Love As Passion:

Reality, Religion, and Passion Jessica Frazier, 2009-01-16 The problem of radical doubt has threatened the commitment to ultimate truth in many cultures and periods In Reality Religion and Passion Jessica Frazier compares two thinkers who sought to restore philosophy's passion for truth in cultures threatened by the dispassion of radical doubt In these complementary but divergent philosophies from Europe and India each grounded in a transcendental metaphysics that sees consciousness as the basis of reality two different ethics of vitality and passion take shape Frazier shows how Heidegger's heir Hans Georg Gadamer uses metaphysical insights borrowed from Plato Aristotle Hegel and Heidegger as the ground for an ethics of play which casts a uniquely positive light on the finitude and flux of the postmodern world view Complementing this continental European position the work of Rupa Goswami a poet theologian of early modern India develops a similar analysis of phenomenal reality into a philosophy not of play but of passion From Gadamer's philosophers and poets to Goswami's amorous goddess Radha both visions see salvation in a renewed passion for truth This journey toward a viable philosophy of life touches on a range of debates in Western philosophy and Indian religion including the nature of philosophical and religious truths the perceived goals of philosophy the history of emotion in reason and religion and the development of phenomenological accounts of subjectivity It establishes a model for comparative philosophical methodology and aims to contribute to a multicultural history of religious and philosophical reasoning Above all this book addresses Badiou's challenge to rediscover the passion of the real and Heidegger's injunction to all thinkers to seek the word that is able to call one to faith

A Love for Nothingness, A Love for Death Alberto Castelli, 2024-06-15 This book aims at explaining romantic love between straight adults through literary texts of the western canon from the nineteenth and twentieth century Each chapter comes with a multidisciplinary approach in which protagonists are mutilated in their quest for loving as alternative to annihilation The book emphasizes love as an obsession thus as an exploration of the mind From the passion myth of Tristan and Isolde to the nihilist modernist representations the western world has created a perverse concept of love A love for nothingness for death Narcissistic and at times destructive love is gained by overcoming obstacles If without obstacles there is no love then love becomes love for obstacles Within this masochistic frame love falling in love being loved always stand at the edge of pathology At its core this book narrates a love story more precisely a story of loves the haunting evocation of a desire that by its very nature cannot be fulfilled Inherent in the nature of love is a subtle dialectical activity between presence and absence between creation and destruction reality and void Accordingly the narrative raises questions that the past two centuries were incapable of answering Does love only last the time of a kiss Is its promise fatally destined to dissolve What about violence Physical emotional temporal Is it an ineliminable part of love or its most extreme profanation And what is the mystery that accompanies loves that know how to last without resigning themselves to the death of desire It is to answer some of these questions that I wrote this text Love is an unconscious process that dominates reason and destroys it when reason cannot be a mode of communication Hence the amorous romance is madness and this text is written as a loud reminder

Overcoming the Exploitation of Passion in Videogame Labor Joshua Jackson, 2023-02-06 Overcoming the Exploitation of Passion in Videogame Labor Playing with Passion examines the intersection of passion precarity and collocation to pinpoint where and how interventions can be made towards better working conditions Jackson contends that videogames and passion are inextricably linked and explores this intrinsic link where passion is expected and valorized be it in the context of play work or culture Passion Jackson argues is the connective tissue that sews together the shared experiences that people all over the world will undertake through videogames including winning close matches experiencing new worlds and forging new friendships This book interrogates the outcomes of labor videogames and passion colliding work and play become inextricably linked and suddenly a passion for games becomes an insistent and expected passion for work This Jackson ultimately posits leads to the current reality of much of the videogame production industry where passion is used as a workplace policing tool and a way to push workers to periods of extended work or crunch periods Through theorizations regarding passion bodies assembly and assemblage this text wrestles with what can be done to manifest real change in the videogame industry Scholars of media studies technology and labor studies
