Becoming American, Being Indian Madhulika S. Khandelwal, 2018-08-06 Since the 1960s the number of Indian immigrants and their descendants living in the United States has grown dramatically During the same period the make up of this community has also changed the highly educated professional elite who came to this country from the subcontinent in the 1960s has given way to a population encompassing many from the working and middle classes In her fascinating account of Indian immigrants in New York City Madhulika S Khandelwal explores the ways in which their world has evolved over four decades How did this highly diverse ethnic group form an identity and community Drawing on her extensive interviews with immigrants Khandelwal examines the transplanting of Indian culture onto the Manhattan and Queens landscapes She considers festivals and media food and dress religious activities of followers of different faiths work and class gender and generational differences and the emergence of a variety of associations Khandelwal analyzes how this growing ethnic community has gradually become more Indian with a stronger religious focus larger family networks and increasingly traditional marriage patterns She discusses as well the ways in which the American experience has altered the lives of her subjects

Wanderings Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2018-08-06 In one of the first books devoted to the experience of Sudanese immigrants and exiles in the United States Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf places her community into context showing its increasing historical and political significance Abusharaf herself participates in many aspects of life in the migrant community and in the Sudan in ways that a non Sudanese could not Attending religious events social gatherings and meetings Abusharaf discovers that a national sense of common Sudanese identity emerges more strongly among immigrants in North America than it does at home Sudanese immigrants use informal transatlantic networks to ease the immigration process and act on the local level to help others find housing and employment They gather for political activism to share feasts and to celebrate marriages always negotiating between tradition and the challenges of their new surroundings Abusharaf uses a combination of conversations with Sudanese friends interviews and life histories to portray several groups among the Sudanese immigrant population Southern war refugees including the Lost Boys of Sudan spent years in camps in Kenya or Uganda professionals were expelled from the Gulf because their country's rulers backed Iraq in the Gulf War Christian Copts suffered from religious persecution in Sudan and women migrated alone

Reckoning with Homelessness Kim Hopper, 2014-07-15 It must be some kind of experiment or something to see how long people can live without food without shelter without security Homeless woman in Grand Central Station Kim Hopper has dedicated his career to trying to address the problem of homelessness in the United States In this powerful book he draws upon his dual strengths as anthropologist and advocate to provide a deeper understanding of the roots of homelessness He also investigates the complex attitudes brought to bear on the issue since his pioneering fieldwork with Ellen Baxter twenty years ago helped put homelessness on the public agenda Beginning with his own introduction to the problem in New York Hopper uses ethnography literature history and activism to place homelessness into historical context and to trace the process by which homelessness came to be recognized as an issue He tells the largely neglected story of homelessness among African Americans and vividly portrays various sites of public homelessness such as airports His accounts of life on the streets make for powerful reading

Ginseng and Aspirin Zibin Guo,2000 Navigating the maze of modern American health care is rarely easy those who enter it are confronted with a dizzying array of specialists practitioners and clinics from which to choose and are forced to make decisions regarding drugs and treatments about which they may know very little For immigrants finding their way can be difficult especially for those to whom Western medicine is itself unfamiliar In this engaging accessible and detail rich book Zibin Guo narrates elderly Chinese immigrants response to contemporary American medicine Traditional Chinese medicine emphasizes self care and the medicinal value of foods and herbs American doctors responses to the ailments of their Chinese patients can seem impersonal and unnecessarily interventionist Distrust expense and problems of communication and interpretation often frustrate both patient and practitioner Guo paints a picture of a population that despite its outward appearance of homogeneity demonstrates a surprisingly wide variety of health care knowledge practice and belief Using case materials and interviews he analyzes the blend of folk treatments and respect for Western science that coexist in the health care regimens of these elderly Chinese immigrants
