Hanif Kureishi Kenneth C. Kaleta, 2010-01-01 Hanif Kureishi is a proper Englishman Almost So observes biographer Kenneth Kaleta Well known for his films My Beautiful Laundrette and Sammy and Rosie Get Laid the Anglo Asian screenwriter essayist and novelist has become one of the leading portrayals of Britain's multicultural society His work raises important questions of personal and national identity as it probes the experience of growing up in one culture with roots in another very different one This book is the first critical biography of Hanif Kureishi Kenneth Kaleta interviewed Kureishi over several years and enjoyed unlimited access to all of his working papers journals and personal files From this rich cache of material he opens a fascinating window onto Kureishi's creative process tracing such works as My Beautiful Laundrette Sammy and Rosie Get Laid The Buddha of Suburbia London Kills Me The Black Album and Love in a Blue Time from their genesis to their public reception Writing for Kureishi fans as well as film and cultural studies scholars Kaleta pieces together a vivid mosaic of the postcolonial hybrid British culture that has nourished Kureishi and his work Hanif Kureishi Ruvani Ranasinha, 2023-08-29 Original bold and always funny Hanif Kureishi is one of Britain's most popular provocative and versatile writers Born in Bromley in 1954 to an Indian father and white British mother Kureishi's life is intimately bound up with the history of immigration and social change in Britain This is the story of how a mixed raced child of empire who attended the local comprehensive school found success with a remarkable series of novels and screenplays including My Beautiful Laundrette and The Buddha of Suburbia. Intimacy, Venus and Le Week End. The book also illuminates a larger story not only of the artist as a young man but of the recasting of Britain in the aftermath of decolonisation. Drawing on journals, letters and manuscripts from Kureishi's unexplored archive recently acquired by the British Library and informed by interviews with his family, friends and collaborators as well with the writer himself, Ruvani Ranasinha sheds new light on how his life animates his work. This first biography offers a vivid portrait of a major talent who has inspired a new generation of writers.

The Cambridge Companion to the English Short Story Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2016-06-06 This Companion provides an accessible overview of short fiction by writers from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and other international sites. A collection of international experts examine the development of the short story in a variety of contexts from the early nineteenth century to the present. They consider how dramatic changes in the publishing landscape during this period, such as the rise of the fiction magazine and the emergence of new opportunities in online and electronic publishing, influenced the form, covering subgenres from detective fiction to flash fiction. Drawing on a wealth of critical scholarship to place the short story in the English literary tradition, this volume will be an invaluable guide for students of the short story in English.

The Cambridge History of the English Short Story Dominic Head, 2016-11-14 The Cambridge History of the English Short Story is the first comprehensive volume to capture the literary history of the English short story. Charting the origins and generic evolution of the English short story to the present day and written by international experts in the field, this book covers numerous transnational and historical connections between writers, modes and forms of transmission. Suitable for English literature students and scholars of the English short story generally, it will become a standard work of reference in its field.

A Country of Refuge Lucy Popescu, 2016-06-02 A Country of Refuge is a poignant, thought-provoking and timely anthology of writing on asylum seekers from some of Britain and Ireland's most influential voices. Compiled and edited by human rights activist and writer Lucy Popescu this powerful collection of short fiction memoir poetry and essays explores what it really means to be a refugee to flee from conflict poverty and terror to have to leave your home and family behind and to undertake a perilous journey only to arrive on less than welcoming shores These writings are a testament to the strength of the human spirit The contributors articulate simple truths about migration that will challenge the way we think about and act towards the dispossessed and those forced to seek a safe place to call home Love in a Blue Time Hanif Kureishi,1997 Hanif Kureishi author of The Buddha of Suburbia is one of a generation of British writers whose experience of the United Kingdom is refracted socially and culturally through his Pakistani heritage The stories in this collection incorporate the humour bawdiness and aggression of his novels Writing British Muslims Rehana Ahmed,2024-06-04 The Rushdie affair September 11 2001 and 7 7 pushed British Muslims into the forefront of increasingly fraught debate about multiculturalism Stereotyping images have proliferated reducing a heterogeneous minority group to a series of media soundbites This book examines contemporary literary representations of Muslims by British writers of South Asian Muslim descent including Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali and Nadeem Aslam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies The British Short Story Emma Liggins,Andrew Maunder,Ruth Robbins,2017-09-16 The short story remains a crucial if neglected part of British literary heritage This accessible and up to date critical overview maps out the main strands and figures that shaped the British short story and novella from the 1850s to the present It offers new readings of both classic and forgotten texts in a clear jargon free way

The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch,2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature South Asian Writers in Twentieth-Century Britain Ruvani Ranasinha,2007-02-22 South Asian Writers in Twentieth Century Britain is the first book to provide a historical account of the publication and reception of South Asian anglophone writing from the 1930s to the present based on original archival research drawn from a range of publishing houses This comparison of succeeding generations of writers who emigrated to or were born in Britain examines how the experience of migrancy the attitudes towards migrant writers in the literary market place and the critical reception of them changed significantly throughout the twentieth century Ranasinha shows how the aesthetic cultural and political context changed significantly for each generation producing radically different kinds of writing and transforming the role of the postcolonial writer of South Asian origin The extensive use of original materials from publishers archives shows how shifting political academic and commercial agendas in Britain and North America influenced the selection content presentation and consumption of many of these texts The differences between writers of different generations can thus in part be understood in terms of the different demands of their publishers and expectations of readers in each decade Writers from different generations are paired accordingly in each chapter Nirad Chaudhuri 1897 1999 with Tambimuttu 1915 83 Ambalavener Sivanandan born 1923 with Kamala Markandaya born 1924 Salman Rushdie born 1947 with Farrukh Dhondy born 1944 and Hanif Kureishi born 1954 with Meera Syal born 1963 Raja Rao Mulk Raj Anand Attia Hosain V S Naipaul and Aubrey Menen are also discussed India Today ,1997 Configuring Masculinity in Theory and Literary Practice ,2015-05-26 Configuring Masculinity in Theory and Literary Practice combines a critical survey of the most important concepts in Masculinity Studies with a historical overview of how masculinity has been constructed within British Literature and a special focus on developments in the 20th and 21st centuries Hanif Kureishi Susie Thomas,2017-09-08 Hanif Kureishi is one of the most exciting and controversial British writers who has produced significant work in a range of forms plays essays novels short stories and film This guide introduces and sets in context the key debates about his work and discusses his writing in relation to such issues as gender postcolonial theory and British identity today By exploring Kureishi s own statements and a wide range of critical perspectives the guide provides a comprehensive resource for the study of one of the most important critical figures in contemporary culture
