ReFocus: The Films of Amy Heckerling Frances Smith, 2016-02-19 Refocus The Films of Amy Heckerling is the first book length study of the work of Amy Heckerling the phenomenally popular director and screenwriter of Clueless and Fast Times at Ridgemont High As such the book constitutes a significant intervention in Film Studies prompting a reconsideration of the importance of Heckerling both in the development of Teen cinema and as a figure in Hollywood comedy As part of the Refocus series the volume brings together outstanding original essays examining Heckerling's work from a variety of perspectives including film television and cultural studies and is destined to be used widely in undergraduate teaching

Family Fictions Sarah Harwood, 1997-06-12 Family Fictions explores images and narratives of the family in recent Hollywood cinema This is the first in depth analysis of this important topic which explores how problematic representations of the family were in a period when the family was a pivotal political and social issue Through close textual analysis of the biggest box office hits of recent years this book demonstrates the volatility of family representations and the instability of its narrative and ideological functions Well known films discussed include Kramer versus Kramer E.T. and Look Who's Talking

A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century Screening the Past Pam Cook, 2004-08-02 From Mildred Pierce and Brief Encounter to Raging Bull and In the Mood for Love this lively and accessible collection explores film culture's obsession with the past offering searching and provocative analyses of a wide range of titles Screening the Past engages with current debates about the role of cinema in mediating history through memory and nostalgia suggesting that many films use strategies of memory to produce diverse forms of knowledge which challenge established ideas of history and the traditional role of historians Classic essays sit side by side with new research contextualized by introductions which bring them up to date and provide suggestions for further reading as the work of contemporary directors such as Martin Scorsese Kathryn Bigelow Todd Haynes and Wong Kar wai is used to examine the different ways they deploy creative processes of memory Pam Cook also investigates the recent history of film studies reviewing the developments that have culminated in the exciting if daunting present moment The result is a rich and stimulating volume that will appeal to anyone with an interest in cinema memory and identity

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema detailing the major movements directors studios and genres from 1896 through 2012 Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills including many from recent films the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view conveying a sense of cinema's sweep in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day It details significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere In addition the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Engaging and accessible this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available for students teachers and general audiences alike
