Peacemaking among Primates Frans B. M. de Waal,F. B. M. de Waal,1990-09-01 Does biology condemn the human species to violence and war Previous studies of animal behavior incline us to answer yes but the message of this book is considerably more optimistic Frans de Waal describes the makeup of our closest animal relatives and in so doing shows that to humans making peace is as natural as making war Forward from Babylon Louis Golding,2019-12-06 In Forward from Babylon Louis Golding embarks on a richly woven narrative that reflects the tumultuous changes of early 20th century society through the lens of exile and cultural dislocation Set against the backdrop of the vibrant yet decaying city of London the novel employs a stream of consciousness style reminiscent of contemporaries such as Virginia Woolf while also embracing a vivid lyrical prose that captures the emotional depths of his characters Golding explores themes of identity belonging and the search for meaning amidst the disarray of modern life thus framing the text within the literary context of modernism where the individual s consciousness takes center stage amid societal upheaval Louis Golding an English novelist of Jewish descent drew from his own experiences as an immigrant and his fascination with the interplay of cultures His life

marked by the complexity of belonging to multiple worlds inflected his works with nuanced insights into the human condition This personal journey of navigating cultural landscapes undoubtedly influenced the creation of Forward from Babylon where he crafts a narrative that resonates with those caught between their past and present This novel is a poignant exploration of the human psyche that will resonate with readers interested in modernist literature and the themes of exile and identity Golding's deeply introspective approach invites readers to reflect on their own experiences of change and belonging making it an essential read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the cultural dynamics of the time Ben Amanda

Stevens, 2020-03-25 From the winner of the Western Downs Library Mini Romance Competition 2011 Set in the hills of Rathdowney where the shadows stretch for miles up lush green valleys this is the story of a woman Cora Brantly who returns home to raise cattle and to raise her sons in the place that she herself was raised When a truck loaded with her cattle rolls over when cows are calving when fences are down and a fox invades the hen house she has only herself to rely on But it's not all hardship there are shows to go to family to reunite with rodeos to and weddings to attend and handsome new friends to make I have just finished reading your book I must say I enjoyed reading it It has a great story to it and unlike a lot of novels the author is well acquainted with the subject J M I loved the relationship between the boys and their grandmother K Z Will be telling my girlfriends to add Ben to their reading list L a LOVE the book L C Case-Smith's Occupational Therapy
