Ina Fandrich,John laFleur II,Brian Costelle,2013-02-14 For the last four decades Louisiana has promoted its 500 year old French Colonial Creole culture as Cajun implying that this culture had its origin in Acadian Canada Nothing could be farther from the truth During the racially turbulent 1960 s Jim Crow era when black Americans were literally struggling for their civil and human rights the historic nomenclature for Louisiana s historic multi ethnic CREOLE culture would change to a weird stereotyping of only WHITE French speakers as Cajun and only BLACK French speakers as Creole regardless of the facts of history genealogy geography and genalogical reality Today the meaning of Cajun has once again changed into something which seeks to encompass a so called regional identity which again ignores its own past and historical meaning What s really going on In Louisiana s French Creole Culinary Linguistic Traditions Facts vs Fiction Before and Since

Cajunization authors John LaFleur II and Brian Costello both life long Louisiana French Colonial Creole speakers and cultural experts along with Dr Ina Fandrich of New Orleans have decided to provide meaningful answers to questions long plaguing and confusing both the international and their local public Their research personal knowledge and answers are provided in this historic first which traces the pre Acadian roots of Louisiana s historic multi ethnic or Creole people their foodways and their several languages still spoken in Louisiana today The answers are often humorous but poignantly factual and well documented This beautiful hardcover book is furnished in vintage black and white and contemporary full color photography which grounds facts places and people to a forgotten reality and culture which has been re labeled and mass marketed as Cajun for reasons both shameful and comical to educated and right minded people alike American Art Directory ,1993 The biographical material formerly included in the directory is issued separately as Who s who in American art 1936 37
