interrelated roles for the architect and researcher The practice of architecture manifests in myriad forms and engagements Overcoming false divides this volume frames the fertile relationship between the cultural and scholarly production of academia and the process of designing and building in the material world It proposes the concept of the hybrid practitioner who bridges the gap between academia and practice by considering how different aspects of architectural practice theory and history intersect opening up a fascinating array of possibilities for an active engagement with the present The book explores different interrelated roles for practicing architects and researchers from the reproductive activities of teaching consulting and publishing through the reflective activities of drawing and writing to the practice of building The notion of the hybrid practitioner will appeal strongly to students teachers and architectural practitioners as part of a multifaceted professional environment By connecting academic interests with those of the professional realm The Hybrid Practitioner addresses a wider readership embracing landscape design art theory and aesthetics European history and the history and sociology of professions

The Urban Apparatus Reinhold Martin, 2016-10-25 Urbanization is a system of power and knowledge and today s city functions through the expansive material infrastructures of the urban order In The Urban Apparatus Reinhold Martin analyzes urbanization and the contemporary city in aesthetic socioeconomic and mediapolitical terms He argues that understanding the city as infrastructure reveals urbanization to be a way of imparting functional aesthetic and cognitive order to a contradictory doubly bound neoliberal regime Blending critical philosophy political theory and media theory The Urban Apparatus explores how the aesthetics of cities and their political economies overlap In a series of ten essays with a detailed theoretical introduction Martin explores questions related to urban life drawn from a wide range of global topics from the fiscal crisis in Detroit to speculative development in Mumbai to the landscape of Mars from discussions of race and the environment to housing and economic inequality Each essay proposes a particular mediator or a material complex that is shaped by imaginative practices each answering the question What is a city today The Urban Apparatus serves as an urban bookend to the architectural questions explored by Martin in his earlier book Utopia s Ghost and ultimately offers readers a way to think politically about urbanization

Architectural Drawings as Investigating

Devices Marianna Charitonidou, 2023-07-10 Architectural Drawings as Investigating Devices explores how the changing modes of representation in architecture and urbanism relate to the transformation of how the addressees of architecture and urbanism are conceived The book diagnoses the dominant epistemological debates in architecture and urbanism during the 20th and 21st centuries It traces their transformations paying special attention to Le Corbusier and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's preference for perspective representation to the diagrams of Team 10 architects to the critiques of functionalism and the upgrade of the artefactual value of architectural drawings in Aldo Rossi John Hejduk Peter Eisenman and Oswald Mathias Ungers and finally to the reinvention of architectural programme through the event in Bernard Tschumi and the Office for Metropolitan Architecture OMA Particular emphasis is placed on the spirit of truth and clarity in modernist architecture the relationship between the individual and the community in post war era architecture the decodification of design process as syntactic analogy and the paradigm of autonomy in the 1970s and 1980s architecture the concern about the dynamic character of urban conditions and the potentialities hidden in architectural programme in the post autonomy era This book is based on extensive archival research in Canada the USA and Europe and will be of interest to architects artists researchers and students in architecture architectural history theory cultural theory philosophy and aesthetics InfoWorld ,1994-05-23 InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects International Library of Technology ,1905 The Multilingual PC Directory Ian Tresman,1993 Surveillance or Security? Susan Landau,2011-01-28 How in the name of greater security our current electronic surveillance policies are creating major security risks Digital communications are the lifeblood of modern society We meet up online tweet our reactions millions of times a day connect through social networking rather than in person Large portions of business and commerce have moved to the Web and much of our critical infrastructure including the electric power grid is controlled online This reliance on information systems leaves us highly exposed and vulnerable to cyberattack Despite this U S law enforcement and national security policy remain firmly focused on wiretapping and surveillance But as cybersecurity expert Susan Landau argues in Surveillance or Security the old surveillance paradigms do not easily fit the new technologies By embedding eavesdropping mechanisms into communication technology itself we are building tools that could be turned against us and opting for short term security and creating dangerous long term risks How can we get communications security right Landau offers a set of principles to govern wiretapping policy that will allow us to protect our national security as well as our freedom On Surface and Place Peta Carlin,2018-03-21 On Surface and Place is a rich and poetic exploration of surfaces which foregrounds their significance in our understanding and experience of place Adopting weaving as its overarching metaphor it departs from Gottfried Semper's discussion of correspondences between architecture and textiles and emerges from the reading of photographs a swatch of Harris Tweed and curtain wall facade juxtaposed In juxtaposing the fabric of the city with the weave of Harris Tweed the book charts an original course across a range of connected ideas and questions combining many different themes writers and disciplines It presents integrated and innovative rethinkings on a number of fundamental relationships including correlations between body and building word and image and between the rural and the metropolitan and the hand crafted and the mass reproduced In doing so it seeks to foreground the very interrelationship of surface and place as it makes a claim for the relational nature of the world in which we live

Anxiolytics Mike Briley, David Nutt, 2012-12-06 For over thirty years the benzodiazepines monopolised not only the anxiolytic market but also clinical and animal research in anxiety Indeed many animal tests developed since the 1960s have been optimised for the benzodiazepines and some programmes have even screened candidates as potential anxiolytics on their benzodiazepine like side effects rather than their anxiolytic activity With the realisation of the drawbacks of the benzodiazepines namely their potential for tolerance and dependency there has been a renewed interest in alternative anxiolytics both from existing drugs such as the tricyclic and monoamine oxidase antidepressants and from newer agents such as buspirone In addition anxiety is no longer considered to be a unique entity but rather an umbrella term for a series of specific anxiety disorders such as panic disorder without or with agoraphobia generalised anxiety disorder GAD specific phobias social phobias and post traumatic stress disorder PTSD These new clinical categories have opened another dimension in the therapy of anxiety requiring the optimisation of treatments for different syndromes This book is a critical review of today's anxiolytics and those that may become the anxiolytics of tomorrow What is clear is that currently there are few clinically satisfactory alternatives to the benzodiazepines for the treatment of acute anxiety For chronic anxiety it is generally agreed that benzodiazepines are not the treatment of first choice The tricyclic and monoamine oxidase antidepressants the serotonin reuptake inhibitors and buspirone offer better solutions for chronic anxiety but they are still far from being ideal
