(Amawaajibitang), Michael Anthony Hart (Kaskitémahikan), Raven Sinclair (Ótiskewápiwskew), 2020-05-06T00:00:00Z W cihitowin is the first Canadian social work book written by First Nations Inuit and Métis authors who are educators at schools of social work across Canada. The book begins by presenting foundational theoretical perspectives that develop an understanding of the history of colonization and theories of decolonization and Indigenous social work. It goes on to explore issues and aspects of social work practice with Indigenous people to assist educators, researchers, students, and practitioners to create effective and respectful approaches to social work with diverse populations. Traditional Indigenous knowledge that challenges and transforms the basis of social work with Indigenous and other peoples comprises a third section of the book. W cihitowin concludes with an eye to the future which the authors hope will continue to promote the innovations and creativity presented in this groundbreaking work.

Roads to Confederation Jacqueline D. Krikorian, David R. Cameron, Marcel Martel, Andrew W. McDougall, Robert C. Vipond, 2017-10-31 Roads to Confederation surveys the way in which scholars from different disciplines writing in different periods viewed the Confederation process and the making of Canada. Recognizing that Confederation has been traditionally defined as a process affecting only British North America's Anglophone and Francophone communities, Roads to Confederation offers a broader approach to the making of Canada and includes scholarship written over 145 years. Volume 2 of this collection focuses on three major themes. It presents research from the perspective of Canada's regions with one chapter focusing exclusively on the competing understandings of 1867 from the perspective of Quebec. Next, it includes material pertaining to the geopolitical underpinnings of 1867 that addresses the relationship between Confederation, the U.S. Civil War, and American expansionism. Great Britain and war in the European theatre. Also included is leading scholarship by Stanley B. Ryerson, Adele Perry, Fernand Dumont, Ian McKay, and James W. Daschuk that questions whether Confederation itself was a formative event. Together with its companion volume, this is an invaluable resource for those who wish to deepen their understanding of the historical foundations on which Canada rests.

Les Ecrits Complets de Louis Riel Louis Riel, George G.F. Stanley, 1985 This critical definitive edition is composed of five annotated volumes: three of letters, diaries, declarations, and other prose writings ordered chronologically; one of poetry; and a reference volume. Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe and Canada Louis Knafla, 2006-01-01 How is modern day thinking about crime different from that of previous centuries? What are the similarities and differences in attitudes and systems between the civil and common law societies of Europe and North America? These and other questions were addressed at an international conference on crime and criminal justice at The University of Calgary attended by historians, professors of law, judges, and criminologists. The essays in Part I consider the evolution of criminal law doctrine, and those in Part II analyse the theory and measurement of crime in the past and at present. Parts III and IV examine the courts and prosecution, and Part V assesses the historical roots of the insanity defence and the theory and practice of punishment. The volume will be of interest across national boundaries to historians sociologists social workers lawyers and persons involved in the administration of justice as well as the general reader concerned about civil rights social values and justice The eighteen contributors include F H Baker J M Beattie W A Calder T C Curtis D Hay H Diederiks A Lachance His Honour W G Morrow A Soman and S Verdun Jones A Brief History of Canada Roger E.
