawn from international scholarship The findings are of a different order from each other but all have in common an element of surprise sufficient to impel reflection and re thinking of many of the assumptions that normally underpin RSE The book therefore constitutes a contribution to ongoing understanding of the role played by religious and spiritual education and of the proper interface between RSE and the modern school contemporary curricula and the teacher of today Contributions by Robert Crotty Ola Erik Domaas Michael Fricke Liam Gearon Adrian Mario Gellel Eija Hanhimaki Laura Hirsto Tapani Innanen Terence Lovat Klaas Macha Emanuel P Magro Adil Mamodaly Fritz Oser Ulrich Riegel Inkeri Rissanen Sturla Sagberg Kirsi Tirri Theo van der Zee Karen Wenell

Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmino, 2002-04-29 Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students First evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator Second evangelical Christian education strives for connection making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture In this book Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities

Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill, 2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet's well-being This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co-flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving

Subversive Spirituality L. Paul Jensen, 2009-08-01 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture's increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed     The Spirit-Led Leader Timothy C. Geoffrion,2005-11-14 In our postmodern experience oriented culture people are longing for greater authenticity integrity and depth in their pastors and leaders Board directors church members and staff alike are all eagerly seeking leaders who effectively integrate their spirituality and leadership Pastors and executives however often struggle with knowing how to integrate their spiritual values and practices into their leadership and management roles Designed for pastors executives administrators managers coordinators and all who see themselves as leaders and who want to fulfill their God given purpose The Spirit Led Leader addresses the critical fusion of spiritual life and leadership for those who not only want to see results but who also desire to care just as deeply about who they are and how they lead as they do about what they produce and accomplish Geoffrion creates a new vision for spiritual leadership as partly an art partly a result of careful planning and always a working of the grace of God     The Riddles of Hamlet and the Newest Answers Simon Augustine Blackmore,1917 Reprint of the 1917 ed published by Stratford Co Boston     The Seeking Heart Ian Mobsby,2025-01-28 In the contemporary church the word mission has become synonymous with pace expansion and results Yet such an approach can often leave those with responsibilities in mission or ministry feeling exhausted and overwhelmed Not only that but mission which focuses on the rapid and the growing fails to recognise the rich resources the more contemplative Christian traditions can offer our post secular society and especially those who would call themselves spiritual but not religious     Five Views on the Gospel Michael Horton,Scot McKnight,David A. deSilva,Julie C Ma,Shively T.J Smith,2025-06-03 Five Views on the Gospel presents five different perspectives on the question What is the gospel Presenting a variety of contemporary and tradition based perspectives each contributor answers key questions about the nature of the gospel Questions contributors address include What is the gospel What is the context for understanding the New Testament teaching about the gospel What are the primary biblical texts that you believe express the gospel and how do you understand them What are people called to do with the gospel and what are the benefits promised by the gospel How can the definition and proclamation of the gospel be contextualized and made relevant today What example of an inadequate gospel and a false gospel can you offer What does it mean to live a life worthy of the gospel The CounterPoints format provides a unique opportunity for each contributor to set forth their own understanding of the gospel to interact with competing perspectives and for the editors to sum up points of agreement and disagreement and a path forward in the debate Positions and Contributors include The Reformation Gospel Michael Horton The King Jesus Gospel Scot McKnight The Wesleyan Gospel David A deSilva The Pentecostal Gospel Julie C Ma A Liberation Theology Gospel Shively T J Smith The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism David Pitman, 2016-02-17 Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism begins with the recognition that the traditional three fold typology adopted by Christians in responding to other living world religions is no longer adequate and offers a much more sophisticated and developed approach This is accomplished with particular reference to ten key Twentieth Century theologians each of whom had significant influence in the field of inter religious studies both during their lifetime and beyond The author rejects the exclusivism and triumphalism of traditional Christian approaches and argues strongly and persuasively that the future for inter religious relationships lies in what he describes as classical pluralism and in an understanding of the importance of difference for inter faith dialogue Presenting an accessible introduction to the contemporary issues and challenges facing all those engaged in the further development of inter faith relationships dialogue and partnership between the world religions Pitman argues that the future of world peace and prosperity depends on the outcome

Tracks and Traces Paul S. Fiddes, 2007-09-01 This is a comprehensive yet unusual book on the faith and life of Baptist Christians It explores a Baptist understanding of the church ministry sacraments and mission from a thoroughly theological perspective In a series of interlinked essays the author relates Baptist identity to a theology of covenant and to participation in the communion of the triune God The book thus surveys the tracks of heritage giving a solid historical background to each of the major themes while at the same time offering traces of possible paths for the future based on a
