Louvre European Sculpture:

The Louvre Musée du Louvre, Jean-René Gaborit, 1994 European Sculpture, 1400-1900, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Ian Wardropper, 2011 This beautiful book features masterpieces of sculpture in the collection of the Metropolitan Museum dating from the Renaissance through the nineteenth century Celebrated works by the great European sculptors including Luca and Andrea della Robbia Juan Martinez Montañés Gianlorenzo Bernini Jean Antoine Houdon Bertel Thorvaldsen Antoine Louis Barye Jean Baptiste Carpeaux Edgar Degas and Auguste Rodin are joined by striking new additions to the collection notably Franz Xaver Messerschmidt's remarkable bust of a troubled and introspective man The ninety two selected examples are diverse in media marble bronze wood terracotta and ivory and size ranging from a tiny oil lamp fantastically conceived and decorated by the Renaissance bronze sculptor Riccio to Antonio Canova's eight foot high Perseus with the Head of Medusa executed in the heroic Neoclassical style Incorporating information from the latest scholarly research and recent conservation studies sculpture specialist Ian Wardropper discusses the history and significance of the highlighted works each of which is reproduced with glorious new photography Salt mines and castles: The discovery and restitution of looted European art Thomas Carr Howe, 2022-08-21 In Salt Mines and Castles The Discovery and Restitution of Looted European Art Thomas Carr Howe presents a meticulous exploration of the dark legacy of art looting in Europe particularly during the tumultuous periods of war This scholarly work deftly intertwines historical narrative and critical analysis employing a clear and engaging prose style that invites readers to reflect on the moral complexities of cultural heritage Howe brings to light the often overlooked stories of stolen artworks and the subsequent efforts to reclaim them situating his discussion within the broader context of art history and ethics Thomas Carr Howe an influential figure in the field of art restitution draws on his extensive background in art curation and historical research to illuminate the multifaceted dimensions of this pressing issue His experiences with various art institutions and involvement in restitution dialogues provide him with unique insights motivating a passionate examination of how societies confront the legacies of the past through art Howe's authority on the subject enhances the book's scholarly integrity and relevance Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the intersections between art morality and history will find Salt Mines and Castles indispensable Howe's rigorous scholarship combined with poignant storytelling not only educates but also challenges us to consider the implications of art ownership and cultural restitution in contemporary society What Sculpture to See in Europe Mrs. Lorinda (Munson) Bryant, 1920 The Companion Guide to Paris Anthony Glyn, Susan Glyn, 2000 An exuberant performance THE TIMES Highly praised on its first appearance this new edition of the Companion Guide to Paris fully revised by Anthony Glyn's widow preserves his vivid evocation of Paris its foundation and history ancient churches wide boulevards and narrow streets architecture and philosophy while bringing the book up to date Special attention is paid to the completed Grand Louvre with its Pyramid the d'Orsay and Picasso Museums and the refurbished

Centre Pompidou the changes to the Eiffel Tower and the Pantheon and the restoration of the footpaths along the Seine Informed and amusing the book captures the changing moods of this fascinating city Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli, Tom Stammers, 2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860–1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal: How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021 The Art Guide to Europe N. D'Anvers, 1894 Hogarth and his Place in European Art Frederick Antal, 2022-11-30 First published in 1962 Hogarth and his Place in European Art attempts to convey the historical relevance both in its native and European context of perhaps the most outstanding English painter of the eighteenth century Dr Antal applies his method of establishing the close relationship between the political and social history and the arts and letters of the period Thus the book goes far beyond the limits of art historical appreciation It gives a panoramic picture of the first half of the eighteenth century in England with all its social literary and artistic connotations He shows how England which during those years became both politically and economically the most advanced country in Europe could provide in Hogarth in spite of the slender native tradition the most progressive artistic personality of his time whose work revealed the views and tastes of a broad cross section of society He traces Hogarth's stylistic origins back to their European sources and analyses his impact on contemporary European and English art as well as the influence he exerted on generations to come This book will be of interest to students of art history literature and European history The tourist's art guide to Europe N. D'Anvers, 1893 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1957 A History of European and American Sculpture from the Early Christian Period to the Present Day Chandler Rathfon Post, 1921 An Introduction to Nineteenth-Century Art Michelle Facos, 2011-02-22 Using the tools of the new art history feminism Marxism social context etc An Introduction to Nineteenth Century Art offers a richly textured yet clear and logical introduction to nineteenth century art and culture This

textbook will provide readers with a basic historical framework of the period and the critical tools for interpreting and situating new and unfamiliar works of art Michelle Facos goes beyond existing histories of nineteenth century art which often focus solely on France Britain and the United States to incorporate artists and artworks from Scandinavia Germany and Eastern Europe The book expertly balances its coverage of trends and individual artworks where the salient trends are clear trend setting works are highlighted and the complexity of the period is respected by situating all works in their proper social and historical context In this way the student reader achieves a more nuanced understanding of the way in which the story of nineteenth century art is the story of the ways in which artists and society grappled with the problem of modernity Key pedagogical features include Data boxes provide statistics timelines charts and historical information about the period to further situate artworks Text boxes highlight extracts from original sources citing the ideas of artists and their contemporaries including historians philosophers critics and theorists to place artists and works in the broader context of aesthetic cultural intellectual social and political conditions in which artists were working Beautifully illustrated with over 250 color images Margin notes and glossary definitions Online resources at www.routledge.com/textbooks/facos with access to a wealth of information including original documents pertaining to artworks discussed in the textbook contemporary criticism timelines and maps to enrich your understanding of the period and allow for further comparison and exploration Chapters take a thematic approach combined within an overarching chronology and more detailed discussions of individual works are always put in the context of the broader social picture thus providing students with a sense of art history as a controversial and alive arena of study Michelle Facos teaches art history at Indiana University Bloomington Her research explores the changing relationship between artists and society since the Enlightenment and issues of identity Prior publications include Nationalism and the Nordic Imagination Swedish Painting of the 1890s 1998 Art Culture and National Identity in Fin de Si cle Europe co edited with Sharon Hirsh 2003 and Symbolist Art in Context 2009 Missing Art River Stone, 2025-03-21 Imagine a world where masterpieces vanish without a trace leaving behind only unanswered questions and a void in our cultural heritage This book Missing Art delves into the captivating realm of lost and stolen artworks exploring the mysteries surrounding their disappearances and the relentless efforts to recover them This book examines not just the individual stories of stolen art but also the broader forces at play the motivations behind art theft the complexities of international law enforcement and the evolving role of technology in both the theft and recovery processes Why do these disappearances occur What makes a piece of art so valuable that individuals are willing to risk imprisonment to obtain it The answers lie in a complex web of economic incentives psychological drives and historical circumstances Understanding these factors is crucial to preventing future losses and ultimately preserving our shared artistic legacy We will examine the historical context of art theft tracing its roots from wartime looting to sophisticated modern day heists The book will explore the social and economic factors that contribute to the rise of art crime highlighting the role of organized crime syndicates unscrupulous collectors and the sometimes lax security measures in place at museums and galleries This understanding will provide the bedrock for analyzing specific cases of missing art The central argument of Missing Art is that the disappearance of artworks represents not only a loss of aesthetic beauty but also a severing of our connection to the past Each missing masterpiece carries with it a unique story reflecting the culture beliefs and values of its time Its absence diminishes our understanding of history and impoverishes our collective identity The book will begin by introducing the key concepts of art crime provenance research and the international art market It will then develop its argument through three major thematic sections The first section will focus on high profile art thefts examining cases such as the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum heist and the disappearance of the Ghent Altarpiece panels The second section will investigate the role of wartime looting and its enduring impact on the art world with a particular emphasis on Nazi era plunder The third section will explore the challenges of recovering stolen art highlighting the work of law enforcement agencies art recovery specialists and the legal battles that often ensue The book culminates by examining the ethical implications of art ownership and the responsibility of collectors museums and governments to ensure the safekeeping of cultural heritage Supporting this exploration will be an array of evidence including police reports court documents archival materials and interviews with art historians law enforcement officials and art recovery experts Missing Art also touches on connections between art law history and criminology The legal aspects of art ownership and repatriation are explored as are the historical contexts that led to specific instances of art theft The book also connects to criminology by examining the motivations of art thieves and the methods they employ This book provides a unique perspective by combining rigorous research with engaging storytelling It avoids sensationalism instead offering a nuanced and informative account of the complex world of art crime Written in a clear and accessible style Missing Art is aimed at a broad audience including art enthusiasts history buffs true crime fans and anyone interested in the preservation of cultural heritage The book will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of art history law enforcement and museum studies As a work of non fiction this book adheres to the highest standards of accuracy and objectivity It is a comprehensive overview of the topic focusing on providing a balanced and well researched account of the key issues While the book covers a wide range of cases and topics it does not attempt to be an exhaustive encyclopedia of all missing artworks Instead it focuses on providing a representative sample of cases that illustrate the broader themes and challenges of art recovery Ultimately Missing Art serves as a call to action urging readers to become more aware of the threats facing our cultural heritage and to support efforts to protect and preserve it The book also highlights the importance of provenance research and ethical collecting practices empowering readers to become responsible stewards of the art world The book seeks to address some of the controversies surrounding art restitution particularly in relation to wartime looting and colonial era artifacts It will examine the arguments for and against repatriation acknowledging the complexities and sensitivities involved
