Love Crimes:

Passion and Criminality Louis Proal, 1905 The Panda Poems O. Panda, 2013-03-13 This is the original collection of my feelings about everything that I have lived to experience My name is Osman Panda a Sierra Leonean by birth I was born on September 24th 1952 in Wilberforce Freetown and married with 5 children Attending the Wilberforce Primary school saw me going to the Prince of Wales secondary school in 1965 Dropping out of school in the 3rd form which is the equivalent of the 10th grade in 1968 I had another opportunity to go back to school working for a judge In 1969 not able to satisfy his wife's draconian rules I had to step down again until 1976 when a philanthropist came to my aid Mr Sahr Martin Ngombu Gbolie of blessed memory founder and proprietor of Kono Model Academy may his soul rest in peace He offered me board and lodging and free tuition for two years thereby helping me to graduate from high school in 1978 After graduating he offered me a teaching job As a sports teacher and assistant teacher in government and religious knowledge I served the school for two years and eventually went to the Milton Margais Teachers college in 1980 I majored in Physical Education graduating as the student of the year with a Higher Teachers Certificate in 1983 I taught for two more years in my former school K M A Through the grace of the almighty God I received a letter from the principal of the Bo Teachers College inviting me to join the Physical Education Department in 1985 That journey lasted until 1991 when I received another letter from the principal of the only boarding school in The Gambia at that time the Armitage High School The most exciting and fruitful moments of my work experience was realized in that country Through the efforts of my dear wife Comfort I eventually had the privilege to come to the US where the idea of the PANDA POEMS WAS BORN Film Noir Reader 2 Alain Silver, James Ursini, 1999 In the wake of the remarkable success of Film Noir Reader this new collection further explores a genre of limitless fascination and one that continues to inspire and galvanise the latest generation of film makers Again heavily illustrated with close to 150 stills Film Noir Reader 2 is organised much like the earlier volume Framing Female Lawyers Cynthia A. Barto Lucia, 2021 No detailed description available for Framing Female Lawyers Feminist Hollywood Christina Lane, 2000 Feminist Hollywood examines the differences between commercial cinema and counter cinema by focusing on the work of contemporary women directors who have entered Hollywood from the realm of independent filmmaking Christina Lane compares their early documentaries or avant garde films with their more mainstream endeavors as she explores the possibilities and limits of feminist expression within the male dominated industry of commercial filmmaking Feminist Hollywood incorporates interviews with directors Susan Seidelman Martha Coolidge Kathryn Bigelow Lizzie Borden Darnell Martin and Tamra Davis in an attempt to bridge the theory gap that often excludes women's professional experiences and makes false assumptions about how the industry operates Lane balances these firsthand accounts with cultural theory and an understanding of the current film industry in which the line between commercial and independent filmmaking has become blurred The timely and comprehensive nature of this volume will make it a welcome addition to the bookshelves of film scholars and amateur movie buffs alike Reel Photos Wendy Sterba, 2015-02-26 Even in an age when the photograph has changed from a physical object into a data file that can be easily manipulated we tend to believe what we see But photographs can and do lie As an object in a film a photograph's meaning and function can be even more malleable and deceiving as new developments in technology are altering how we perceive reality In Reel Photos: Balancing Art and Truth in Contemporary Film Wendy Sterba examines the use of photographs in cinema to explore issues of objectivity subjectivity fabrication and fact This study first looks at the traditional use of the photograph in films such as Blow Up and then considers similar issues as they relate to the search for truth in detective films like Along Came a Spider The Bone Collector and Forgotten Subsequent chapters explore ambivalence and photographic objectification in films about art photography including The Governess Fur and Closer Other movies discussed include Inception Paparazzi Under Fire and Somebody Has to Shoot the Picture By examining the function of the photograph in movies rather than the role of film photography as art Sterba provides an innovative approach to cinema studies Utilizing theory in an intelligent but easily understandable way this book allows readers to re-examine the role of authorship and the value of authentic art Reel Photos will appeal to students and scholars of cinema as well as anyone interested in the aesthetics of art and truth in film Social Work in a

Glocalised World Mona Livholts, Lia Bryant, 2017-04-07 This engaging and timely volume contributes new knowledge to the rapidly emerging field of globalisation and social work The volume brings together cutting edge interdisciplinary scholarship from countries such as Australia Finland Japan South Africa the Philippines and Sweden It proposes glocalisation as a useful concept for re-framing conditions methodologies and practices for social work in a world perspective Part I of the volume The Glocalisation of Social Issues deals with major environmental social and cultural issues migration and human rights environmental problems and gendered violence Part II Methodological Re-Shaping and Spatial Transgression in Glocalised Social Work develops an epistemology of situated knowledge and methodologies inspired by art creative writing and cultural geography focusing on physical material and emotional spatial dimensions of relevance to social work Part III Responses from Social Work as a Glocalised Profession examines how social work has responded to specific social problems crises and vulnerabilities in a glocalised world Centring Women in Bollywood Biopics Chandrava Chakravarty, Sneha Kar

Chaudhuri, 2024-10-28 This book explores the dramatic rise in popularity of the women's biopic in contemporary Bollywood within the context of wider cultural shifts over the past decade Delving into the societal shifts reflected in the genre both on and off screen the book explores the contours of individual agency and the centring of women in Indian cinema The book offers new insight into women-centric Hindi biopics a fast rising genre carving out a tradition of its own with female directors and actors contributing to this rising postfeminist celebration of women's agency and individuality The authors posit that the alternative narratives created by Bollywood and accepted by mainstream audiences have become a catalyst to elevate women or female actors to protagonists without the need to conform to the sexist mores of mainstream Bollywood This book will be and villains in the never ending battle of good versus evil The Correspondence of Karl Heinrich Ulrichs, 1846-1894 Douglas Ogilvy Pretsell, 2020-05-20 This book will be the first critical edition of all the surviving correspondence to and from and about Karl Heinrich Ulrichs between 1846 and 1894 Ulrichs a former Hanoverian lawyer was the first to articulate a personal identity of sexuality that defined individuals by their sexual object This articulation of sexual modernist identities is Ulrichs abiding legacy to the world He wrote twelve short books between 1864 and 1879 arguing for the removal of laws and prejudice against urnings and articulating a scientific theory that placed them as a third gender He is a foundational figure in the history of sexuality yet there has never been an edition of his complete correspondence in either English or the original German The correspondence between the years of 1846 and 1894 covers three definable periods the years before Ulrichs began writing 1846 1864 the years between which all his principle works his lobbying and all his activism took place 1865 1879 and his final years in exile 1880 1895 The analysis will contend that the correspondence reveals that Ulrichs project was not just a lonely campaign against legal prohibition of the hydra of public contempt but instead was part of a far wider campaign of community led self definition that was actively promoted at home and abroad The Kaleidoscopic Lover Dr. Badal Kariye BA, BSIT, MA, MBA & PhD, 2010-07-23 The Civil War in the Horn of Africa My Itinerary for a Peaceful Lover The Kaleidoscopic Lover is a fictional novel which is translating endangered love in civil war country where it s impossible to see or meet your lover due to well founded of persecution on account of race or firing weapons which you can t understand why and who they re firing to It s very terrible to act a good lover in civil war country you must be a kaleidoscopic lover because you can easily be a love survivor if you re living in disobedient environment of anarchic civil war and tribalism dominates the living conditions and areas where you don t have close family members or other methods of self defense It forced me to travel from one country acting as the King of the Kaleidoscopic Lovers in the world and if you read this fictional romantic novel of the Kaleidoscopic Lover then you ll know more about risky lovers for true romance in civil war or war torn countries which has never been discovered by renowned novelists around the world It s freaky and very funny experiences in love Out of the Crucible Zuoya Cao, 2003-01-01 Out of the Crucible offers an informative and inviting study of the novels and short stories of the lives of the zhiqing the Chinese urban youth who were sent to rural areas during the rustication movement in the second phase of the Cultural Revolution Author Zuoya Cao a former zhiqing herself covers the works authors themes characters and plots of zhiqing literary writing from the late 1970s to the late 1990s She teases out the significant themes of zhiqing literature heroism and idealism suffering and internal transformation moral dilemmas and the loss of innocence love and cultural difference sexual and spiritual oppression zhiqing peasant relations the relationship between man and nature and the conflict between the desire to leave the countryside and the attachment to it Through a perceptive analysis of the treatment of these themes drawing on her extensive knowledge of Chinese literary and social history in addition to her own experiences Cao reveals the emotional aspects of the rustication movement and the humanistic significance of the zhiqing experience and enriches our understanding of modern Chinese literature and history The Bond George P Fletcher, 2009-08-21 Adam Gross philosopher cum lawyer teaches at an Ivy League law school in New York Good looking cultivated bohemian he was once considered the rising star of his faculty but that was a decade ago and times have changed Doing the job he always wanted shaping eager young minds showing them what it takes to be a lawyer Adam has to face the truth that his style is no longer what the students pay for and his Dean is getting worried about the rising number of complaints It doesn't help that he is about to start sleeping with the Dean's wife Faced with a struggle for survival sandwiched between headstrong students and colleagues eager to see him cut down to size Adam knows no other course than to keep teaching law as he believes it must be taught as a global complex and multi faceted phenomenon in which American law is just one part of the picture In a world in which the old certainties have been swept away in which torture happens on our doorstep and inequalities multiply more than ever Adam wants his students to understand that they hold the key to a better more just future This novel by acclaimed Columbia Professor of Law George Fletcher is at one and the same time a tale of university life and a fascinating journey into the philosophical world of law By turns provocative challenging shocking and amusing THE BOND will change forever the way law students and their teachers think about the law A shrewd and funny insight into a world of ideas love and intrigue the American law school Bernard Schlink author of The Reader This novel provides a unique insight into the workings of the legal mind and the inner life of law schools Bruce Ackerman Sterling Professor of Law and Political Science Yale University See the detailed website for this book <http://fletcher.thebond.com/cat4>
