The Longing for Home Frederick Buechner, 1996 In this deeply moving book of reflection and recollection Frederick Buechner once again draws us into his deeply textured life and experience to illuminate our own understanding of home as both our place of origin and our ultimate destination For Frederick Buechner the meaning of home is twofold the home we remember and the home we dream As a word it not only recalls the place that we grew up in and that had much to do with the people we eventually became but also points ahead to the home that in faith we believe awaits us at life s end Writing at the approach of his seventieth birthday he describes both in prose and in a group of poems the one particular house that was most precious to him as a child the books he read there and the people he loved there He speaks also of the lifelong search we are all engaged in to make a new home for ourselves and for our families which is at the same time a search to find something like the wholeness and comfort of home with ourselves As he turns his attention to our dreams of the heavenly home still to come he sees it as both hallowing and fulfilling the charity and the peace of our original home Writing with warmth wisdom and compelling eloquence Frederick Buechner once again enables us to see more deeply into the secret places of our hearts The Longing for Home will help to bring clarity and guidance to anyone who searches for meaning in a world that all too often seems meaningless
